HERE'S DEVER'S BOOZE STORY

FRANCE TO OFFER 50C ON DOLLAR, CAPITAL HEARS

Debt Commission to Meet Today.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 22.—[Special.]—The American war debt funding commission will meet tomorrow morning to receive what M. Berenger, the French ambassador, promises will be a definite offer by France for settlement of her $4,000,000,000 debt to the United States.

Secretary of Treasury Mellon issued the call today to the meeting as a result of his conversations with the ambassador on the subject. In these informal negotiations the American finance minister became convinced that France is now ready to propose a settlement more acceptable than was the final offer of the Caillaux commission last year.

May Provide Basis.

Without indicating whether he considers the forthcoming offer as satisfactory, Mr. Mellon does convey his belief that it should be given earnest consideration as a possible basis of compromise.

The Caillaux final proposal was to pay the principal of the debt, but with interest at so low an average rate for a period of nearly 70 years, that the funding would represent in reality a settlement by France at about 40 cents on the dollar.

The American commission, supported by President Coolidge, declined to accept this offer, which meant a sixty per cent cancellation of the debt. The Americans were willing to cancel 40 per cent and settle at 60 cents on the dollar, but France would not agree.

Fifty Per Cent Cancellation Now.

Now it is understood the French ambassador is prepared to offer a settlement on the basis of annuities beginning at about $25,000,000 and rising to $125,000,000 at the close of a period of about 65 years. This is calculated to be the equivalent of a 50 per cent cancellation, or midway between the positions of the two commissions last year.

The French are understood to have yielded ground also on the matter of the security clause upon which Caillaux insisted to the last. This, in effect, provided that France should not be required to fulfill her obligations if she should fail to receive the amount of reparations expected from Germany. Our commission rejected a contingent settlement.

Reed Tries to Recall Italy Pact.

The senate wrangled again today on the motion of Senator Reed [Dem., Mo.] to reconsider approval of the Italian debt settlement, but got nowhere. Vice President Dawes, Senator Borah [Rep., Idaho], and administration leaders generally all were hit during the short but lively debate.

Senator Reed [Rep., Pa.] started the ball rolling by asserting that Senator Borah had materially altered for the record remarks which he made on the floor yesterday and referred to the tilt between himself and Senator Borah yesterday over the proposed tabling of the proposed motion to reconsider. He recalled how Senator Borah had declared with heat that he had never voted to lay a motion on the table since he had been in the senate.

Aims Dart at Dawes.

"That is what he said on the floor," said Senator Reed, "and that is what the stenographer took down, but here is how his remarks appeared in the record. It read: 'It has been my rule to vote against the proposition to lay anything on the table. My record here will show that I have all but universally protested and voted against the practice.'

"He changed it after I pointed out that Borah had voted to lay the motion to reconsider the case of Charles Beecher Warren on the table."

"But that was a very different situation," said Senator Reed of Missouri, arising to defend Senator Borah, who had left the senate chamber. "In the Warren case the question presented was not one of limiting debate. It was a matter of how fast an automobile could travel from the Hotel Willard to the senate bearing the somnolent form of the president of the senate."

Mr. Dawes was not in the chair during this part of the debate.

Now Faces Indiana Murder Charge.

Frank McErlane, who began his criminal career in 1913 as one of Chicago's pioneer auto bandits, participated in one of the most sensational jail breaks in the history of Cook county, served portions of two terms in the Joliet penitentiary, and lately rose to the leadership of the city's most powerful beer running combine, was seized yesterday afternoon in a police raid on a saloon where he and five of his principal lieutenants were holding a conference.

To him and his partner, Joe Saltis, who also was arrested in the swoop made by Deputy Chief of Detectives John Stege and several picked squads, the police attribute the plotting of many murders, mostly of men who dared to dispute their sovereignty over the beer business of the south side.

Guard Against Possible Escape.

Last night elaborate precautions were made at the detective bureau—first to make sure that no attempt at escape from cells in the lockup would be successful, and second that no legal twists free the beer barons.

Two murders of the last two weeks—those of John Tuccello and Frank De Laurentis, west side alcohol runners who thought they were big enough to buck the combine by selling in its territory—are attributed to Saltis and McErlane, but Capt. Stege is skeptical of ever getting proof enough to go to court. Hence the federal authorities and the law enforcement agencies of Lake county, Ind., will be used today in an effort to hold McErlane.

United States Has Warrant.

Since last October the United States marshal's office has been holding a warrant charging the beer chieftain with violation of the federal laws against booze selling in Indiana. Deputy Marshal R. D. Holcomb, with the warrant, appeared at the bureau last night and will take charge of the prisoner this morning.

Here the plot thickens again into one worthy of the lawyers who in the past have enabled McErlane to slip through the courts most of the time. There is a warrant, nearly a year old, in the hands of Sheriff Strong at Crown Point. It charges McErlane with the murder of Attorney Thad S. Fancher in a Lake county roadhouse.

Extradition Were Annulled.

Sheriff Strong has never been able to get hold of the gangster, reputedly the most powerful in Chicago. Political influence has been too strong. Some six months ago the sheriff came with the papers. He went to Springfield and obtained an extradition warrant. But when he arrived here, according to Capt. Stege, a notification was received that a mistake had been made and the extradition process was annulled.

The Indiana officer, somewhat puzzled at the power of McErlane, went back without him. But now he is ready. When the federal authorities reach the Hoosier soil he will be ready to serve the murder warrant.

Walter Stevens Also Seized.

With Saltis and McErlane in the saloon, at 2301 West 50th street, were Walter Stevens, 58 year old dean of all Chicago's gunmen and regarded by the police as one of the most desperate criminals at large, Charles [Buster] Brown, Edward Herbert and Michael Cramer. Peter Miksha, proprietor of the saloon, was also taken into custody.

When Deputy Chief Stege and his men entered the place there was a wild scramble by the gangsters to get rid of their weapons. They were tossed on the floor and behind the bar. One or two of the men broke for a rear door, but found it guarded. So they all made the best of the situation and threw up their hands.

Outside, in a large automobile, so new that it did not bear even a license plate, the raiding squads found a sawed-off shotgun, the favorite weapon of the gangster killers. In a coat hanging inside were a dozen shells to fit it. None of the men would admit ownership, but Capt. Stege tried it on both Saltis and McErlane and found that it was a fair fit for either.

Sick When Murder Occurred.

At the detective bureau, as the six men were lined up, McErlane, who looks like a butter and egg man, chewed the stub of a cigar and answered the deputy chief's questions readily. He talked, but he said little. As to the killing of Tuccello and De Laurentis:

"I was out to my farm when it

SHIP IN PORT AFTER 130 DAYS' BATTLE AT SEA

San Pedro, Cal., April 22.—(AP)—With her crew gaunt from hunger and long believed lost at sea, the four masted schooner Irene arrived here today after 130 days' battle against adverse weather. Two members of her crew, G. I. Peterson and Fred Dale, were ill in their bunks from exposure and lack of change in diet, while the remainder presented a half starved appearance.

A succession of head winds, punctuated with calms, drove the vessel thousands of miles off her course. She was bound from Gray's Harbor, Wash., to Miami, Fla.

Capt. A. E. Rosendal stated that when the food and water supply began to get low, every one was placed on shorter rations in the hope the canal could be reached before the supplies gave out.

Conditions rapidly approached a desperate stage when the water was nearly gone and no rain fell. The crew managed to catch considerable fish which probably saved them from starvation.

CITY UNDER FOG BLANKET; RAIN FORECAST TODAY

Fog enveloped most of the city last night, but was lifting in some sections before midnight. It followed a day considerably cooler than its predecessor, and signs of spring were less evident, excepting that a flock of purple martins, official harbingers, was seen at Jackson park.

The official forecast calls for showers today or tonight, but declares the temperature will be somewhat warmer than yesterday. From a record temperature of 78 on Wednesday the mercury dropped steadily yesterday until at midnight it was in the forties.

The fog was blinding in most parts of the city and the suburbs, according to reports, and the streets were slippery and dangerous for motoring.

The arrival of the purple martins at Jackson park and along the north shore was hailed as an omen of real spring weather by those claiming to be able to tell.

Doheny Jilts Democrats for Republican Parlor

Los Angeles, Cal., April 22.—(AP)—Edward L. Doheny, the oil magnate, for years a wheel horse of the Democratic party, has switched his political affiliations to Republican ranks. "I have registered as a Republican for the first time," he said today, "because I decided to affiliate with and support the party which more than any other embodies the forces and policies which have produced our unprecedented era of prosperity."

Lathers Sign New Contract at Old Scale

An important development in this year's wage negotiations of building trades came yesterday when officials of the Chicago Lathers' union signed a three year agreement with the Employing Plasterers' association of Chicago, which embodies a renewal of the existing wage scale of $1.50 an hour or $12 a day for an eight hour work day. No mention is made in the contract of a five day week.

Action of the lathers is the first taken by any building trade this year. It virtually creates a break in the ranks of the trades, which to date have refused to sign any agreements because the builders wouldn't insert a sympathetic strike clause in the contracts.

Refuse to Consider Clause.

Chicago builders have refused to consider this provision, which would give the trades the right to strike in the event nonunion mechanics were on the job. Insertion of this clause, they claim, would eliminate Landis award or nonunion workers from construction on which union mechanics are employed.

It would create, builders say, a division of closed and open shop contractors, the former being allowed to hire union workers on a 100 per cent basis and the latter nonunion mechanics in all trades. Just what effect the signing of the agreement yesterday will have on further negotiations on the sympathetic strike clause matter was held problematical last night.

Oppose Plasterers' Demand.

Three classes of builders, architects, contractors and employing plasterers, are scheduled to meet Monday to discuss concentrated action to oppose enforcement on May 7 of the demands of the Plasterers' union for establishment of a five day work week and a wage boost from $12 to $14 a day.

The Architect's Club of Chicago at a luncheon yesterday adopted a resolution protesting against the demands of the plasterers. The architects' resolution says that should the demands be granted the increase to the cost of construction would be reflected in an increase of rents and taxes.

Frank P. Boyle, president of the Chicago Truck Owners' association, announced last night that agreements have been signed with the American Sand and Gravel company, the Calumet Coal and Material company, Brighton Coal and Material company, the Reliable Coal and Material company, the Chisholm Material company, the Fan Bros. Material company, and the Lake Sand company.

Last Monday 1,200 members of the association refused to permit their trucks to haul cement, sand, and gravel to building construction when their demands for an increase of cartage rates were refused by material yard owners.

ELECTRIFIED I. C. READY JULY 15, MARKHAM SAYS

Electrification of the Illinois Central railroad's suburban service will be completed by July 15, Charles H. Markham, the road's president, declared yesterday. He spoke at a South End booster noon meeting at 111th street and Michigan avenue.

Mr. Markham said electrification will employ 260 new cars, 130 of them motor cars. He said there will be 102 miles of electrification tracks; six tracks from Randolph to 51st street, four from there on to Kensington.

Mr. Markham told of the Illinois Central facilities for a proposed great passenger terminal on the site of the present one at Park row and Michigan avenue.

Now Mr. Olson Finds Chicago a Model City

Omaha, Neb., April 22.—[Special.]—Edwin A. Olson, United States attorney for the Northern district of Illinois, in an address before the Noonday club here tonight, declared the eighteenth amendment could be enforced wherever the local officers wanted to enforce it. "Law Enforcement" was the subject of his address.

"In the Chicago district we are bringing the criminals to trial in short order and Chicago today is not what it was five years ago." Mr. Olson said. "There is a change. We are clearing the docket of the cases which have hung on for years and years, and we are clearing it by trying them and convicting them, too.

Blames Crooked Politics.

"The eighteenth amendment is being discussed all over the country now and we read about its alleged evils. I tell you the evils complained of are mostly found in communities where crooked politics have a strangle hold on local law enforcement. Did you ever stop to consider what the federal courts have done to stem the tide of criminal and official corruption? Take Chicago for instance. In the Chicago district a record has been written that stands unparalleled in the history of the country.

"We drove out the saloons and the wild cabarets that were running wide open three years ago. We closed and dismantled every brewery and sent the brewers to jail. We put millionaire bootleggers out of business. We gave rum running outlaws, who had operated for years previous to prohibition as robbers, burglars, gunmen, and murderers, their first taste of justice in their long criminal lives. We convicted more than 300 bootleggers. We padlocked $35,000,000 worth of real estate for a year.

Scores Local Courts.

"And the lamentable part of all this is that, owing to politics, nothing is now being done or has been done by our local courts to enforce liquor laws. That is the local law enforcement attitude in practically every large city in the country."

Earlier in the day Mr. Olson denied criticism of Mayor Dever of Chicago in his testimony at the senate prohibition hearing. He declared his statements had been distorted by the wets and that he was an admirer of Dever.

"In fact," Mr. Olson declared, "I called attention to the fact that the Chicago local courts, instead of coöperating with Dever in the enforcement of the liquor laws, actually had enjoined him from interfering with liquor dives and vice dives which the federal courts had afterward closed at the request of the mayor.

Sympathy for Dever.

"Mayor Dever has much to contend with. Many wet scalawags in Chicago are constantly endeavoring to use the mayor as a shield. Chicago Democracy is so wet that if you squeezed all the moisture out of it there would not be even a vacuum left; and, as George Brennan holds the political life of every Democratic official in Chicago in his hand and is now a candidate for the senate on a booze platform, the troubles of a Democratic mayor to enforce liquor laws can well be imagined.

"Mayor Dever may be led into making all sorts of statements, but I shall always feel very grateful to him for the assistance he has given the federal government in Chicago in rounding up liquor criminals for prosecution. But I want Chicago to know I did not criticize Dever before the hearing in Washington."

BARES FIGHT ON CHICAGO RUM IN REPLY TO OLSON

Hot Answer to U. S. Prosecutor.

DEVER ON DISTRICT ATTORNEY OLSON—Now, he (Olson) is not a bad man. I make no charge against his character. He is just one of the many men, thousands of whom are blown up and who are more or less the victims of circumstances, political and otherwise. . . . Why, Mr. Chairman, one of the most difficult things we have to deal with is the "yes and no" man in public office, the man who has not courage enough to be either for or against the Volstead law, or for or with a decent program of law enforcement.

[To the United States senate's prohibition investigation committee yesterday afternoon.]

BY JAMES O'DONNELL BENNETT.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 22.—[Special.]—Mayor Dever told the United States senate prohibition inquiry committee this afternoon the details of how he had to coerce District Attorney Olson of Chicago to coöperate with him in law enforcement. It was a sizzling indictment.

Only two days ago, before the same committee of senators, Olson had charged, in effect, that he was not helped by the Chicago police in enforcing the dry law.

Threat Brought Olson to Time.

Mayor Dever, hearing Olson's statements, instantly hopped a train, came to the capital, and today gave his burning testimony. The hottest spot was the evidence that he brought Olson to a mood of action and coöperation by threatening to lay on President Coolidge's desk the facts about crime conditions in Chicago.

In his testimony on Tuesday Olson said: "I don't know how many stills are operating in Chicago, but they are many. It is safe to assume that there is not a still of importance in any police precinct that is not known to the police of that precinct." This and similar statements stirred Dever to a white heat and to a denunciation of every line and sentence in Mr. Olson's testimony.

Senators Harreld [Rep., Okla.], Reed [Dem., Mo.], Goff [Rep., W. Va.], and Gillett [Rep., Mass.] were present at the hearing.

Tears Things Wide Open.

The mayor tore things wide open regarding crime conditions in Chicago as he had found them—and had tried to mend them—in 1923, when he succeeded Mayor William Hale Thompson, and he told the senators that this day is the first time he has ever told the story.

"Gentlemen," he said, "this is the first time in three years' performance of a very difficult task that I have ever uttered complaint. I have taken the lash from a thousand places on this question of law enforcement, but I have not answered back. I have kept our police at work vigorously.

"This is the first time I have discussed the Volstead law or attempted to discuss it, or attempted to discuss city hall affairs, or the police department, or any other subject in connection with my service as mayor. This is the first time I have ever talked about anything except administrative matters connected with my office."

Calls Statement Untrue.

In ringing tones and without ifs, ands, or buts, Mayor Dever described Mr. Olson's testimony before the senators as "completely and entirely false," adding, "he came here and told an untrue statement."

Dever's unfolding of crime conditions in Chicago as he found them in 1923 held the senators and the wet and dry protagonists packed into the committee room to hushed attention.

With the words, "I felt I was not strong enough even with the power of that great office to which I had been elected to meet such a crushing burden," he swung into his narrative of how, when he took office, sixty per cent of the police were "engaged in the liquor business," not in connivance, but actually," and how Chief Collins' predecessor had acknowledged that to be true. He went on to tell how he had called in the highest officials of the city and of the federal district to ask them to help him to bear the burden; how he had told Olson, "your office has not struck a lick to this moment," and how Olson did not respond until the mayor threatened to take the facts to President Coolidge.

Here is the mayor's gripping story of the interview with Olson, word for word:

"And so I called into the mayor's office the sheriff, the prosecuting attorney, the chief justices of the various courts, and Mr. Olson, the federal district attorney. But before I did that—the day before I did that—I called in Mr. Olson, whom I knew casually. I did not know him at all well. I told him what I knew to be the condition of Chicago. I pointed out to him how necessary it was that we should all coöperate, coördinate our efforts to rescue that city from a very threatening condition.

"I said, 'Your office has not struck a lick to this moment, nor has any other office in the city of Chicago or Cook county, to enforce these laws.'

"The criminal element, that vile conglomeration of humanity that has come to Chicago from all over the civilized world, and some of them from the uncivilized world, were operating with carte blanche; there was nobody interfering with them at all. And I said to Mr. Olson, 'Now, Mr. Olson, those are the facts.'

Overrun by Bootleggers.

"Districts in Chicago that had never been anything but prohibition districts, made so by action of the city council because of the character of the community, fine residence neighborhoods, had been overrun by these bootleggers. Seventeen I put out of business in a few blocks on one street in my own neighborhood.

"I pointed these conditions out to Mr. Olson and I said, 'Now you know and I know that it has got to be stopped. And will you stand up and go along with me now and let us work together?' Because I felt, as every good lawyer knows, that the crushing power of the federal courts is infinitely of greater service to us in that work than the state courts, because politics itself reacts upon the personnel of our state and local organizations.

"But the federal district attorney, the federal judges, are removed from public opinion of a locality like Chicago, and I knew that if I could get Olson and the federal courts working with me that we might succeed measurably. At least we might make an honest effort to succeed."

Says Olson Was Unresponsive.

Mayor Dever paused an instant, and in measured utterance let these twelve words drop, one by one, into the tense silence of the committee room.

"And—he—did—not—respond—as—I—thought—he—ought—to—respond."

Then he returned to the swift stream of his narrative, saying:

"And I said, 'Very well, now, Mr. Olson, I have treated you fairly. Now here are the facts, and I am going to Washington and place them on President Coolidge's desk, and I am going to demand of him that he get the federal courts and the federal organizations at work here in this great city to save the city.'

"Instantly he responded. That was enough. He became instantly an ultra-public welfare man."

Going in detail into Mr. Olson's testimony before this committee Mayor Dever said:

"Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Committee: On yesterday morning I went to my breakfast table, and in accordance with the custom that obtains in our family I asked my wife, who is an earlier riser than I am, if she had read the papers and what the news was. She said that a man named Olson, federal district attorney of our district, appeared before this committee and made prolonged and serious charges against the city government."

Harreld Sees No Reflection.

After Mayor Dever had stated that he had read Mr. Olson's testimony only in newspaper excerpts from it, Senator Harreld, chairman of the committee and the dryest of the four drys on it, said, "I do not think you will find anything reflecting upon your city, if you will read it."

The mayor would not accept Senator Harreld's mild interpretation of the Olson testimony and replied:

"A direct charge was made, and this is the second experience we have had in the last two months where persons assuming to speak for the welfare of that great city have come to Washington, and through the vehicle of senate committees have made charges against Chicago that were not substantiated, but which were completely and entirely false."

Here Senator Gillett also tried to block the mayor with the objection that Dever had not read Olson's verbatim report, but the mayor swept on, saying:

"I am not here as a witness for the wets or the drys. I am here because I think that great city has not had the truth told about it.

Believes Newspaper Account.

"I have had, senator, a very long experience with and I know the papers I read. I know their character. I realize that they are human agencies, and that necessarily they may err at times, but from what I know of them and know of this whole subject and know of the man who spoke, I am quite willing to believe that what the newspapers said of his speech or of his testimony is quite true.

"In substance, he said that so far as the prohibition laws have been enforced in Chicago, or so far as there has been any attempt to enforce those laws, that that attempt was made by the federal law enforcing agencies."

Again Chairman Harreld, senator from a state which he often boasts was "born dry," interrupted. "On the contrary, Mr. Mayor," he said, "Mr. Olson said he had had the coöperation of your administration."

Mayor Dever—"Well, if he has said so, I take it to be passing strange that I have had to come here and represent that great city, in order to meet not only what has been published by the Chicago press, but by other press agencies who tell me quite a different story."

Reed Produces the Record.

Here Senator Reed quickly, as is his way, cut the knot of objections by reaching for the official senate reporter's transcript of Olson's testimony, which lay before Harreld, and asked sharply, "Will you let me have that a moment?"

Then Reed read aloud these words, spoken by Olson day before yesterday:

"It is safe to assume, however, that there is not a still of any importance in any police precinct that is not known to the police in that precinct, and that it would not be a very big job for 5,000 policemen to pull out by the roots every outlaw still in Chicago in 24 hours."

With that, the exercises got under way with a rush and there was no substantial stopping of Dever thereafter.

When Reed ceased reading, the mayor said:

"That is practically a charge against not only the efficiency but the integrity of the Chicago police department. No other implication can be drawn from that statement but just that."

Harreld thought otherwise, but Dever continued, using no notes and speaking all the time impromptu:

"May I say, now that I am here, that I want to tell you what I believe to be the truth of the Chicago situation, whatever Mr. Olson may have said. . . . Perhaps I might say a word about myself, might make a personal allusion to myself and still not be misunderstood, in the circumstances. I was an alderman in the city of Chicago for ten years. Following that I was elected to the Superior court bench, where I served for seven years."

Harreld Toils to Block Mayor.

Yet again Harreld tried blocking with the plea that Olson had said that it was the county or the state that had not coöperated with him and not that the mayor's department had failed to coöperate.

Dever would not have that at all, and, dropping the story of his political career and flushing with anger—but still holding himself in hand—he launched this at Harreld:

"Mr. chairman, any man who comes into this chamber and says deliberately that there are 5,000 stills operating in Chicago, or that there is a great horde of stills operating in Chicago which the police have failed to put out of business, and in the same breath says if they wanted to coöperate faithfully and to enforce the law they could put these stills out of business in 24 hours, is making a direct charge against the efficiency as well as the integrity of the police department. Anything else he says protecting himself does not help us much in Chicago, when that statement and others have been broadcast all over the United States.

"I am the mayor of Chicago. I am its official representative. I am the one charged with the responsibility for the police department. Let me continue, if I may."

"After I served seven years in the trial courts I was appointed by the Supreme court and served in the Appellate court, court of review. In 1923 we had arrived at the end of eight years of city administration in Chicago."

How Dever Found Situation.

"The situation at that time in Chicago was so bad that party lines, politics, were forgotten in great measure and a large number of public spirited men and women formed a nonpartisan organization.

"This organization selected five men, well known Republicans, and five who were well known Democrats and they went to the political organizations and said to them: 'In the interest of this great city whose integrity and morale are very seriously threatened by bad government, bad in every way, bad in every detail'—and the situation was indescribably bad—'we want you to pick your candidates from these ten names submitted.'

"The parties acceded to the request. The Republican party nominated a young man named A. C. Lueder, who is now Chicago's postmaster. The Democratic party nominated myself. I have always been more or less anxious to fill public office, but I did not want the office of mayor. I had a far better one, with rather a large salary and splendid colleagues, and I did not want the mayoralty nomination.

Felt Obliged to Run.

"But the matter was put up to Mr. Lueder in such form, and to myself, that we both had to accept the nomination of our respective parties. That situation was due to the fact that the very integrity of the city of Chicago was threatened by the conditions then existing. The people themselves left party lines altogether.

"I succeeded solely because of my long public service. The young man who was on the Republican ticket was at a disadvantage because he was young and had not had official experience. So I was elected, by a very large majority, but it was not a partisan vote.

"I went into office under these conditions and after two or three months changed the personnel of that great city organization. We have 38,500 employés on the pay roll. I named a nonpartisan organization and placed in the most important post a man who is not a member of my party, a well known Republican, to be commissioner of public works. That is our great office where our great construction work is done.

Gives Chicago Background.

"And the president of the school board, spending $56,000,000 a year and serving some 500,000 students, was named by me, and he is a Republican, or was a Republican, I should say, because another man has taken his place since. I am mentioning this so as to give you something of our history, and to give you a little of the background so that, if it is possible, I will get a hearing now for Chicago in justice to that great city."

Then the mayor drove it in on his intent listeners why he had gone into all that "background." He drew himself up very erect and said:

"I want to ask you gentlemen if you believe, with that background and that history, that I, or the men whom I am responsible for, would sell out that city to a lot of bootleggers, beer runners, and still operators?"

Three feet from Dever while he was speaking sat his chief of police, Morgan Collins, who accompanied him on the rush trip to Washington. And sitting there, Collins heard his mayor pay him a tribute that might well make any man proud.

Pays Tribute to Collins.

For Dever said to the senators:

"When I went into the city hall I named a chief of police after the most careful study. I don't know today what ticket he votes, nor do I care what ticket he votes. I did find that he was a great policeman, and my information came from an examination of what is called 'the morgue' in the newspaper offices, where I had an examination made of the files extending back to the date that he went on the police force, and he fitted in exactly, and I named him chief of police.

"Now that man, Mr. Chairman, is an honest man, he is an efficient man."

The mayor, with a brief smile of self depreciation, added:

"There is nothing about him or myself that is at all wonderful. But I think we are trying to do our duty to Chicago.

Saloons Running Openly.

"Having gone over the situation in Chicago, we found a most deplorable state of things. There were operating in Chicago from 15,000 to 20,000 places illegally selling liquor. They were operating openly. There was not any pretense on the part of anybody in official life to close these places up. The situation was so tremendous that I felt that I would have to make a new move."

Right here came Dever's story, already quoted, of how he sent for the high city, state, and federal officials, including Olson, to help him bear the burden, and how he had had to coerce Olson into coöperation by threatening to report him to his boss, Calvin Coolidge.

Olson went into office as federal district attorney before Dever, as mayor, launched his law enforcement drive, and the mayor swore today that Olson was then not enforcing.

"When I went into office," the mayor testified, "there were fifteen breweries operating. No pretense was being made to close them up. They were operating openly, operating by connivance with the Chicago police. They corrupted the whole police department, practically.

Police in Rum Business.

"The man who preceded Chief Collins stated that 60 per cent of the then Chicago police force were engaged in the liquor business; not in connivance with the beer runners, but actually in the business themselves. Profit sharers!

"We had to take eleven captains out of certain districts and call them in and say to them: 'Now, you give us your resignation or we will file charges against you before the civil service commission. Now you can take your choice.'

"And every last one of them handed us his resignation, and we put them off the police force."

Dever insisted that he closed the breweries by so simple an expedient as a newspaper interview—and did it in 24 hours.

Drys Beam on Mayor.

The bone dry listeners in the committee room—including Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon league—beamed upon Dever when he reached this point in his testimony:

"It was said here the other day by Mr. Olson that the federal officers closed the breweries. Now, Mr. Chairman, they were in there before I went into office, they were there for months before I went in.

"I gave the newspapers a statement one morning. I said that I had been deliberating carefully over this problem, and that I had come to the conclusion, whatever my opinion might be about the wisdom or the lack of wisdom of our prohibition legislation, that it was my duty to stand for the law as it is upon statute books.

"And the next morning there was not a brewery operating in Chicago, not one!

"We had our police in the breweries."

After more baiting of the witness by Senator Harreld, the mayor was, with Senator Reed's assistance, enabled to go on with his story of the breweries.

Furnished Brewery Evidence.

"I say the breweries," he continued, "were closed by the Chicago police department, and they were closed within 24 hours and they have kept closed, and the federal authorities, solely and wholly through our efforts, have padlocked them by injunction, through the evidence that we furnished them after we closed them by putting our men in possession of them.

"Now that is the entire story about the breweries in Chicago."

Senator Reed, plainly deeply interested, interjected:

"If I understand you, and you will pardon me for this, what you did was this: You gave an interview in the papers and said that the law had to be enforced, and then you put your police directly into the breweries without hesitancy?"

MAYOR DEVER—"Exactly!"

Senator Reed wanted to hear more of that and asked:

"And then you gave the evidence to the federal district attorney and on that evidence he proceeded with his injunctions?"

All the Work of Police.

Dever obliged with this answer:

"Every particle of the things that have been accomplished in that office was the work of the Chicago police department. I have 589 cases now. I have brought the superintendent of police with me so that you gentlemen might know the truth about Chicago. We have got the whole story for you. Every one of them were cases that we prosecuted in the federal courts. And they come down here and tell what they have done!"

Then came the mayor's angry denunciation of "yes and no men" in public office, already quoted.

And now Dever played his trump card against Olson.

That trump was a letter from one of Olson's chief aides, Miss Mary D. Bailey, assistant U. S. attorney, in which she warmly thanked Chief Collins for "splendid coöperation" in disposing of a flagrant case of liquor law violation.

But one of life's little ironies, that letter was written on the very day—last Tuesday—on which Olson was denouncing to the senators Dever's police as winkers at liquor violations. None more than Dever, himself, relished the irony and, in offering the letter in evidence, he exclaimed, "Would you believe it, Mr. chairman," adding, "Such a letter as this, notwithstanding how Mr. Olson has complained of us."

Miss Bailey's Letter.

The mayor described Miss Bailey as "a very fine woman," and as Olson's "alter ego in Chicago when he is in Washington, prosecuting cases for him while he is making claims for himself in foreign jurisdictions."

The full text of Miss Bailey's letter reads:

"Department of Justice, Northern District of Illinois,

"826 Federal Building, Chicago, April 20, 1926.

"To Chief of Police Collins, Chicago, Ill.

"Sir: I wish to take this opportunity of thanking you and, through you, your officers, for their splendid coöperation in disposing of the McLane case. From Lieut. Blaul to every witness the police department could muster, they gave me all the help in their power and we were able to close one of the worst places in the loop. It is a great pleasure to work with such men.

"Sincerely yours,

MARY D. BAILEY,

"Assistant United States attorney."

"Endorsed: U. S. versus McLane, 1255 North Clark street."

No sooner was that letter laid on the table than Harreld was up in arms against it on general bone dry principles. So was Senator Gillett, but on the grounds that this committee had earlier in this day, refused to take testimony presented by a man other than the one who actually uttered it.

While the senators were wrangling the letter was being feverishly copied by a score of correspondents and by the time the wrangling ended the copies were on the telegraph wires leading out of the nearby capitol.

But Dever was never permitted to introduce it in evidence or to read it aloud.

One of Senator Gillett's numerous objections was "the district attorney's office is not on trial."

"It is of importance," said Dever sharply, "when the district attorney comes here and says what he did."

Game of Passing Buck.

SENATOR HARRELD — We are not interested in who is enforcing the law, if it can be enforced.

MAYOR DEVER—Not at all, not at all. The most important thing now for public officials to do is stop this charging of responsibility to each other.

SENATOR HARRELD — Passing the buck.

MAYOR DEVER—Yes.

SENATOR HARRELD—As I understand it you are offering the letter to show that while Mr. Olson claimed credit for the progress that is made in Chicago he is not entitled to it, but you are entitled to it?

MAYOR DEVER—No, I am not trying to do that at all.

SENATOR HARRELD—I do not see any other purport.

MAYOR DEVER—The purport is this, that when he made the statement that the Chicago police were not coöperating with him, and that there was a horde of stills existing in Chicago, impliedly almost directly under the protection of and in connivance with the Chicago police, there is a statement in which it is denied coming from his own office.

Gillett Pulls a Boner.

Senator Reed declared Miss Bailey's letter would be competent in any court to show a fact, and that inspired Senator Gillett to the prize boner of the session.

"Why would it be?" he irascibly asked Reed. "Why would a woman's letter be competent to show a fact?"

A roar of laughter broke. Reed leaped to his opportunity, saying with mock smugness, "I would not bring that sort of indictment against women, myself."

Senator Gillett, very limply, "Or a man's letter would be the same thing?"

So the senators wrangled on and on, Dever, the former judge, taking the place of Dever, the witness, as he argued on the admissibility of the Bailey letter. They wrangled right up to adjournment hour, Reed taking good care all the while that his repetitions were getting the substance of the Bailey letter into the record.

Some of the further thoughts Mr. Dever left with the committee during his testimony were these:

"One of the great troubles with this whole Volstead act discussion, widespread as it is and involving us in a thousand ways, is that there are too many extremists on both sides.

"There has not been, so far as I know, up to this time an organization that has gone into this problem with a definite, intelligent purpose to find out how best to treat it.

"Some of the conduct of our public officials in Cook county, in Chicago, is one of the depressing byproducts of the Volstead law. There is no question about that in my mind or in the mind of any other man who has been burdened, as I have been burdened for three years, in efforts to enforce these laws."

Revoked 4,000 Licenses.

Declaring that he had revoked 4,000 licenses of men illegally selling liquors, he was sharp with the so-called "coffee shop."

"These licenses," he said, "were known as coffee shop licenses, restaurant licenses, and two or three other kinds of licenses which were merely a cover for saloon operating. We put 4,000 of them directly out of business. And as to the other 15,000, they went out of business because by the manner in which we had enforced the law we had rendered the business unprofitable. They could not stand it."

So the mayor departed happily and with the promise to the weary senators that he would tell them more tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

As he was departing, Chief Collins paid this tribute to Miss Bailey:

"This woman is a wonderful help to us in our liquor law enforcement work. The fact is, Olson doesn't know what it's all about."

After the hearing the mayor said to me: "I was angry while I was testifying, but I made every effort not to display anger." As a matter of fact, he was dignified and earnest.

Wayne Wheeler's comment on his testimony was: "The trouble in Chicago is not Dever or Olson or Collins but the county courts, which won't act. I believe in Dever. The county courts are a chain on his ankle."

TWO DRY WITNESSES

The only other two witnesses of this day were the Rev. Edwin C. Dinwiddie, Washington, D. C., superintendent of the National Temperance bureau, which long has lobbied for prohibition legislation in congress, and J. Pat Murphy, who used to be a bartender in the Kentucky-West Virginia border country and is now a preacher of the gospel there.

Both testified to vastly improved conditions under the national prohibition act. The Rev. Mr. Murphy's evidence included his joyful assertions that a certain West Virginia judge was wont, before that state went dry, to become so intoxicated that it was impossible for him to walk straight up and down the courtroom aisle. But now his honor is his own man again and also a messenger of the gospel.

Sold Liquor at Age of 8.

As for himself, Mr. Murphy said that he sold liquor at the age of eight years in a blind tiger. Now the blind tiger has shut up shop and conditions among the miners is greatly bettered. But he was confident that if the sale of beer and light wine were permitted by the government the blind tigers would return. He was a good, plain speaking, rugged witness, and he both amused and impressed the senators.

Dr. Dinwiddie also cheered the bewildered attendants upon these hearings by his breezy declaration that he had scant regard for statistics on some phases of the prohibition question, owing to the lack of uniformity of figures on the subject.

"As to Senator Bruce's proposition to put the government into the liquor business, the moral sense of the people revolts at it," he declared, "and the movement that took the government away from its relations with that business when it was legalized would be a moral zephyr compared with the storm of protest there would be against putting it back into those relations.

"We challenge the modificationists to make their cause the cause of any political party in this country and then watch the result."

A long protest against modification by William S. Bennet, general counsel of the Edward Hines Lumber company, Chicago, and chairman of the committee on promotion of temperance legislation in congress, as well as protests against modification by the Augustana senate of the Evangelical Lutheran church and the United Lutheran church were ruled out by the committee. This action was on the ground that the committee could not accept testimony offered by a person other than the person uttering it.

Under cross-examination by Senator Reed, Dr. Dinwiddie acknowledged that the organizations he represented, including the Order of Good Templars, had long been engaged in "lobbying for various bills in congress." As for himself, he received a salary of $600 a month for doing the prohibition work with which he is intrusted.

Senator Reed—As I understand it, for twenty-seven years you have been making your living out of this business.

Objects to Bullyragging.

Dr. Dinwiddie said: "Yes, if you want to put it that way, but I did give up a good position to take up this temperance work."

At this point Senator Harreld said: "I don't see the purpose of all this. I object to this bullyragging."

Senator Reed—I have been a good deal more polite to this witness than you are being to me right now.

Senator Reed is being so vehemently criticized by the drys for eating up their time by his cross examinations that today he defended himself, beginning, "I am not on one side of this question." A roar of laughter stopped him. "That statement of mine," he continued, when quiet had been restored, "may rouse the laughter of fanatics or of fools. I am here looking for the facts and I shall decide in accordance with the facts as I find them. I am not on one side, but I am enough in the middle so that a fanatic or a fool would think I am on one side."

Repeal or Modification of Dry Law Urged by Roosevelt

New York, April 22.—(AP)—Theodore Roosevelt, son of the late President, tonight urged the repeal or modificatoin of the Volstead act and the substitution of local option in the various states, permitting alcoholic beverages of a content legal under the constitution.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Speaking before the bureau of advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers' association, the former assistant secretary of the navy asserted that the prohibition enforcement act "has brought about law violation on a more commercialized and gigantic scale than our country has ever known before."

When Mr. Roosevelt was a candidate for governor of New York in 1925 he was indorsed by the state Anti-Saloon league as their hope against the wet sentiments of Gov. Smith.

Mr. Roosevelt said that he is opposed to the return of the saloon. "I am convinced," he said, "that the repeal or modification of the Volstead law does not predicate the return of the saloon. That can be prevented by enactment.

"Were I a member of the federal congress I would vote for the modification or repeal of the Volstead law, and the substitution therefor of some enactment permitting the increase of alcoholic content to such a point as the constitution might permit. Delimitation would be left to the states individually. I believe this to be absolutely necessary in order to check the murder, corruption, and other evils that have followed in the train of this law.

Hits at Public Officials.

"Equally pernicious with the foolish laws are those public officials who, truckling for popular favor, refuse to try honestly to enforce the laws as they stand on the statute books."

Mr. Roosevelt said that if he were in public office he would make every effort to enforce the law, because it is the duty of every public official, regardless of what his personal opinion may be.

"There will be necessary a big increase of officials and machinery if this law is to be enforced," he said. "If it is a law, it must be enforced. There is but one sound way to act when one disapproves of a law, and that is to endeavor to repeal it."

Mr. Roosevelt said that our laws are in our own hands, both to make and to repeal. "We are fouling our own nest," he said, "when we flaunt and disobey them.

"Widespread law violation is sweeping our country. In its wake are crimes of every sort and description. There is nothing more contagious than crime and license."

GOUCHER GIRLS TOLD NOT TO DRINK BOOZE AT COLLEGE PROMS

Baltimore, Md., April 22.—[Special.]—Goucher college girls, who expect to attend the junior or senior "proms," which will be held next Friday and Saturday nights, have been warned that drinking of any liquid stronger than lemonade or ginger ale will be considered a serious offense and be dealt with accordingly.

Miss Jean Gardiner, chairman of the junior "prom," has announced to her class that the college authorities expect guests to conduct themselves as "ladies and gentlemen."

The use of flasks, either before or after arrival at the dance, is prohibited. This rule not only applies to the girls, Miss Gardiner added, but also to their escorts.

SPRING REALLY HERE; GUTTER DRINKS 5,000 BARRELS OF BEER

Five thousand barrels of beer were taken by federal agents from the brewery of the Pfeiffer Products company, 732 North Leavitt street, yesterday and poured into the gutter. Federal Judge Adam C. Cliffe two days ago ordered the brewery permanently padlocked on evidence introduced by Assistant United States District Attorney Jacob I Grossman. The Pfeiffer establishment was originally one of the Terry Druggan string.

FASCISTS CHEER MARY AND DOUG, LATEST RECRUITS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

FLORENCE, Italy, April 22.—Two of the newest and most enthusiastic Fascist recruits, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford, visited Florence today and were given the greatest reception ever recorded to foreign screen artists in Italy. A wildly cheering crowd, headed by the reception committee from the Fascist theatrical and cinema corporation, greeted the stars.

While the crowd sang Fascist and American anthems Doug and his wife stood at attention, making the snappy black shirt salute. Almo Conci, aged 8, Italy's Jackie Coogan, presented Mary with a large bouquet in behalf of the Italian film world. Doug spoke in English and then Mary spoke in French, saying, "I give my kiss to Italy," which caused great applause.

CO-ED'S STORY OF ASSAULT GIVEN TO GRAND JURY

Normal School Inquiry Is Continued to Today.

Sycamore, Ill., April 22.—[Special.]—There will be no settlement out of court, no hushing up of the charges against three De Kalb youths charged with criminally assaulting Miss Dorothy Westervelt in a lonely road about ten days ago.

This became known today when the girl's father, Arthur Westervelt, of Shabbona, denied that he would agree to any sort of a settlement, and State's Attorney Poust declared that the state would force the issue to trial at the earliest date possible.

Girl Before Grand Jury.

Reports of a settlement were heard at the courthouse today when the De Kalb county grand jury investigating the case took the testimony of Miss Westervelt, a coed at Northern Illinois Teachers' college, and several other witnesses.

These reports said that William Rich, wealthy farmer and member of the county board of supervisors, father of Lonard Rich, one of the accused youths, went alone to the Westervelt home at Shabbona last night in an attempt to have the Westervelts drop their charges.

It was said that Mr. Rich offered both a financial settlement and a stipulation that his son should marry Miss Westervelt. It was said that Mr. Westervelt received him angrily and ordered him from the place.

Rich Denies Interview.

Mr. Rich today denied the interview and Mr. Westervelt refused to comment at all on a settlement except to say that he would accept no settlement.

Attorney Kennedy, representing young Rich and Emerson Wilson and Stanley Hurt, who are in jail for the alleged assault, refused to discuss the case.

Dorothy was brought up from Shabbona, her home, this morning by her mother and a Mrs. Larson. She walked up the two flights of stairs to the grand jury rooms alone. Her features plainly showed evidence of the three hours' battle which she says she waged against the young men.

In Jury Room Several Hours.

Dorothy was closeted several hours in the jury room, telling of her trip to Malta in company with Miss Lillian Gray, and the three boys, the return to the Gray home to let Miss Gray alight, and the pretended errand on which she continued with the boys when the alleged assaults took place.

Mrs. George Gray, at whose house Miss Westervelt was visiting, told the jury how she found the girl on the porch, and Dana Gray, who is a policeman at De Kalb and a brother of Lillian, testified as to the condition of Dorothy and of conversations he had with Emerson and Hurt after he had arrested them at the school on Monday morning. A Mrs. Olson also testified that she had seen the party and also had seen Dorothy shortly after the latter was found.

The jury also examined several physicians who had attended the girl and this testimony indicated the mistreatment she had received. Eight stitches had to be taken in her wounds, it was said, and an eye specialist said that the injury to one of her eyes may never be remedied.

The grand jury is expected to report Saturday morning.

CHARITY WILLED SHARE OF HARRIS MILLION ESTATE

Physician Gives $50,000 for Evanston Building.

Many charitable bequests, including one of $50,000 for a new building to replace the "Boys' Cottage" of the Illinois Children's Home and Aid society in Evanston, were included in the will disposing of the $1,000,000 estate of the late Dwight J. Harris, noted physician who died on March 23.

After bequests to charity and minor bequests to distant relatives the will, filed in the Probate court yesterday by the law firm of Chapman, Cutler & Parker, stipulated that the remainder of the estate should be divided between a son, Arthur M. Harris, 975 Hillside avenue, Plainfield, N. J., and a granddaughter, Eva E. Harris, 803 Prospect road, Des Moines, Ia.

Sister Made Beneficiary.

A sister of the physician, Miss Martha E. Harris, 1415 Chicago avenue, Evanston, was given the income from a $10,000 trust fund.

The charitable bequests were:

American Baptist Foreign Mission society, $5,000.

Ministers and Missionaries' Benefit board of the Northern Baptist convention, $5,000.

HERO

[Koehne Photo.]

Modern science may have saved the life of a little girl in Lubbock, Tex., Wednesday. The girl's skull was crushed in an automobile accident and local surgeons despaired of her life. A specialist was needed and Dr. Malcolm L. Harris, whose home is at 1528 Dearborn parkway, happened to be in Dallas at a convention of the American Medical association, in which he is chairman of the judicial council. He volunteered, commandeered an airplane, and began the trip. A forced landing from a height of 2,000 feet imperiled the surgeon, but the journey was completed, the operation was performed, and now the child has a chance for life.

POOR, IGNORANT DRY LAW'S PREY, WILKERSON SAYS

Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson yesterday rebuked prohibition officials and indirectly United States District Attorney Edwin A. Olson for prosecuting only the minor liquor offenders and not the big violators.

"For the last six months the government has been bringing in petty violators who are poor, friendless, and ignorant, and has not touched any big offenders," Judge Wilkerson said from the bench.

Aged Farmer and Small Still.

Nicholas Doviskur, an aged farmer from near Aurora, was on trial and he had pleaded guilty. The evidence was that he had a crude wash boiler still of five gallon capacity and presumably distilled liquor only for his own use. His case had been pending since October.

"I am not going to send this poor defendant to jail," the judge declared.

Prohibition Agent L. A. Butterfield sought to explain that Doviskur was arrested on information that he was running a huge still.

Judge Wilkerson sentenced the aged farmer to one day in the custody of the United States marshal.

To Let Small Fry Go.

Then Assistant District Attorney Daniel Anderson indicated that as a result of Judge Wilkerson's attitude he would notify Director Yellowley to dismiss all pending cases against "poor, friendless, and ignorant" violators of the liquor law.

Judge Wilkerson had administered a similar reprimand to prohibition enforcement officials a week ago when he refused to send two employés of the Fish Fans' club to jail and allow the wealthy club members who had lockers full of liquor to go unprosecuted.

ASKS SEARCH FOR MOTHER.

Miss Myrtle Hein, 3257 Wrightwood avenue, asked the police yesterday to continue their search for her mother, Mrs. Marie Hein, who has been missing from her home since Monday. She is believed to be a victim of amnesia.

BLAMES BEATING ON FISH DEALER QUIZ; 1 ARRESTED

Samuel Hecht, 60 years old, a fish dealer who lives at 2420 Hirsch boulevard, was arrested yesterday on complaint of Max Greenberg, 65 years old, 1231 North Artesian avenue, an independent fish dealer, who attributes a beating to the fact that he testified before the grand jury in matters pertaining to the acts of officials of the fish dealers' organization.

Greenberg said he was struck several times on the head with a lead pipe a few days ago. He said his testimony before the grand jury resulted in the indictment of several officials of the organization, who were linked with bombers and sluggers.

IRISH PLAN TO FILL COFFERS BY TAX ON BETTING

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

DUBLIN, April 22.—The Irish Free State proposes to legalize betting and turn it into a tax producer, it was disclosed in Minister of Finance Ernest Blythe's budget announcement.

Hitherto betting has been an offense, and the minister explained that taxation would be a good way to end the present ridiculous situation, wherein betting is illegal but the law is not enforced. Betting men will pay £10 ($50) for a license, and the government will also take 5 per cent of all profits. The tax is expected to produce £200,000 [$1,000,000] annually.

STEAM ROLLER OF LUNDIN OILED UP FOR CONVENTION

Expects to Rush Program Through Meeting.

BY FRANK BUTZOW.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., April 22.—[Special.]—Fred Lundin and his cohorts from Cook and Lake counties are all set tonight to throw a handful of monkey wrenches into the Republican party machinery at the G. O. P. state convention here tomorrow.

Lundin is here as chairman of the Lake county delegation and as complete boss of the 792 Cook county votes named by the Lundin rump county convention at the Morrison hotel last Monday.

His program is to go through with the convention tomorrow, frame the party platform, name candidates for University of Illinois trustees and finish up all other convention business with no thought of a recess until next fall to let Frank L. Smith, chairman of the state committee and the nominee for United States senator, work out his own program for the coming election campaign.

Smith and Small Confer.

The sage of Fox Lake admitted as much tonight while Smith was holding conferences with Republican leaders, including Gov. Small. Earlier in the day the governor said he was willing to let Smith, as the candidate most vitally concerned in what happens tomorrow, work out his own program.

The state committee held a short session tonight. Afterwards, Smith, Attorney General Carlstrom, and other leaders went to the executive mansion to discuss harmony with Gov. Small. Late tonight it was indicated that some progress toward harmony was being made. The chief problem is whether to hold a final convention tomorrow or to recess until fall in an effort to harmonize factions.

Lundin's delegation from Cook county will be uncontested when they take their seats in the convention. The Crowe-Barrett Republicans named no state delegates in their county convention last Monday when they recessed subject to the call of Chairman Homer K. Galpin to take up the question of the Republican county platform.

Want to Prevent Embarrassment.

This was done it was explained to save Smith embarrassment at the state convention in as much as the Crowe-Barrett camp contemplates a wet plank in Cook county with which to meet George E. Brennan and his Democrats in November.

Subtle threats have eminated from Lundin-Deneen quarters, however, of an independent ticket to take the dry side of the argument if the dominant Republican organization takes the wet issue out of the fall campaign with the Democrats by adopting a wet plank.

Smith's friends are for an immediate recess tomorrow without taking up any convention business. To take a step would be to confront the convention with either seating or throwing out the uncontested Lundin delegation. The 1924 convention by the way, not only seated a Lundin-Small delegation but recognized the Lundin committee in Cook county as the official county committee. Anti-Small Republicans stayed away from that convention.

Small Insists on Noble.

Everbody is speculating tonight on the ultimate decision of Gov. Small. For personal reasons the governor would like to see the convention out of the way. He has laid down one mandate to his followers. That is to renominate University Trustee William L. Noble of Evanston, despite the recommendations of the University Alumni association, which has proposed E. E. Barrett of Chicago in Noble's place.

Smith's friends are angry tonight at the situation. As chairman of the state committee, with the fate of other candidates in his hands, he has steered the G. O. P. through some tough passages, and now as a candidate himself he faces the most perplexing problem he has yet been called upon to meet, they say.

Meantime George E. Brennan, boss of the Chicago Democracy and candidate for United States senator against Smith, is all set to put through his anti-Volstead platform at the Democratic convention tomorrow.

It is hinted that he might also spring a few surprises.

Brennan put another load in his guns tonight and is preparing to use it next fall. A visiting downstate Democrat said 75,000 bootleggers in Illinois were ready to go out against Brennan. The boss said to let them go—he would look to their customers for votes.

FILE INVENTORY OF DICKINSON'S $1,200,000 ESTATE

Investments of the late William Dickinson, vice president of the Marquette Cement Manufacturing company, who died Jan. 27, were revealed in an inventory of his $1,200,000 estate filed yesterday in the Probate court.

The manufacturer owned 6,686 shares of preferred and 7,300 shares of common stock in the company of which he was an official. These were valued at $899,880. The other main holding was 2,047 shares of preferred and 2,047 shares of common stock in the Live Stock Transit company, valued at approximately $92,000. The only desperate investment was 22,720 shares of capital stock in the Kalmai Gold Mine company.

Mr. Dickinson left all his estate to two children, William Woodbridge Dickinson and Mrs. Mary Dickinson Hoffman.

School Plants Tree to Commemorate Washington

An elm tree to commemorate the ethics and right living of George Washington was planted in the yard of the Lindblom High school yesterday. More than 4,000 children took part in the ceremonies. The tree was named George Washington and at its base is a granite block with an inscription of the purpose for which the tree was planted.

BALDWIN ACTS TO END BRITISH COAL INDUSTRY CRISIS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, April 22.—The expected crisis in the British coal industry occurred today when the miners and mine owners' conference ended in a deadlock. The owners presented a plan which involved a reduction in wages and an increase in hours, but the miners refused it.

The government, however, has called a meeting of the miners and owners for tomorrow morning at which Prime Minister Baldwin will preside. He has told some of his political associates that if necessary he will appeal to the country in a general election in June on the issue.

In the meantime the miners owners announce their intention to post notices terminating the present wage agreements in all pits next week.

Prior to issuing the summons for tomorrow's conference Mr. Baldwin conferred with the trade union leaders, who told him the owners' new wage terms introduce an impossible situation. They pointed out that if the terms are enforced the position will be as serious as it is possible to conceive.

PROBE DEATH OF BROKER.

The coroner's office yesterday began an investigation into the death of William Partridge, 50 years old, 5121 Ellis avenue, a retired broker, who died in his home Wednesday.. A physician who was called said he believed the broker's death was due to alcoholism.

STATE CAN'T PAY, REPLY OF SMALL ON HERD TESTING

No Extra Session on Milk Crisis, He Says.

Dairymen of northern Illinois, who looked to Gov. Len Small as a friend, met with disappointment yesterday. He turned a deaf ear to a plea for funds to aid them in meeting Wisconsin competition for the Chicago milk market.

In reply to a request by Senator Lowell B. Mason [Rep.], Oak Park, for a special session of the legislature to provide $1,000,000 for tuberculin testing of dairy herds, the governor indicated that it was out of the question. Wisconsin appropriated $450,000 for the work April 1.

Gov. Small based his answer to Mason's plea on the grounds of insufficient funds. Although he said he would not give a final answer until Tuesday, he declared that, even if the legislature did convene, there is no money in the treasury available for the appropriation.

As a result, thousands of farmers with infected herds, unable to comply with the Chicago milk ordinance, are without hope of receiving a state indemnity for the cows shown by test to be infected. Many farmers, compelled to stand their own losses, may be forced out of business.

Farmers Face Further Losses.

Even those willing to waive indemnities are faced with prospects of long delay due to a shortage of veterinarians, due to the halting of initial testing by the state April 1. By withholding approval, the Small officials also have checked a plan of Dr. J. J. Lintner, federal veterinarian, to carry on the work with men under his supervision.

Conferring with Dr. E. A. White, a special inspector of the federal department of agriculture, at the Brevoort hotel last night, S. J. Stanard, director of the Illinois department, said he did not know what his decision on the Lintner plan would be until he had consulted attorneys, adding he awaited further federal appropriation in a bill now pending in congress.

Chicago Gains a Point.

Meanwhile the injunction that was obtained before Circuit Judge William J. Fulton at Geneva, Ill., to restrain Dr. Herman Bundesen and certain Chicago milk dealers, automatically was erased from the docket when Frank A. McCarthy, attorney for the Milk Producers association filed a suppelmental bill charging the defendants with violation of the Shurtleff act.

Under the changed bill, the Chicago health board, acting with Dr. Bundesen, is included as a defendant. A new feature is the charge that the city and the other defendants plan to form a combine of the large milk firms, squeezing the smaller dealers out of business.

Dr. Bundesen denied last night that he is helping any large milk dealers, to the harm of small dealers.

"I am interested in only one thing—safe milk for Chicago," he declared. "The only conspiracy I can see is on the part of those who are trying to force impure milk on us, despite our efforts to protect the city's health.

"Every time advances are made in public health there are naturally some who cannot meet the requirements. When pasteurization was enforced in 1916 there were 909 dealers in Chicago. Two years later there were only 600, the others being forced out. That was the result of no conspiracy, but the natural consequence of a measure vital to the city's health."

HARRY C. MOIR JR. AGAIN MARRIED; HIS BRIDE IS 15

With the approval of his mother, Harry C. Moir Jr., 19 years old, son of the owner of the Morrison hotel, yesterday obtained a license to wed Miss Martha Irene Greif, 15 years old, 850 Cornelia avenue. The marriage ceremony was performed in the First Methodist church, it was later announced.

Announcement of the engagement was made early in March, within 24 hours after young Moir had obtained an annulment of his first marriage to Miss Irene Johnson, with whom he eloped when both were under age. That romance was termed "schoolboy foolishness" by Superior Judge Harry A. Lewis, who annulled the marriage.

U.S. PHYSICIANS PLAN TOURS OF OVERSEA CLINICS

Two groups of physicians, representing the leading members of the profession, with members of their families, will sail for Europe on April 27 and June 19 to visit the medical clinics of the old world, it was announced yesterday. Medical assemblies will be held in the large clinic cities of France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Austria, Czecho-Slovakia, Holland and Belgium.

The object of the journey is to establish a world wide interchange of ideas in regard to medical research and advancement. European representatives will come to the United States to participate in the program of the interstate postgraduate assembly of North America, which is to be held in Cleveland, O., Oct. 14 to 22.

Policeman Drops Dead as He Puts Prisoner in Cell

Lawrence P. Yore, 4728 Warwick avenue, for more than twenty years on the Chicago police force, dropped dead in the cell room at the North Robey street station early this morning. Yore worked on the station's patrol wagon and had just returned with a prisoner when he fell to the floor. He was taken to the Montrose hospital, where he was pronounced dead. He was 54 years old and is survived by his widow and four children.

SEIZE McERLANE, BEER BARON, IN RAID ON SALOON

Held on Murder Charge in Indiana.

happened. I was sick. I don't know anything about it."

He was asked why he had gathered the gang together. It just happened that they assembled, he said. Was he living with Stevens, also wanted in connection with the Crown Point murder?

"He used to live at the Southmoor hotel, where I stay," he replied. "But I guess he didn't pay his bill or something and they put him out."

Stevens asserted that he wasn't in the beer racket. He was a salesman of real estate, specializing in industrial sites. But he was evasive about where and for whom he sold. He is a paroled convict from Joliet and his arrest with known gunmen is ground for its recall, according to the police.

Out to "Get" Sheldon.

Capt. Stege pointed out that the McErlane-Saltis combination is out to "get" Ralph Sheldon, one of their old pals who has turned against them. The bodies of Tuccello and De Laurentis were placed at Sheldon's door, presumably as a grim warning that his lot would be the same if he attempted to join forces with Sicilians from the north or west sides and attempt to do business in the lucrative south side alcohol and beer business.

Sheldon, in the police opinion, is marked for death. And from the indications in the saloon, some one was being prepared for a ride—a killing on a lonely road. Whether it was Sheldon or one of those in the party is pure speculation. But there will be no gasps of surprise if Sheldon's body is found, bullet riddled, in the next week or two.

The McErlane-Saltis gang may attribute the latest raid to a tipoff from Sheldon or his allies. Capt. Stege said, however, that it was spontaneous—a lucky pickup.

McErlane's first lawless offenses were petty thefts that drew Bridewell sentences. But in June, 1913, on charges of aiding Teddy Webb in his automobile thefts and robberies, he was sentenced to Pontiac. He was paroled in March, 1916. In November of the same year he was sent to Joliet as an accessory to murder, and served one year. In December, 1918, he escaped with Earl Deer and Lloyd Bopp, later hanged for murder, from the county jail. For his part in the delivery he was sent to Joliet and was paroled after a little more than two years.

Seven Nabbed in Raid.

The other gangsters will be charged today with being inmates of a disorderly house.

Another raid was made by Capt. Stege, Lieut. Joseph Ronan, Sergts. Charles McShane, William Balswick, and Anthony McSwiggin in a saloon at 2758 South Spaulding avenue. Seven well known criminals, taken into custody, went to the detective bureau. Writs of habeas corpus had been taken out for five of them before they arrived. They were charged with being inmates of a disorderly house and released on $400 bonds last night.

They are Daniel Hartnett, alleged bank robber, wanted for the killing of Harold Flynn in a political headquarters on West Madison street several weeks ago; Charles Conroy, 4948 West Congress street; Ernie J. Cook, 6212 South Troy street; James Miller 4613 North Leclaire avenue; Frank Reda, 3004 South Hamlin avenue; Samuel Greer, 5447 Washington boulevard, and George Vogel, once tried for the murder of a policeman in the saloon of Paddy the Bear Ryan.

FRANCE SENDS FINAL WORD ON U. S. DEBT PARLEY

Saturday were cabled to Ambassador Berenger at Washington this evening after consultation between Finance Minister Peret, Premier Briand, and other government officials.

The opinion of the cabinet is divided over the importance of the safeguard clause, linking up reparations and debts, with the premier favoring abandoning it if it threatens to wreck the accord, as Joseph Caillaux's insistence did. The finance minister strongly advocates the incorporation of the clause, and the press solidly supports him.

As THE TRIBUNE already has announced exclusively, a compromise safeguard has been drawn up providing that France never will be required to ship any part of its gold reserve—amounting to 3,500,000,000 gold francs ($700,000,000)—to the United States as payment if the currency depreciates to a point making the purchase of dollars prohibitive, and another guarantee that transfers of annuities never will be forced if they prejudice the franc's exchange rates, similar to the Dawes plan provision in connection with Germany's reparations payments.

Government treasury officials in consultation with the cabinet members already are envisaging the prospects of obtaining huge loans and credits in New York as soon as the war debt is funded. It is expected that several hundred million dollars will be demanded from Wall street and that an American banking consortium will be formed to stabilize the franc around thirty to a dollar and retire a large bloc of short term national defense bonds.

Nearly 8 Per Cent.

It is admitted that such loans carry at least 7 per cent interest and, as they are several points below par, this amounts nearly to 8 per cent.

The French offer, which the secretary of the treasury has approved, and will recommend to the committee, provides for recovering about 50 per cent of the loans the United States made to France.

Great Britain is paying 76 per cent of its debt; Belgium, 45 per cent, and Italy, 25 per cent.

The initial payment France will make is between $20,000,000 and $25,000,000, which embraces $20,000,000 due as interest on the acquisition of A. E. F. war stocks. The amortization of war stocks purchases is scheduled to begin in 1929 by the Dawes-Klotz agreement, the nullified obligations being merged with the war debt over sixty-two annuities.

In the second year the payment will amount to $301,000,000, with the annuities rising gradually to $125,000,000 in the latter years.

"The government is hopeful of reaching an official agreement with the American debt funding committee before the end of the week," said a Quai d'Orsay spokesman today.

Italians Rejoice.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ROME, April 22.—Official circles in Rome today expressed the greatest satisfaction at the United States senate's ratification of the Italo-American war debt accord. Count Volpi, the finance minister, who headed the Italian debt mission to Washington, said the ratification signified even a closer understanding between the two nations.

Premier Mussolini expressed his personal gratification at the settlement.

ALDERMEN PLAN JUNKET TO TEST TRACTION IDEAS

Final plans for a tour of eastern cities to study transit problems were completed yesterday by the council committee on local transportation.

Twenty members of the committee, headed by Ald. Joseph B. McDonough [13th], with an engineer, two assistant corporation counsels and a secretary will make the trip. It's cost is expected to be approximately $4,000.

Leaving here at 11 p. m. tomorrow the party will go first to Detroit, then to Cleveland, Philadephia, New York, Boston, Montreal, and Toronto, returning to Chicago next Thursday morning. Arrangements have been made with officials in each city for receptions and conferences.

For three days the committee has studied the proposed new traction ordinance prepared by Corporation Counsel Busch and made only minor changes.

Mr. Busch also had submitted the 300 page report of the Illinois League of Municipalities on terminable permits. The report is neutral between the pending bills at Springfield, but favors city utility control.

COMPARATIVELY few of the more intelligent residents of Chicago, who have lived in this wonder city long enough to grasp some idea of its greatness, have overlooked acquaintance with HENRICI'S. Why not Henrici's for Sunday dinner?

POISON DETECTED IN FOOD BROUGHT TO GENNA KILLER

Scalisi Sees Plot to Kill Him in Jail Cell.

Some person tried to do to John Scalisi, Genna gunman, who with Albert Anselmi murdered two policemen in the summer of 1925, what two Criminal court juries failed to do—take his life as demanded by the state. The method was to send in to the prisoner, who is under a 14 year sentence for the murder of Policeman Harold Olson, some spaghetti and beans sprinkled with cyanide, according to the analysis of Coroner's Chemist William D. McNally.

The food was brought to the jail by Mrs. Sylvio Vocca, who gave her address as 768 Taylor street. She has furnished Scalisi with his meals for the last ten months, but last night she failed to make her usual appearance at the jail.

An examination of the jail register, however, disclosed that she had visited the gangsters for two hours yesterday afternoon without the knowledge of jail authorities.

Mrs. Vocca delivered the food to the jail Wednesday night and when Scalisi tasted it he refused to partake of any more. He complained to the jail authorities and expressed fear that some of his enemies, who he says have threatened to poison him, had tampered with the food.

When the affair was reported to Capt. George H. Weideling, jail warden, yesterday, he ordered the food sent to Dr. McNally and the latter reported that it contained cyanide in sufficient quantities to kill several persons.

Mrs. Vocca, according to Scalisi, was his former landlady. He refused to give any further information.

CAIDS FLY TO KRIM TO REPORT ON PEACE TALK

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

OUJDA, French Morocco, April 23.—The Riffian delegates, Caid Haddou and Caid Cheddi, flew to the Riff today in a French airplane to report to Abd-el Krim on yesterday's peace conference.

Tomorrow noon they are expected back in the French zone for the fourth preliminary conversation. Auguste Ponsot, member of the French delegation, said today that the negotiations are progressing slowly but surely toward a solution. He said the French and Spanish must inspire confidence in Abd-el Krim's delegates before the main conference at Oujda can begin.

DEBT SETTLEMENT WITH ITALY.

The senate has ratified the Italian debt settlement by a vote of 54 to 33, a margin large enough to be pleasing to President Coolidge and Secretary Mellon. The debt settlements are full of difficulties. They affect international relations, domestic economy, and world economy. Important future events may hinge on them. There is the question of fairness to the American taxpayer and of fairness to former allies, of ability to pay, of consequences of too generous cancellation, etc. Economists do not agree, and sentimentalists and realists have fought the war all over again.

Italy settles at about 28 cents on the dollar, and Mr. Mellon and his associates were satisfied that this was all it could or would pay. We believe that Mr. Mellon's purpose was to get as much money as he could. Many Americans have been provoked by the methods of bargaining used by the debtors. Dislike of the United States was spread abroad and ill feeling aroused. The causes and the consequences of the war were ignored. The many compensations which the victors had in new colonies, new resources, mandates, and territorial additions were forgotten. The great debt assumed by the United States was forgotten. The American ally was made more unpopular than the German, Austrian, Bulgarian, or Turkish enemy. We have resented that.

Debt settlement bears down much more heavily on the British than it does on the Italians. The British do not like that, and we cannot much blame them. They are trying to keep peace in the world. The Italians have dangerous ideas, use dangerous language, and make threatening motions. They are now causing a mobilization of Turkish troops and the fortifying of a frontier. They are making threats at Brussels and at Danzig. They have provoked Germany and Austria and have virtually told France that the Mediterranean was an Italian lake.

This is probably the most serious political question involved in the debt settlement. It is true that Mussolini would have had more money if he were not paying anything on the debts, but he wouldn't have had credit. His head is full of Roman eagles, and there are already a good many American eagles in his pocket. America helped finance one Italian war of expansion and may help finance another.

Considered as a financial transaction between debtor and creditor we'd accept Mr. Mellon's view that the settlement is sound and as fair to both nations as it can be made. Its international effect remains to be disclosed.

YOUTH AND TRADITION.

About ten days ago the boys of Illinois college at Jacksonville, Ill., famous as the alma mater of William Jennings Bryan and other notables, decided to create a tradition. Wisely or not they selected as the tradition that of going without collars and ties. Since then they have been occupied chiefly in defending their tradition with all the time honored vigor of the story books.

Either the faculty did not approve of traditions or, perhaps, rather doubted the value of this particular tradition. They demanded that the tradition cease and the students apologize for attending classes with nude Adam's apples. Our last information is that the students heroically cling to their ten days' heritage and refuse to make the apology.

Such is the unkind fate of the pioneer. He who would provide modern America with the charm of antiquity by saying, "This tradition begins tomorrow," must be prepared to be misunderstood. Even though his tradition catch the popular fancy, and persist, he will not be here to catch its full flavor as the passing years mellow and hallow it.

Why is it that the longing for tradition is especially prone to attack youth? Your elder man is content to live in his own day. Tradition finds its most welcome atmosphere in schools and colleges. Perhaps it is because the nourishing of tradition is a primitive characteristic, and youth, collectively, has certain very marked primitive instincts.

THE CORONER'S DUCK POND.

Coroner Wolff asked the voters the other day for a little friendly coöperation in making him a member of the board of review, but they declined. It was an unkind rebuff, but it was not the first which Mr. Wolff has known. The city council handed him one a year ago when he tried to block approval of the Calumet harbor development. For a time he had the aldermen guessing, but they finally came around and voted for the ordinance.

It began to look then as if Lake Calumet was going to be changed from a duck pond into a vastly useful asset to the city despite Mr. Wolff. The hope was unwarranted. Just when everybody was expecting the dredging to begin, Mr. Mulvihill, Gov. Small's state waterway director, refused to give his assent.

We mention the harbor in connection with Mr. Wolff's recent defeat not so much to point the moral that retribution sooner or later catches up with obstructionists as to raise an inquiry about the harbor project. What, if anything, is being done to get it back on its feet? Apparently it did not increase Mr. Wolff's popularity to oppose it; perhaps those who revive the plan will not regret it on election day.

THE DRY WAR CHEST.

The New York World says: "An unrevealed number of the members of the legislative branch of the United States government is or has been on the pay rolls of the Anti-Saloon league." It gives the names of some of the most active dry members who "make no bones about it" and who defend their right to take fees for making prohibition speeches.

The Anti-Saloon league is engaged in political action. It works against opponents of the Volstead act and for its supporters. It maintains a lobby in Washington and one in nearly all the state legislatures. It collects funds from sources which are not revealed and in amounts which are not known. It spends this money without an accounting. It is masked as an "educational and scientific organization" and has made good its exemption from the corrupt practices act.

There was a fine display of moral indignation in the senate over the expenses forced on Newberry of Michigan in combating Henry Ford's great organization in politics, but there is little in either house over the license of the Anti-Saloon league to spend money in influencing congressional elections and congressional action.

If congress now can ignore the charge that its members take fees from the league war chest it is ignominious. There is a resolution before the house of representatives for an investigation of the league. If it is not adopted the refusal will be accepted as a confession of moral infirmity.

The senate subcommittee is hearing opinion and viewing facts or things called facts relating to the Volstead act. That will be an incomplete performance unless there is an examination of what is behind the Volstead act. It and the living that can be made out of it have attracted a great aggregation of fakers as well as of zealots.

An organization confident of its cause and of its methods would not work under cover but in the open, and you may write your own ticket as to why it does not.

CLEVER SENCIO'S DEATH.

Those little interested in the sport will join with the followers and fans of boxing in regretting the tragic death of Sencio Moldez, better known in the ring world as "Clever Sencio" and the "game Filipino." They will regret Sencio's death especially because he was of another race and virtually a guest of the American sporting world. They will sympathize with Bud Taylor, whose blows were the inadvertent cause of the hemorrhage which killed his opponent. Taylor has acted like a good sportsman in giving himself up to the authorities and in canceling future bouts. The Milwaukee officials were right in not holding him legally responsible.

There will be those who, in the light of the recent popular approval of the boxing bill in Illinois, will point to the Sencio tragedy as one of the reasons for opposing the executive action which still has to come to make boxing fully legal in this state. They will prove by the death of the Filipino their contention that boxing is brutalizing and degrading.

An accident such as Sencio's death proves nothing about boxing or any other sport except that it is a sport, which means that it contains a certain element of physical risk. Every sport has its dangers, its accidents, and its deaths—sandlot baseball as well as professional boxing. The Wisconsin boxing law, after which the Illinois law was modeled, safeguards the sport with every possible means. A medical examination both before and after the bout failed to disclose Sencio's infirmity.

Accidents and deaths are the hazards of everyday life as well as of sport. No precautions can entirely eliminate them. Regret the death of the "game Filipino," but do not put the blame on boxing but instead on the universal frailty of human life.

THE C. M. T. C.

A new citizens' military training camp, set aside for the use of 1,200 men from northern Illinois, is to be started this summer at Fort Sheridan. Heretofore, men from the three states of Illinois, Michigan, and Wisconsin have been assembled at Camp Custer.

Compared to Detroit and Milwaukee, the two other large cities in the three states area, Chicago has always lagged in sending men to the summer camps. Detroit and Milwaukee have filled their quotas. Chicago never has. It has always been a difficult task to get Chicago's wealthier young men to volunteer. The young man with the sport roadster has been unwilling to give up his vacation ease, or perhaps he has disliked the military discipline of the camp.

Looking back to the Fort Sheridan camps of 1915 and 1916, when the elder brothers of the present young men volunteered enthusiastically for military training, the lack of interest of the oncoming generation is surprising.

With the camp nearby at Fort Sheridan, with evenings free—not to speak of the chance of becoming a part of the national defense of the United States—Chicago ought to be able to fill her quota this summer. She ought more than to fill it.

The Other Side

OUR INTEREST IN DISARMAMENT.

[Illinois State Register, Springfield.]

The United States will spend this year on its military establishment nearly $600,000,000. Whether that amount be too much or too little there is no question that it is based upon the amount of money to be expended by European nations for the same purposes.

Therefore it is easily seen that the United States has a vital interest in the work of the preparatory commission for the disarmament conference which will meet at Geneva, May 17. We may not be concerned about any European quarrels, but we have our own defense to look out for. The problem of reducing armaments ought to be of as much interest to us as the defense of our country against outside attack.

What of the growing competition in 10,000 ton cruisers, the limit fixed by the Washington conference? Is this of importance only to England, Japan, Italy and France? The United States has deliberately refrained from rushing into this cruiser race, hoping that another conference would halt this newest expression of naval competition. It is only now considering bids for its first pair of cruisers of this new type. The lowest of these bids is $10,905,000 for one vessel and the engines for both, which provides a fair idea of what may be expected in the rapidly developing cruiser competition.

Those who think that we have no interest in that disarmament conference should revise their opinions.

READY FOR THE SECOND SHOW.

She was a newly fledged baroness or duchess or something like that, and somehow or other she was invited to come to the observatory to see the eclipse. She arrived about two hours late. "I'm very sorry," said the professor, "but the whole thing was over an hour ago."

"Then," said the dignified dame, "I will wait for the next."—Pittsburgh Sun.

TYPHOID CARRIERS.

A GREAT many people have heard of Typhoid Mary. This lady is generally thought of as a cook in New York City, who seemed to bring bad luck to every family she worked in. She might have gone on spreading typhoid had she not emulated the parrot and talked too much. When the time had come for fate to strike, Mary was cooking in a certain New York City family in which a case of typhoid developed. The health department inspector came snooping around. Mary craved a chance to tell him her tale of woe. God was unjust. Wherever she went to cook somebody got typhoid fever and she had to do more work than she bargained for.

But this inspector was an alert minded fellow. When he got through he had proved that Mary was a chronic typhoid carrier. Never again would the health department permit unkind fate to impose on Mary. Never again was typhoid to come into the home where Mary cooked for the very good reason that Mary was never to cook again. Mary had jumped from the frying pan into the fire.

But this classical cook from the American metropolis of wealth and power is not allowed to occupy her bed alone. Roll over, Mary, and let Washington Polly have some cover! Washington Polly is not a high born Manhattanite. She is a country cousin from Wilkes county, Georgia. She had cooked in many homes in Washington and typhoid had developed in twelve or fourteen families where she had served. Of these, some three or four had died. Finally, Franklin Heard became ill. An investigation was started. This showed that Washington Polly was a typhoid carrier. She had carried typhoid into the homes where she had cooked.

The state and local boards of health have decreed that Polly cannot cook any more. Nor can she engage in any work which will cause her to handle food. Perhaps they will specify just what kind of work she can do. They may find it necessary to give her a job in some state institution where the authorities can make certain she keeps out of the kitchen and pantry. That is a method of meeting the question which has been found to work very well.

It is possible Washington Polly may have her gall bladder removed. If so, it might cure her of her power to spread typhoid and make it possible for her to again become a cook.

IT'S TONSILS, NOT CIGARETS.

Mrs. J. T. writes: I smoke a great deal. In the morning I cough up little objects about the size of a grain of rice and about the same color. Sometimes they are larger and sometimes smaller.

1. Is this caused from smoking cigarets?

2. Also, what are the first symptoms of lung trouble. I mean, is the kind of sputum coughed up like what I have just mentioned—the little ricelike objects.

REPLY.

1. My guess is that these particles are from your tonsils. I cannot see that cigaret smoking has any relation to it.

2. If you mean consumption, the early symptoms are: Slight afternoon fever, loss in weight, poor color, easy fatigue, hacking cough, very little sputum. Sometimes coughing blood is an early symptom. When sputum appears it is usually slightly yellowish — white mucus.

BOILS NOT CONTAGIOUS.

Mrs. M. A. L. writes:

1. Are boils contagious?

2. Can one acquire them from sleeping every night with one who has them?

3. What causes boils?

4. Will one yeast cake, taken in the morning, cure them?

REPLY.

1. Not in the ordinary sense.

2. No.

3. Infection of the skin. Too much blood sugar is a contributing cause. So is a diet rich in starches and sweets. Dirt and grease on the skin is another cause.

4. It will help.

Keep your skin very clean. Avoid irritating or infecting it. Try a moderate fast.

REMEDY FOR CANKERS.

Dr. B. C. J. writes me that the following will cure cankers:

One drachm of oil cassia; 8 ounces water.

Shake the bottle well.

BABY BUGGY PARK.

Chicago, April 20.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—The people in the apartment above us keep their baby buggy in the vestibule, leaving us just twenty inches of space to pass through. I am under the impression that the fire ordinance does not allow such obstruction. The tenant says the landlord gave them permission to keep the buggy there.

If there is in fact a dangerous obstruction you might try reporting facts to the police.

BETTER MAKE A WILL.

Fennville, Mich., April 20.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—My mother, a widow, left her farm property to be divided equally among her children. The executors are waiting for a better price before they sell. I am the only member unmarried. If I should die before the estate is divided could I make a provisional will?

2. I should like to choose the persons whom I wished to get my share, rather than to have the share go back to the estate.
B. H.

1. Yes.

2. If you died without a will your share would go to your heirs. We assume that there is no express wording in the will making your interest contingent upon your surviving to the time of distribution.
TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

A CHANGE OF HEART.

Chicago, April 19. — [To the Legal Friend of the People.]—My aunt signed an agreement to purchase some property, making first payment, and moved in. This was in June and all the papers were signed by August. Now she is told that another place has to be sold before this property can be transferred to her. They ask her to pay rent, which she does not want to do.

1. Can she get her money back?

2. Should she pay the rent? S. E. B.

1. Yes, if she chooses to repudiate the contract.

2. Not if the contract is regarded as still in effect.

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

APRIL 23, 1861.

BELLAIRE, O.—The Hon. Stephen A. Douglas and his lady passed west, en route to Springfield, Ill.

NEW YORK.—William B. Astor has offered to give the government $4,000,000 and loan it $10,000,000 for war purposes.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—Of all the counties in Illinois, Pike is probably strongest for the Jeff Davis doctrine, yet it has sent 200 soldiers to Camp Yates.

SANDWICH, Ill.—The Sandwich farmer boys, 100 strong, will reach Chicago tomorrow. "Leave the plow in the furrow," is the De Kalb county motto.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — The whole number of companies offered to Gov. Yates to date is 125, or fully 12,000 men. Sixty companies have been accepted, twenty-five conditionally accepted, and forty directed to hold themselves in readiness for service. Five companies left here, their destination being purely a matter of guesswork. They are the Springfield light artillery, two companies from Quincy and two from Jacksonville. The special session of the legislature called by Gov. Yates begins today, and a bill to finance the raising of troops is expected to be passed at once.

NEW YORK.—It is said that nothing but secession flags are flying in Baltimore. No man dares proclaim himself in favor of the Union. A vigilance committee holds permanent session at the Barnum hotel and spots every armed stranger. The Associated Press has sent three reporters to go as near Baltimore as possible to get the news.

CHICAGO.—Solomon Sturgess, Esq., has offered to arm and equip at his own expense a company of eighty sharpshooters. It is to be made up of some of the best shots in the city, each armed with a Maynard rifle, a bayonet and a pair of eight-inch revolvers.

CHICAGO.—At an enthusiastic meeting at the Briggs house an association was started to take care of the wounded in battle from Chicago and Illinois. Several women offered to go as nurses with whatever corps is formed. Among them are Mrs. D. M. Brundage, Miss J. S. Kellogg, Mrs. Mary Evans, Mrs. A. M. Beaubien, Miss Annette Sleightley, Mrs. E. S. Johnson and Mrs. E. B. Graves.

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

APRIL 23, 1901.

LONDON.—A St. Petersburg dispatch reports a new hostile movement in Manchuria. It says Chinese troops are entrenched at three points around Mukden, armed with Mauser rifles and thirty Krupp guns. Eastward 12,000 Chinese hold a strongly fortified position near Turchausen. These troops are commanded by Gen. Lutanze, a Boxer. In other nearby sections 15,000 Chinese are under arms. An expedition of Russians under Gen. Alexieff has started to disperse them. The Russians stormed and captured Kulo and looted the town.

CHICAGO.—May Yohe (Lady Francis Hope) fainted at the Chicago Opera house and was carried off the stage when she tried to sing. Physicians said nervous prostration was the cause.

CHICAGO.—After eighteen months of abstinence from the delights of Metropolitan grand opera, Chicago welcomed back Maurice Grau's high-priced singers with enthusiasm. The production was "Faust" and 4,800 persons paid $11,000 to see it. Mme. Melba sang the rôle of Marguerite.

CHICAGO.—Miss Celia Silberman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Silberman, 538 La Salle avenue, and Adolph Rosenthal of St. Louis were married at the Germania club.

MEMPHIS.—The fast express train on the Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf railroad was held up by masked bandits across the river in Arkansas and in the battle an express messenger and porter were killed. The amount of the loot is not known, but it may be large.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

APRIL 23, 1916.

CHICAGO.—Dixon C. Williams was appointed postmaster at Chicago by President Wilson. His appointment stirred the hottest kind of resentment on the part of Carter H. Harrison, who said he didn't know Williams ever amounted to anything in Democratic politics. Williams is a native of Arkansas and the Southern club of Chicago was the strongest booster organization he had in his race for the postmastership.

NEW YORK.—Henry Ford announced that he would accept a nomination for the presidency "if the people want me." He declared, however, that he would not finance any third party—"not with one cent."

BERLIN.—The German public was brought face to face with the possibility of an early rupture between Germany and the United States by President Wilson's demand that Germany abandon its present submarine methods. Angry comments were heard in some quarters. The press is urging patience, but insists on the sea rights claimed by the empire.

NEW YORK.—In his Easter message addressed to the American people, his holiness, Pope Benedict XV., transmitted a new plea for peace. "May those at war, presently, laying down the sword, end the slaughter dishonoring Europe and humanity," he said.

CHICAGO.—Oscar W. Neebe, the only one of the convicted Haymarket rioters to escape the death sentence, died in his home, 1717 Hammond street, at the age of 65.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

Hew to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

APRIL APPARITION.

April brings you back again
Swaying in the mist,
You beckon through the silver rain
And call me to be kissed.
Rain drops glisten in your hair,
Entreatment in your eyes—
I thank the gods I do not care,
For in your heart are lies!

On such April nights as these Hushed and sweetly still
When soft winds stir the waking trees
A-top the swarded hill,
The wraith of you comes back again
To whom I gave my trust,
My love that was exquisite pain
You flung into the dust.

Pale pleading phantom beckoning
Down the April breeze,
In my heart you're but a thing
Of bitter memories.
I can smile a mocking smile
And even dare to boast,
Your faithlessness has been worth while
O futile April ghost!

THE FAUN.

CHAUNCEY DEPEW, ninety-two years young today, gives this as his birthday greeting to his friends: "God's most useful creature is he who makes two smiles grow where one grew before." And all of you Line contribs have the right to take that to yourselves.

Oh, Now He's Done Brown!

R. H. L.: Will you kindly purchase for me three copies of "Gandle Follows His Nose"? I believe Haywood Brown is the author. Am enclosing 25 cents in stamps for same. Thank you. AVEN.

THE GENIUS AND THE FOOL.

R. H. L.: Indeed, your Louisiana pal's résumé of Snowshoe's book is quite splendid; however, it is but an old tune hummed to a different tempo. They say the genius and fool are separated by a hairline; so also are satire and comedy. . . . Could anything carry greater cynicism than Snowshoe's dénouement of "Tha Diskovery of Amerika," wherein Columbus—after some comment on the dry places of the earth—advises one to "SEE AMERIKA FURST and then die laffing"? . . . Yes, after all, you'll grant that most jokes are based on satire and that all satire is a joke. COBB HALL.

It's All Right to Suggest It, BUT——

R. H. L.: Understand that the Illinois state militia is to select a battle song. Would it be all right to suggest, "Then Come Back to Herrin"?
D. A. I. M.

THE CHICAGO RIVER used to be a joke that was a sure fire laugh. How the vaudeville audiences did roar when one comedian would say to another: "I saw a man fall into the Chicago river this morning," and another cutup would say, "Did he drown"? and the first joker would answer, "No, he broke his arm." But look at the Chicago river now! First, they cleaned it, then they made it run up hill, and now they're going to take all the kinks out of it. Next thing we hope they'll pick the river up and pour it back into the lake, and we'll have a nice boulevard where it used to be. And then there won't be any more bridges to open, and the best alibi ever offered for being late at the office will be gone forever. Ah, well!

Come Right In, Eratica; Now You're Adopted.

Sir: Been reading your Line for years. Seems like a famly affair, but such a damn nice family, so frank in your loving and cussing each other. But, how does an outsider get in? Rush? Push? Shush? Or, what? Keep out? ERATICA.

BY THE WOODBINE ARCHES OF BALLINAGARRA.

Dick Agra: Let you come there of a morning when the first early wind through the gap of the north wakes up sleive Gullion. Let you watch him heave his saffron tasseled whin cloak and bless himself lazy-like with the meandering cloud shadows that wander over. It will be summer agra and the foxgloves on the fairy rath of Faryney will be waving their purple bannerettes for your welcoming. On the road from Carick to Lough Erne the last of the hawthorns will be tossing their scented spray, where later the bashful sloe and scarlet cheeked wild rowan will kiss the winds for you as you pass. If you linger until the evening has overtaken you and you should be hearing strange murmurings soft and lonesome-like, you'll be knowing that Diramuid, hand in hand with his own Granua, have again come to the quiet summer northland and are keeping their eternal tryst by the woodbine arches of Ballinagarra.
MARY EILEEN.

It Was Something About a Wedding Trip.

R. H. L.: Have jist got back frum a 4 munths trip to Alaska. I understand that wile I wuz gone sum squaw naimed Chicago Blues inkwired about me. Wot wuz it she wanted? SNOWSHOE AL.

True, Yes; but Owing to the Crowd We Have Shootings Three Times a Day.

Sir: The following is not a contribution. Kindly do not regard it as such. I am told that you published an article signed by yourself in the Line a few weeks ago to the effect that each contributor should send in but one contribution per day. Also that any contributor sending in more than one at a time would be shot at sunrise and that his stuff would not be given any consideration whatever. Is this true? Will you please write me and let me know?
LOIS HARPER.

Four Out of Every Five Have It.

R. H. L.: Can you think of any ailment one could get so as to stay home about a week, without the boss phoning every three minutes to see if you are at home? Appreciating a very prompt reply——
AN UNPREFERRED BRUNETTE.

The City at Twilight.

RHL: When I approach the city atop a bus at twilight and find the outlines of tall buildings blurred into a modern canvas by Manet; when lights begin to twinkle from hundreds of offices and the river is mad with dancing reflections; when even I. C. smoke has a certain hazy glow and the avenue is smart with people; when I cross the south side viaduct at night and that magic sky line strikes my vision, I wish I were the poet I'd like to be. Then I'd gather all these beauties into a string of adequate words and phrases and call the result: Song of an Urban Soul. TRACY.

Ah, Seeing Is More Wonderful than Hearing.

R. H. L.: Next time when all youse contributors and the Col Con is at Carson-Pirie's together, why not go from there to W-G-N and give us a Line Nite? Gosh, that's a swell idea. HOWARD.

Well, What Was the Matter with Our Smile? Hey?

R. H. L.: Saturday I saw you and the other Line celebrities. You are all just as I have pictured and imagined—charming. But oh! when one is eighteen there are rare moments in one's life which become memory's jewels, and to me there came such a moment when our hero smiled at me and autographed my "Bed Time Storries"—fer tha modurn chile. Really, I misread four traffic signals, thereby endangering my life before I recovered from his spell! JANE.

MR. J. DEMPSEY will fight in September. All the newspapers say so. But what September? Ah, the years to come, the years to come, they are so full of Septembers! R. H. L.

PAVING.

Chicago, April 16.—It is amusing to read about the proposed widening of this and that street in the near future—to cost $356,742.37. And then, within the hour, to drive through the loop on Clark street.

The writer has driven over this street two to four times daily for more than two years. The bumps and ruts are as familiar as the keys on my typewriter. No repairs have been made on any of them, except the block between Madison and Monroe. And that was necessary, because the road was about to cave in.

Other streets are nearly as bad in the loop. And no joy riding is done here. Motorists are compelled to travel over them.

The Lake Shore drive is so congested that it is dangerous. Other arteries would be used by thousands going north if the pavement permitted safe driving.

Take Franklin street for example. It isn't bad north, over the river, but when the northern end is reached (Orleans street) the cobbles discourage most drivers and the street is used by very few. Dearborn, La Salle, and Wells are not much better, and consequently are little used. But now the drive is rough. Holes appear and are unavoidable.

Why cannot some of the $4,000,000 annual vehicle tax be used to put these roads in condition? Who is responsible for the lack of repair? What is actually done with this nice little wad of coin?
M. E. GAMMON.

THE NEW CAESAR.

Chicago, April 21. — "Hail New Caesar"—"Italians and Greeks plan to Carve Turkey," so run the heads in today's paper. One great difference between the old and the new Caesar is that the old Caesar had some gladiators. If Mussy can get himself some gladiators he might have a chance, but as it stands, I'm ready to back the Turk. All the so-called new Caesar needs is plenty of rope.
JIMMY DOCH.

A GAAR WILLIAMS FAN.

Chicago, April 7.—You want to know why I take THE TRIBUNE?

Because Gaar Williams is on the staff. I get more kick out of his cartoons than anything else in any paper.
HELEN W. BEGGS.

A GRATEFUL STUDENT.

Chicago, April 19.—This is to thank you for the picture of Crown Prince Peter of Jugoslavia in his native costume, which you printed in yesterday's rotogravure section. It is of much help to me as a pupil in commercial geography at Lindblom High school.

As a constant reader, I find much satisfaction in THE TRIBUNE.
VLASTA VAN CURN.

THE TEXTILE STRIKE.

Fort Dodge, Ia., April 19.—A news item states that the textile mills of Passaic, N. J., will reopen under an armed guard of 500 men, of whom 150 special deputies are all former service men.

I wonder what the boys who went over there to make the world safe for democracy will think of that. Rather inconsistent—save it over there and kill it here.
O. A. KLEMM.

A DIRTY STREET.

Evanston, Ill., April 9.—Having to walk along Chicago avenue between the river and Michigan boulevard, several times a day, I naturally notice the condition of the sidewalks and the street. This condition is positively disgusting and anything but sanitary. Rubbish, garbage and ashes are strewn about the street and sidewalks, this being especially true between Wells and Larrabee streets. This mess does anything but check an epidemic, such as influenza.

Couldn't Health Commissioner Bundesen see that the city street cleaning department cleans up this street?
L. T. C.

COMPARISONS ARE ILLEGAL.

Chicago, April 20.—Please don't, Mr. Stock, remove Strawinsky's "Printemps" from your list. I hope to hear it again and again as the concert seasons wax and wane. If E. P. W. doesn't like Strawinsky, let him give his ticket that week to some one who does. Perhaps I am prejudiced in favor of "Printemps," which I think is by far the best Strawinsky I have heard, because I was engaged to be married the first time Mr. Stock presented this music. My fiancé and I shamelessly held hands throughout the production, and right down stairs in front, at that! Last Friday my husband and I went again, and because we had not a season ticket for Fridays we had to climb up to seventh heaven. Strawinsky sounded just as well above as below.

I think it is foolish to compare musicians. The old saw about comparisons has a particularly and singularly appropriate aptitude in this regard. I'm thankful for Mozart and Bach and Beethoven and Schumann and Wagner. But that doesn't mean that I am any the less thankful for Strawinsky. I don't know whether or not he is as great a musician as the others, and I don't care. He gives me a unique thrill, which no other musician can give. His music has the kick of a strong old cognac as compared with a delicate Rhine wine, a rich Chambertin (which might aptly suggest Schumann), or a heady Graves.
SYBIL WORTHINGTON.

FOR AN AMERICAN CLUB.

Chicago, April 20.—I read with pleasure of the bill pending in congress requiring foreign born residents to register in order to keep track of the large number of foreigners who come to our shores and to stop smuggling of foreigners. It shows Americans have not lost the supervision of their country altogether.

I would like to know as an American who's at the head of this Chicago council for the protection of foreign born, as I notice every good piece of legislation for the good of our country is always fought with vigor by some foreign outfit with some misleading argument.

I would like to see some such clubs as "The American club" to offset these foreign councils, etc. J. BROWNING.

CHICAGO'S COLD AUDIENCES.

Chicago, April 19.—Is it a breach of good manners to applaud at the theater when a good performer or musician has tried his best to please the audience? It makes my blood boil to see a good number go by without some show of appreciation. The theatergoing public in Chicago is very unresponsive, I think.
GRACE HAHN.

EXPLAINING SMITH'S VICTORY.

Elgin, Ill., April 21.—The world court was in no way responsible for the nomination of Mr. F. L. Smith. The result was a revolt of the farmers against the Coolidge régime, and the vote in the agricultural districts shows this to be the case.

TRUCK KILLS BOY CHASING MARBLE OUT INTO STREET

Fourth Child Victim in 2 Days; Toll 226.

ERIC KOHL.

Running into the street in front of his home to recover a marble, Joseph Pryzbocki, 5 years old, 3554 Fillmore street, was knocked down by a motor truck yesterday and almost instantly killed. He was the fourth child victim of trucks in two days. His death, with two others, raised the county toll for the year to 226.

Stanley Juinks, 29 years old, 4513 South Paulina street, the truck driver, was taken into custody by New City police.

The death occurred as police issued a bulletin warning parents to keep their children off the streets at this time of the year.

Winnetka Woman Killed.

Miss Josephine Salmen, 42 years old, 844 Spruce street, Winnetka, was struck by a taxicab last night in Evanston at Chicago avenue and South boulevard. She died en route to a hospital. Bert Bone, 2127 Maple avenue, Evanston, the driver, was held pending an inquest.

Andrew Graham, 41 years old, 6746 South Green street, whose back was broken in an automobile accident a year ago on the Higgins road, died at the German Deaconess hospital. His spine became infected a short time ago from the original injury.

Boy Killed in Lombard.

Frank Schwarer Jr., 8 years old, of Lombard, Ill., was struck and instantly killed Wednesday by an automobile driven by Arthur Geirsbach of Lombard. The boy is the son of Frank B. Schwarer, attorney for the International Harvester company. He was injured under the Chicago and Northwestern viaduct in Lombard. A coroner's jury released the driver, finding that the accident was unavoidable.

Miss Julia Duffy, 33 years old, secretary of the J. L. Metz Furniture company, who resides at 7542 Kingston avenue, was severely injured last night when her automobile was struck and overturned by a car driven by Mrs. Daisy Hunt, 1405 East 67th place. The accident occurred at Yates avenue and 72nd street.

Crash Follows Party.

In the car with Mrs. Hunt were Guy A. Gnash, 941 East 80th place; Mrs. R. S. Watts, 2450 East 72d place, and Mrs. Watts' mother, Mrs. E. J. Radke, 6921 Bennett avenue, who had been giving a party.

Mrs. Hunt was charged with reckless driving and the others with disorderly conduct. Miss Duffy, who is a sister of former Police Lieutenant Paul Duffy, was taken first to the Washington Park hospital and later home.

Elfrida Kniazzeha, an Italian banker, who gave his address as 908 North Halsted street, surrendered to police yesterday, admitting he was the driver of an automobile which ran down and killed Eric Kohl, 25 years old, 1964 Lincoln avenue, at Michigan avenue and Ontario street Wednesday. The driver disappeared after the accident. He was charged with assault with intent to commit murder.

WORLD PEACE OUTLOOK BETTER, HUGHES ASSERTS

Washington, D. C., April 22.—(AP)—Surveying recent world events in an address here tonight before the American Society of International Law, its president, Charles E. Hughes, declared that the prospect for international peace was better than a year ago.

The former secretary of state praised the world court, denying that American adherence would connect the Washington government with the league of nations, and defended the senate reservations. He expressed the hope that next year further progress "in testing the sincere desire for peace by the voluntary restriction of the unnecessary multiplication of the instrumentalities of war," may be recorded, particularly in limiting auxiliary naval craft.

As to the world court, Mr. Hughes said "Many do not realize that a permanent court of international justice will afford a far more satisfactory recourse for us than the ordinary arbitral method."

Portuguese Flyers Crash Into Sea on Azores Flight

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LISBON, April 22.—The Portuguese aviators, Lieuts. Moreira and Neves Terriera, flying from Lisbon to the Azores, fell into the sea near Santa Cruz island. They were picked up by a small boat and their machine also was saved.

Slow But Sure

For over half a century Heinz has been developing pedigreed seed for the growing of only the finest and best tomatoes for this year's Ketchup.

In turn, Heinz tomatoes are cooked slowly so that the surplus water simmers out and the full essence of the tomatoes simmers down, resulting in the best Ketchup it is possible to make.

DEPEW, 92 TODAY, STOPS WORK LONG ENOUGH TO TALK

Attributes All He Is to the "Just and Loving God."

New York, April 22.—[Special.]—Chauncey M. Depew was a day younger than 92 years old today as he sat at his desk as chairman of the board of the New York Central railroad. He said so himself, but all the evidence pointed to the fact that he was just a promising young railroad man trying to get by, pretending to a greater age.

CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW.

His eyes were clear and darting. When he moved or gesticulated the motion was not merely spry; it was snappy. His mind flashed to meet the questions, and at the end of 45 minutes of reply he had no sign of fatigue.

Serenely he surveyed the state of the world's health, and found it better than ever. Pretty much like his own, in fact. Placidity is a hobby with Senator Depew, and even when trying to answer the queries of 22 reporters he held to his calm, which is one of the reasons why he expects to live to be 100 or more.

Attributes All to God.

The religious side of Mr. Depew came out today greater than it has on any of the many occasions when birthday interviews have been granted. He attributes to God, to the "just and loving God," all that he is and all that he has accomplished. And no young man facing life without religion can be anything but a failure. His devotion to his creed came out incidentally and was prefaced by his views of nearly everything except ships and sealing wax.

The 92 year old philosopher, humorist, and optimist said he believed in God, the United States of America, the Republican party, the tariff, railroad and industrial conditions, capital and labor, marriage, moderation in food and drink, champagne, humor, automobiles, and the radio, the world court, and a United States of Europe.

Says Dry Law Goes too Far.

Modification of the dry law doesn't interest Mr. Depew.

"I don't drink myself—any more," he said. "I had to give up champagne because it disagreed with me. I love champagne, too. I think that the prohibition law goes a little too far."

No subject discussed interested Mr. Depew so much as that relating to religion.

"As far as religious ideas are concerned," he said, "I am orthodox. I absolutely believe in God, and a part of that belief is that there is a loving Father. Again and again during my life I have had evidence of a supreme power, and I cannot fail to acknowledge it on all occasions."

"What do you think of the single standard?" a feminine reporter asked.

"Young lady," he replied, "I will be 92 years old tomorrow. I am not interested in the single standard, the double standard or any other standard."

Gives up Coffee.

Mr. Depew disclosed that in addition to champagne he has now given up coffee.

"Forty years ago," he said, "I cut out red beef although I was desperately fond of it. I have not had a twinge of rheumatism since. Then I found tea bothered my sleep. I gave that up and during this last year I have eliminated coffee. I have always had a simple rule with regard to diet—that is moderation.

"The farmers? They are coming out all right. They are victims of the dislocation of economic life. The war closed many markets. Since Locarno there has come an agreement in economic life that has enormously increased employment."

Europe, Mr. Depew sees as improving, but he believes it needs to get rid of "innumerable tariffs." He thinks the "United States of Europe" may soon become a reality.

S. W. TANFIELD TO PAY WIFE $1,000 A MONTH AS ALIMONY

One thousand dollars a month as alimony to his wife and child will be paid by Stanley W. Tanfield, wealthy Florida real estate broker, according to an agreement filed yesterday before Superior Judge Harry Lewis, who heard the divorce suit of Mrs. Ruth W. Tanfield of the Surf hotel.

Tanfield did not contest the suit. His wife testified that she was married March 18, 1915, in Toronto, and lived with her husband until August, 1923. He deserted her then, she told the judge, and she did not hear from him until the following February, when he told her that his desertion would be permanent. She was granted custody of their child, Theodora, 6 years old.

In addition to the $1,000 monthly payments, Tanfield agreed to pay the premium on a $100,000 life insurance policy in which Mrs. Tanfield and the child are beneficiaries.

FINE ARTS AND McCLINTOCK WILL SUITS IN COURT

Springfield, Ill., April 22.—[Special.]—The Illinois Supreme court today devoted its time to hearing arguments in two important Chicago cases—the McClintock will case and the Furlong suit involving the issue of bonds for the restoration of the Fine Arts building in Jackson park.

Both cases were reached late on the call. That concerning the park bonds had been advanced on the docket for oral argument, in order to get it out of the way at the present term of court. "Owing to the conditions confronting the south park commission," said William E. Furlong, who appeared as his own attorney in the case, "I have waived further time, in order to have this litigation determined as soon as possible."

Furlong contended there was no authority for the bond issue, insisting that the purposes enumerated in the commission's resolution and recited on the ballot, exceeded the legislative grant of power to the commission.

Former Justice George A. Cooke asserted that the only question involved was the authority to restore the Fine Arts building, and this, he asserted, the commission had. General Counsel Snackleberg of the commission defended the bond issue and the legislation under which it had been authorized.

In the McClintock will case, John J. Healy appeared for the heirs who are contesting the will of William Nelson McClintock. Charles F. Rathbun, representing William Shepard, the chief beneficiary under the will, defended it.

SHERIFF'S SALE TO END CROWLEY NAUTICAL CAREER

Lawrence [Butch] Crowley, radio impresario and ex-bootlegger, is about to lose his title of commodore, acquired last summer when he purchased the Virginia H., a motor launch, for use on the Du Page river at Electric park, Plainfield.

The boat is to be sold at a sheriff's sale on May 1 to satisfy a judgment of $293.76 obtained by the Poehner & Dillman Hardware company against Crowley, unless the judgment is satisfied.

After Commodore Crowley provided himself with a flagship last year it was discovered that the Du Page wasn't big enough to support craft in the style to which the vessel had been accustomed.

Kewanee Board Refuses to License Roadhouses

Kewanee, Ill., April 22.—(AP)—By a vote of 25 to 2, Henry county's board of supervisors today declined to issue licenses for roadhouse dance pavilions.

Look First

The only quick-cooking oats with this flavor is "Quick Quaker"

FLAVOR is the all-important point in food. In oats it is probably more important than in any other.

That is why people who once taste the toasty richness of Quaker Oats are spoiled thereafter for all others.

Quaker flavor is unique, toasty and delightful. No other oats offers it to you. Some 50 years were spent perfecting it.

Quaker milling, too, retains much of the "bulk" of oats. And that makes laxatives less often needed. Protein, carbohydrates, and vitamines and this "bulk" are thus combined to make Quaker Oats an excellently balanced ration.

For your own sake, say "Quaker" when buying oats. Two kinds now at groceries: Quick Quaker (cooks in 3 to 5 minutes) and Quaker Oats as always.

NEW LAVA LAKE POURS OUT OF HAWAIIAN CRATER

BY C. F. GESSLER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]

HONOLULU, T. H., April 22.—Kilauea observatory today received a report that a lava lake was forming in Puukeokeo crater on the southeast slope of the volcano Mauna Loa, the source of the present flow, which is approaching the McWayne ranch house at the rate of about eighty feet an hour. The ranch and plantation employés with trucks are preparing to move all transferrable property.

Ranches Hard Hit.

Observers say it is only a question of time when the flow will develop more speed with the pressure from the lava lake and when it reaches the steeper and more regular course ahead. The ranchers in the Kona district have suffered heavy damage from the lava flow. Four ranch houses and other property were destroyed, at an estimated damage of $10,000. Cowboys are searching for several hundred cattle which, it is feared, are trapped by the fiery streams.

Sharp Earthquake in Hilo.

There were signs that the activity would be transferred to the Hilo side of the island this morning, when the sharpest earthquake in years shook Hilo, displacing buildings as much as eight inches.

A new lava flow began today to flow down the mountainside. Observers estimate that it will take two days to reach the government road. Thomas Jagger, government observer, says there is little danger. He believes its force is from Mokuaweoweo, a weird summit crater 13,000 feet above sea level, where lurid fires blaze amid the snow.

PEOPLE FIRST, GERMANS REPLY TO ROYAL CLAIMS

Demand Small Owner Get Back Pre-War Property

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]

BERLIN, April 22.—The claims of German princes against Germany for fortunes and estates they held before the war are being countered by the claims of 8,000,000 Germans belonging to united revalorization associations.

Herr Best, a member of the reichstag, today protested against the negotiations of the judiciary committee of the reichstag, demanding that the prewar property of small owners must be revalorized before the property of the princes is returned. In the ensuing battle a compromise settlement of the claims of the princes was drawn up by the government, but it was turned down by a majority of the judiciary committee.

Call Luther's Hand.

This is taken as a political move of the Socialists and Democrats, who want to force the Luther government to take a clear stand on the problem of a refund on royal property. Chancellor Luther, seeing that the compromise was in danger, called the representatives of the government parties and Socialists in an effort to find backing for the compromise.

Herr Best, as leader of the revalorization movement, is making desperate efforts to overthrow the government's plan for a compromise. He fears that unless the government realizes the strength of the revalorization organizations it will not protect the rights of its citizens when alien property is returned by America. Herr Best and his friends assert that when the confiscated property was returned to Germany by England the German government gave back to the owners only a small portion of the property returned. They demand that the property returned by America be returned in full to the pre-war owners.

Government Hard Pressed.

The members of all the parties are flocking to Herr Best's rescue, and it is believed the government is ready to give in. The Socialists would support the revised settlement of the royal claims if they were forced to carry their share of the big German inflation losses. The Socialists are expected to support the government, but they demand first that the motion of the communists and Socialists for the expropriation of princes' property be submitted to the reichstag. This will not poll the two-thirds majority required and the Socialists then will be forced to join the middle parties and support the government compromise.

NEW IMMIGRANT BILL DEPORTS TOTERS OF GUNS

Measure to Appear in House Today.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—[Special.]—Drastic amendment of the immigration laws, designed to facilitate the deportation of alien gunmen, dope traffickers and other criminals, as well as mental defectives or paupers, is proposed in the bill which will be reported to the house tomorrow from its immigration committee by Representative Holaday [Rep., Ill.].

Representative Johnson [Rep., Wash.], chairman of the immigration committee, plans to ask a special rule calling the measure up within two weeks, and asserts the bill will go to the senate with less than fifty votes against it in the house.

The new bill will permit the deportation of an alien convicted of a felony and sentenced to prison for a year or more, bringing within its scope, according to Representative Johnson, alien gunmen not now deportable.

In its present form, the bill would make possible the deportation of undesirables convicted of crime or who have become public charges since the world war.

Illegally entered aliens who have lived in the United States for 10 years or more without conviction for crime would be entitled to naturalization in the ordinary manner under the measure.

The senate today passed the house bill which will admit as nonquota immigrants more than 5,000 Italians and other nationals who were honorably discharged from the United States army or navy abroad after service during the world war.

The bill renews for their benefit special exemptions granted such aliens by war legislation which has since expired, and provides that alien war veterans, if residing in the United States, shall be entitled to naturalization.

MURDER SUSPECT DIES IN CELL.

Wilson Cotton, colored, who was awaiting trial on a charge of murdering his wife last November, was found dead in his cell yesterday. Heart disease is believed to be the cause of his death.

ACCOUNTS SHORT $31,000; CHINESE HELD FOR QUIZ

Howard Moy, 39, a Chinaman, was taken into temporary custody, at least, yesterday by Sergt. John Rush of the state's attorney's office on a charge of embezzling about $31,000 from the Equitable Trust company, 2219 South Michigan avenue. He was head of the Chinese section of the bank's foreign exchange department.

Moy, formerly secretary of the King Joy Lo restaurant, admitted to Assistant State's Attorney John Dempsey that he was short $30,000.

He has been accused of juggling accounts between money intrusted to him by Chinamen and what he had in the bank for about 3 years, until finally he found that he owed the bank more than he could repay.

Officials of a surety company, which bonded Moy, indicated that they might not prosecute him if the shortage is made up.

BERNICE ZALIMAS SOBS AND RAGES AT POISON QUERY

Loses Poise When Asked if She Killed Husband.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Andrew McLain, burglary, sentenced to 1 year in the Bridewell by Judge John P. McGoorty.

Albert Jurkowski, robbery, sentenced to 10 years to life in the penitentiary by Judge William V. Brothers.

Jim Lines, larceny, sentenced to 1 to 10 years in the penitentiary; Sidney Parker, burglary, 1 to 20 years in the penitentiary; Coleman Cranshaw, larceny, 1 year in the Bridewell, and George Alton, larceny, 1 year in the Bridewell, by Judge William N. Gemmill.

One word—"poison"—spoken in Judge Worth E. Caylor's court yesterday transformed a poised, smiling woman who skilfully parried the thrusts of a state's attorney seeking to prove her guilty of murder into a raging, tearful, hysterical Amazon who shrieked a declaration of her innocence.

Mrs. Bernice Zalimas, still plump after nine months of imprisonment, had provoked a crowded courtroom to admiration of her capabilities as a witness in her own behalf. She had calmly described her marriage to Dominick Zalimas, their married life together, his sickness and death, due, she said, to his refusal to submit to the services of a physician. Then her attorney, Eugene McGarry, put this question:

"Did you ever administer poison to your husband, Mrs. Zalimas?"

Leaps to Her Feet, Shrieking.

The woman leaped to her feet. She shook her arms in warlike manner. Her blonde locks escaped from beneath her close fitting black hat.

"I didn't do it!" she shrieked. "Why should I do it? I swear to Almighty God I didn't do it!"

Then she collapsed, sobbing and groaning. Court was adjourned while she was quieted.

The state, represented by Assistant State's Attorney Harold Levy, charges that Mrs. Zalimas administered arsenic to her husband. She was found guilty a year ago, but won a new trial from the Supreme court.

Missing Witnesses Found.

Two witnesses who mysteriously disappeared Wednesday were brought in yesterday. One of them, Mrs. Stella Stanzia, 4304 Lincoln street, was a reluctant witness.

The second witness, Anna Shezereck, 12 years old, a flower girl at the Zalimas wedding, who testified at the first trial that she saw Mrs. Zalimas and another man embracing, had suffered a lapse of memory, the state learned, and she was not placed on the stand.

Final arguments will be made today.

STECK HERE ON WAY EAST; AIDS LEGION'S DRIVE

United States Senator Dan Steck of Iowa, recently seated over Smith W. Brookhart, stopped in Chicago for a few hours yesterday en route to Washington. While here he indorsed the American Legion's present drive for a million members.

Meeting a committee of Legionnaires at the Hotel La Salle, Senator Steck told them, "every service man should become a member of the Legion. In the seven years of this organization's existence it has been clearly shown that its sole aim is service, to the community, state and nation.

"As a former state commander of the Legion in Iowa, I am glad to join in the call to all service men to join this great organization, and I am glad to address this call to the service men of Cook county."

Beyond saying that prohibition was not an issue in Iowa, Senator Steck would not commit himself on the question. He was met at the train by an uncle, E. G. Steck, 6724 Prairie avenue.

VAST SAVINGS TO MIDWEST SEEN IN GULF CHANNEL

The first year's operation of a water route from Chicago to the Gulf of Mexico would save farmers and other shippers an amount equal to double the tolls collected annually at the Panama canal, it was declared in a report made yesterday to the Mississippi Valley association.

"This saving will amount to at least $45,000,000 in the first year and probably $100,000,000 in the second year's operation of the proposed route," says the report.

Big Saving for Farmers.

"It will take only about $5,000,000 more to effect the necessary improvements, all within the state of Illinois, while the total cost of the Panama canal was $375,000,000.

"The midwest paid its share of the huge cost of the Panama canal and has stood by patiently for twelve years while the east and the west reaped the benefit.

"Our traffic expert's report shows that, exclusive of the South American and European trade, there will be a reduction to the farmers at the end of the first year of operation on the river of 5 cents per bushel in freight charges on 214,000,000 bushels of corn, wheat, and oats grown within forty miles of the waterway.

$15,000,000 Coal Economy.

"Likewise, there will be a saving of $15,000,000 to the public generally in the 20,000,000 tons of coal that will come out of southern Illinois mines by water. Another $20,000,000 will be saved immediately to the shippers in reduced freight rates on manufactured articles that can go by boat to the south, east and west, the latter through utilization of the Panama canal.

"None of this water traffic will injure the railroads. They already have more than they can handle and it is increasing daily while few additional railroad facilities are now being built. In addition, probably 85 per cent of this commerce will be partly rail traffic, the railways carrying it to the wharves from the interior."

FIND GIRL HAD NO CONNECTION WITH BYRNE CASE AUTO

The county highway police, who said Monday night that a license on the automobile of William Byrne, slain bootlegger, had been issued in the name of Miss Virginia Byrnes, 4123 Lake Park avenue, a telephone operator and no relative of the dead man, have established that Miss Byrnes had no connection whatever with issuance of the license, Chief Leroy Davidson declared yesterday.

Chief Davidson said also that Miss Byrnes was in no way implicated in the circumstances about Byrne's death, and that it was simply coincidental that Miss Byrnes' brother, William Byrnes, had known the murdered Byrne.

L. T. McGrath Renamed Oak Park Police Chief

Leon T. McGrath was reappointed chief of police of Oak Park yesterday. President Willis McFeeley of the village board also reappointed Walter Wolff fire chief; W. B. Ross, collector; and Dudley P. Meyers, commissioner of public works.

BRITISH LEAGUE DEMANDS MONEY LOANED TO SOUTH

LONDON, April 22.—(AP)—The Association of British Chambers of Commerce today started action for the collection of defaulted debts of a number of the southern states of the United States.

The resolution of the association is really a stirring appeal to public opinion in the United States. The time is believed to be psychological. The United States is urging its foreign debtors to pay up. Although the resolution is directed toward the British foreign secretary in accordance with diplomatic usage, the only definite response expected is from America.

Names the States.

The association's resolution set forth that Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, and North and South Carolina had defaulted in the payment of money lent by British subjects. It seeks to have the British foreign secretary ask the American ambassador to call the attention of the American government to the matter for the purpose of obtaining a hearing before the Supreme court. This money was loaned prior to the end of the civil war and amounts to about $75,000,000.

The action of the chambers of commerce gives importance to a fight which a corporation, composed of the the foreign bondholders, started fifty years ago and which has been revived annually in the report of that organization and by parliamentary questions, diplomatic representations, and letters to the newspapers. The bondholders' corporation maintains a permanent organization to look after the interests of British investors abroad and keep an accurate record of the defaults of all countries.

Six members of the London chamber of commerce have seats on the council of the bondholders' organization, Stanley Machin, Lord Southward, Lord Desborough, Sir Felix Schuster, H. L. Symonds and Sir James Martin, who introduced the resolution today.

Sir James enumerated the defaulted issues as follows: Alabama, $13,000,000; Arkansas, $8,700,000; Florida, $8,000,000; Georgia, $13,500,000; Louisiana, $6,000,000; Mississippi, $7,000,000; North Carolina, $13,000,000; South Carolina, $6,000,000. Mississippi's defaulted debts particularly irk the bondholders' organizations, as these bonds were issued in 1831 and 1838.

Hold U. S. Is Not Liable.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—(AP)—The question of confederate state debts to British bondholders has bobbed up periodically ever since the close of the civil war, but officials here have never considered the government of the United States had anything to do about the matter.

Generally, the debts resulted from purchases abroad of state bonds. Thousands of Americans also purchased these bonds and have never collected.

The position of the government has been that the bonds were issued on the sole responsibility of the states. It has been pointed out that the buyers might have collected in confederate currency at one time, but the value of this ceased altogether with the end of the war.

Small Chance to Collect.

Atlanta, Ga., April 22.—(AP)—Indications that holders of bonds issued by various states while composing the confederate states of America will have little more chance of collecting on them than would the present day holders of confederate paper money are given in dispatches today from capitals of many of the states that made up the southern confederacy from 1861 to 1865.

S. Guy Melendon, secretary of state of Georgia, said the 14th amendment to the United States constitution specifically made it illegal for any state to retire obligations made in support of rebellion against the United States.

LA SALLE MAYOR DENIES BLOCKING ACTION ON BOOZE

[By Associated Press.]

Peter Coleman, mayor of La Salle, Ill., has offered strenuous denial to charges made by State's Attorney Russell C. Hanson of La Salle county to the effect that the mayor and other officials had obstructed Hanson's effort to enforce prohibition.

The dispute came to light when Hanson told federal officials here that efforts to get an indictment against John Charley, a La Salle saloonkeeper, had failed because of the attitude of local officials.

"I have never obstructed the efforts of the state's attorney," said Mayor Coleman. "On the contrary, the police have been instructed to coöperate with him."

La Salle, he explained, is under the commission form of government, each member of the board of commissioners having charge of a department. The police, he said, were responsible to the commissioner of that department and had other duties besides assisting in raids of the type conducted against Charley's place.

Sheriff E. J. Welter, who was also mentioned in Hanson's charges, said:

"Hanson has never tried a liquor case since he has been in office. In fact, he has brought only half a dozen or so cases to trial, and he has lost fifty per cent of them. If he would stop trying to buck me and do a little coöperating himself he would get along better."

Suit Started to Secure Brand Park for Public

Brand's park, Elston avenue and Melrose street, the scene of many political and labor gatherings, is being sought by the River park district for a public park. Condemnation proceedings to acquire the property were started yesterday before Judge John D. Biggs.

William Jennings Bryan and Theodore Roosevelt were among the prominent men who have spoken in the historic picnic grove.

STREET CAPACITY MORE AT HIGHER SPEED, IS CLAIM

Engineer Offers Figures on Auto Traffic.

BY J. L. JENKINS.

Engineering theory and Chicago automobile speed limits clashed yesterday at the closing session of the Western Society of Engineers' convocation in the Monadnock building. Logarithms, slide rules, and exhaustive traffic tests were brought in to prove that the maximum use of congested city pavements can be achieved when cars move at a rate of between 25 and 30 miles an hour rather than the legalized 20 and that extra wide roadways hinder rather than help traffic movement.

Maj. R. F. Kelker Jr., consulting engineer and a nationally recognized traffic expert, exploded the generally accepted idea that city roadways offer their maximum capacity when traffic moves at approximately 15 to 20 miles an hour. He showed that roadway capacities are nearly the same for speeds of between 20 and 25, with a slightly higher maximum at 25 to 30.

Higher Speed Sure to Come.

Sidney J. Williams, director of public safety of the national safety council, pointed out the danger of a general acceptance of this theory, but admitted that higher speeds are certain to come in the future and urged highway engineers to accept safety as one of the prime objects in future pavement design.

"The theoretical maximum capacity of a single lane roadway is not reached under a speed of 25 miles an hour and probably is actually attained at a higher rate of speed," declared Maj. Kelker, backing up his statement with engineering data and practical traffic tests. "In Chicago two points where the use of the roadway approaches its maximum and greatest traffic density are to be found during the evening rush hour on the northbound drive of the Michigan avenue bridge and in Lake Shore drive just south of Lincoln park.

3,619 Pass in Hour.

"The bridge roadway measures 27 feet and 3,619 cars pass over its three lanes in a single hour. The inner lane, however, carries 1,552 of these cars, or 43 per cent of the total traffic."

Extra wide roadways, except in special instances, he added, actually reduce traffic capacity. The cost of constructing two roadways, one 34 feet wide and the other 54 feet wide, he said, will be 19 per cent more than building one 74 foot roadway, but the traffic value of the two roadways will be 24 per cent greater. He warned engineers against obstructing traffic by installation of stop signals at isolated intersections and in planning ten and twelve lane roads that add to pedestrian dangers.

ROB GROCER OF $230.

Two bandits entered the grocery store of Benjamin Freeman, 2201 North Halsted street, yesterday and robbed him of $230.

At 103 He Fears Dry Era Moonshine Will Finish Him

Arthur Paul, colored, admits he is 103 years old and boasts that he was the first Negro born in Chicago. He was arrested yesterday by Policeman Elmer Holland for blocking traffic at Halsted street and Roosevelt road, after he had imbibed too much moonshine. At the Maxwell street police station Paul had this to say: "The stuff you get to drink nowadays is terrible. I'm afraid I won't live many more days unless I can get better stuff." He was fined $30.

LONG VELIE LIFE

The distinctive beauty of Velie body, hood and radiator lines has been a big factor in the recent widespread swing to Velie.

Likewise, the marvelous performance of the new Velie, with its vibrationless motor — powerful, speedy, silent — its quick pickup and flashy acceleration — all this has played its part in influencing so many buyers.

Yet it is Velie value to which AMERICA'S LONG LIFE CAR has for 18 years held steadfast that has built this ever-increasing clientele consisting of buyers who have a particularly keen knowledge of cars. One big reason for this success is found in Velie's manufacturing facilities which make possible the building of so large a share of their own product that they can deliver a high quality car without tacking on an exorbitant price.

See the new Velie — inspect it closely — try it. We will leave the rest to you.

SOVIET POLICE SCOUR RUSSIA FOR NEW BRAINS

BY DONALD DAY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]

RIGA, Latvia, April 22.—The cheka, Russia's secret police, is off on a new trail. It is hunting not criminals or foes of the soviet political régime, but brains.

In an effort to develop Russian industry and save the tottering bolshevik government the Moscow leaders have ordered that the great intellects of the country be pressed into service to enable the soviet government to solve its difficult problems of crippled industry and wilting finances.

The scheme was outlined to the Leningrad trade unions in a speech by Commissar Stalin. He said that many of the old school financiers and industrial leaders of Russia, some of whom are now performing menial tasks, probably would be placed in responsible positions to assist the communists. He urged the workers to support the new bosses or "specialists."

Dollar Doubles in Value.

Travelers arriving from Moscow report that a five dollar bill, which a fortnight ago would purchase only one chervonetz in Russia, now purchases two, and that the cheka is arresting persons dealing in foreign currency in an effort to halt speculation. According to travelers, the soviet government believes that if it arrests all the speculators the state and other government banks will be able to maintain the fictitious par value of the chervonetz within the country.

Use Counterfeit Alibi.

The Latvian State bank, which until a few days ago dealt in the chervonetz, now refers buyers and sellers to the coöperative transit bank, subsidized by the soviet government, which is willing to sell any amount of soviet paper, but refuses to buy, alleging that there is a large amount of counterfeited chervonetz circulating in Riga. Other bankers here laugh at the counterfeit story, saying it is but an excuse to evade honoring the soviet paper, which is sinking rapidly in value.

FIRE ROUTS ARTISTS FROM STUDIOS.

Fire originating apparently from a defective fuse box broke out yesterday in the quarters of C. J. Cook, an artist, in the Tree Studios building, 3 East Ontario street. The building quickly filled with smoke. Many artists were routed from their studios, though the damage was confined to Cook's apartment.

GETS 10 MILLION FOR LOTS; CAN'T GET $25,000 BAIL

Miami, Fla., April 22.—[Special.]—Merle C. Tebbetts, yesterday the overlord of the magic "dream city" Fulford-by-the-Sea, today pleaded with the federal court commissioner for a reduction in his bail of $50,000, in default of which he was locked up last night. A crumpled commoner, he was led into court unshaven, unbathed, and reeking of the jail. His dream of a wonderful city at Fulford persists, however, and he asked that he be given a chance to get out and fulfill his contracts to the 15,000 or more customers who contributed $10,000,000 in cash and contracts to help make the dream come true.

Although against a reduction at first, Commissioner Prager finally agreed to reduce the bond to $25,000, stating that such sum should be considered lenient in the light of the millions involved in the case.

At a late hour Tebbetts had not been able to produce acceptable bonds and was scheduled for another night in the county jail.

FOREST FIRES IN 3 STATES BURN 50 HOMES, RAGE ON

New York, April 22.—(AP)—Thirty homes and several barns in six Suffolk county villages have been leveled by forest fires which raged all last night in the Long Island pine belt and was still burning today over an area of more than 200 square miles.

20 New Jersey Homes Burn.

Lakewood, N. J., April 22.—(AP)—The village of Pleasant Plains, near here, was threatened with destruction today when a forest fire got out of control and destroyed 20 of the town's 75 homes.

Three Fires in Maryland.

Baltimore, Md., April 22.—(AP)—Forest fires were burning in three counties of Maryland today. The most serious blaze is threatening historic Saunders range. One building has been destroyed and 20 others are in the path of the flames.

Houses have been destroyed at Carroll's Island, Stony Creek, West Annapolis, Magnolia, Dreamland beach.

COP'S TACKLING DOWNS HUSBAND IN SHOOTING FIT

Sergt. William Balswick was visiting his mother last night when he heard two shots from a nearby house, 1813 West 23d place. He ran there and saw the front door open, a man in a nightgown with a revolver in his hand, and heard a woman's scream from inside.

Balswick used to be a football player at Notre Dame and later with the Cardinals and he made a flying tackle of the man with the gun, Joseph Bigil, who appeared demented. Balswick held him down while Mrs. Bigil called for a patrol wagon and Bigil was taken to the Psycopathic hospital.

Wales Saves Baron's Life in Fox Hunt in France

PARIS, April 22.—[U. P.]—The prince of Wales caught the runaway horse and thus saved the life of Baron Palaminy, a fellow huntsman, following the Pau hounds. The baron caught his foot in his stirrup and was being dragged along the ground.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—[Special.]—Farm relief measures are due for real action soon in both house and senate as the result of simultaneous moves today to speed some agricultural program before congress adjourns. Spurred by the majority leaders, the house agricultural committee threw the whole fight on to the floor by voting to report three bills representing as many extremes in suggested remedies.

The committee had not intended to call up for passage any bill before May 15, but the steering committee insisted on action today. It was indicated, as a result of the decision to report three bills, that under a special rule for the purpose the so called Haugen corn belt conference bill, already favorably reported, will be called up first, with the Tincher and Aswell bills to be offered as substitutes.

The Haugen bill, generally considered radical, embodies many features of the 1925 McNary-Haugen plan, and, including the major planks of the Des Moines corn belt conference program, provides for a federal farm board, with a $250,000,000 revolving fund from the federal treasury and the power to levy an equalization fee on basic commodities, to stabilize prices and dispose of crop surpluses.

The Tincher bill, known as the administration plan, also suggests a federal farm board with a $100,000,000 revolving fund for loans to bona fide farmers' coöperative groups, who would reimburse the federal treasury out of an equalization fee levied among the groups themselves.

The Aswell bill contemplates nationwide coöperative associations for each farm commodity.

Edward Rooney, Aid to City Court Clerk, Dies

Edward Rooney, for the last sixteen years deputy clerk of the Municipal court, died yesterday of pneumonia at his home, 2970 Archer avenue. He had been ill only two days. He is survived by one sister and five brothers, one of whom is former Judge John J. Rooney. Funeral services will be held from St. Bridget's church at 9 a. m. tomorrow, followed by burial in Calvary cemetery.

Coolidges Attend Funeral of Executive Office Clerk

Washington, D. C., April 22.—(AP)—President and Mrs. Coolidge today attended the funeral of Mrs. Maud Downs Rogers, a clerk at the executive office of the White House. She was appointed by President Wilson eight years ago and died suddenly Tuesday after an operation. The funeral was held in the family home in Chevy Chase, Md.

VERMONT'S GOIN' TO VISIT CAL AND TAKE IN CHICAGO

Special Train, Maple Sugar, and All That.

Newport, Vt., April 22.—(AP)—Vermont is going to Washington to visit President Coolidge. A special train, loaded with good things and carrying the governor of Vermont and prominent citizens, will leave on May 18 on a pilgrimage to the capital.

One of the objects will be to carry to the President some of the maple sugar made in his native state this spring. Another will be "to tell the world" something about the state that gave Calvin Coolidge to the country.

This is not a commercial enterprise, it is explained. The editors and publishers of Vermont newspapers are sponsoring the trip, assisted by the state government and various civic, commercial, fraternal, and religious organizations.

Incidentally the train will not only make stops at each of the large cities of the east between Vermont and Washington, but after leaving the national capital will continue westward as far as Chicago. Cities on the westward route, according to a tentative itinerary, will include Harrisburg, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Toledo, Dayton, Chicago, Detroit, and Lansing, Mich.

C. B. Strohm, Santa Fe Official, Dead in West

Charles B. Strohm, 64 years old, superintendent of transportation of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, died yesterday in Los Angeles, Cal., after an illness of several months. Accompanied by his wife, he had left Chicago for Los Angeles three months ago in the hope of regaining his health and returning to his offices in June. Mr. Strohm was one of the most widely known railroad men in America. He had been connected with the Santa Fe for 48 years, having started as a telegraph operator. His home here was at 1040 Catalpa avenue. Services will be held Sunday at Glendale, Cal. The body will be cremated and the ashes brought to Chicago by Mrs. Strohm.

Abe Merinbaum, in City Service 35 Years, Dies

Abe Merinbaum, for twenty-four years a clerk in the mayor's office in charge of matters pertaining to the house of correction, died yesterday at his home, 6802 Dorchester avenue. He was 69 years old and had been ill two months. Two years ago he was pensioned after thirty-five years of city service. He was the organizer of Montefiore lodge of the Knights of Pythias. The widow and seven children survive. Funeral services will be held Monday at 11 a. m. from the chapel at 936 East 47th street. Burial will be in B'nai Brith cemetery.

McCLURG BURIAL SIMPLE, SAILORS FIRING A SALUTE

With rites simple and solemn, friends of the late Ogden Trevor McClurg, gathered yesterday afternoon at St. James' Episcopal church to do him last honor, obeyed with affectionate dignity those symbolic lines which the Rev. Dr. Duncan Brown read, Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar," as a last eulogy to Chicago's distinguished publisher and traveler:

Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me,
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

In the center of an arc of flowers the casket stood, covered with an American flag. Nearby sat a squad from Great Lakes Naval Training station, commanded by Capt. Edward Evers. Nearby, too, sat several hundred employés of the A. C. McClurg publishing house, of which Mr. McClurg, son of Gen. A. C. McClurg, its founder, was president.

To the other side, the widow, formerly Gertrude Schwarz of Brookline, Mass., was seated with her brother, Louis Schwarz of Toronto, and Mrs. William Marshall Bullitt, an intimate friend from Louisville, Ky.

Besides his widow, Mr. McClurg is survived by two little girls, Eleanor Wheeler McClurg, five and a half and Barbara Ogden McClurg, a year old.

Delegations from the American Legion, from the North Central association and from many of the clubs to which Mr. McClurg belonged attended the funeral.

The burial, which was private, was at Graceland cemetery, where the navy salute was fired.

The ushers at the church were: James C. Ames, Uri B. Grannis, Mahlon O. West, Eames MacVeagh, and Chauncey B. Blair.

The active pall bearers were: Gilbert Crowder, D. H. Sparks, Francis W. Taylor, C. Malcolm Vail, P. Wolter, and John Chapman.

The list of honorary pall bearers included Godfrey H. Atkin, Joseph E. Bray, J. J. Bryant Jr., J. N. Coen, Sheldon Clark, Joseph H. Defrees, W. Ogden Green, Ernest A. Hamill, E. W. Hewitt, Walter R. Kirk, John T. McCutcheon, Harold F. McCormick, Dr. Edwin W. Ryerson, Dr. J. Murray Washburn, Harry Waite, Harry A. Wheeler, and Bertram M. Winston.

Funeral Tomorrow for Mrs. Anna D. McPhelim

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. from St. Francis Xavier's church, Wilmette, for Mrs. Anna Dwyer McPhelim, 59 years old, who died yesterday at her home, 1630 Highland avenue. Mrs. McPhelim was a sister-in-law of Edward J. McPhelim, for many years literary and dramatic critic of THE TRIBUNE. She is survived by a son, Frank Jr., of the Illinois Bell Telephone company.

FREED OF ASSAULT CHARGES.

Stop Losing Flesh And Grow Fat Quick

Says Hollows in Cheeks and Neck Growing Deeper Every Week

Something Can Be Done for Skinny Folks and Done Right Now—Today

Tens of thousands of thin, rundown men—yes, and women too—are getting discouraged—are giving up all hope of ever being able to take on flesh and look healthy and strong.

All such people can stop worrying and start to smile and enjoy life right now for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets, which any druggist will tell you all about, is putting flesh on hosts of skinny folks every day.

One woman, tired, weak and discouraged, put on 15 pounds in five weeks and now feels fine.

We all know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitalizing, flesh producing vitamines, but many people can't take it because of its horrible smell and fishy taste and because it often upsets the stomach.

McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets are as easy to take as candy and if any thin person don't gain at least 5 pounds in 30 days your druggist is authorized to give you your money back—and only 60 cents for 60 tablets. Ask Owl Drug Co. or any druggist.

But be sure to get McCoy's, the original and genuine, and bear in mind that for thin, sickly kids they are wonderful—a very sickly child—age 9—gained 12 pounds in 7 months.

We invite you to become better acquainted with these wonderful pies—at the Case & Martin Exhibit, Booth 154, Woman's World's Fair, this week.

Then it could be told to all women

TO PRODUCE THIS AMAZING LIQUID, the inventors of Larvex had worked for eighteen months. What a thrill—to know that at last the moth was beaten—whipped to a standstill! For here was something which, sprayed on woolen articles, made them mothproof—absolutely safe from all moth-attack.

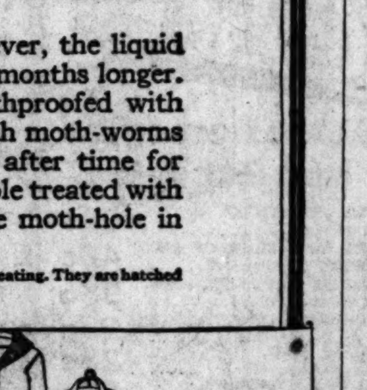
Before the secret could be told, however, the liquid must be tested. And it was tested—for months longer. Hundreds of woolen samples were mothproofed with Larvex. These samples were covered with moth-worms—which died. And were replaced time after time for months. They all died. And not one sample treated with Larvex was damaged. There wasn't one moth-hole in the lot of them.

NOTE: Moths themselves are harmless. Moth-worms do all the eating. They are hatched from eggs laid by moths.

1,000,000 women have banished moth-damage forever!

$1. saves $200.

Today, over a million women protect all their woolen things from moth-damage by mothproofing them with Larvex. Use it also to mothproof—



Spray Larvex thoroughly on any woolen article. It penetrates the wool fibres and makes the cloth so mothproof that not a moth-worm or carpet beetle will touch it. No other protection is needed, either. Hang your clothes right in the closet—you don't have to pack them away. They're always available, never wrinkled, never heavy with unpleasant odors. Larvex is odorless. Non-inflammable. And one thorough spraying mothproofs anything woolen for an entire season.

HOW TO BUY LARVEX

If you have never used Larvex, first buy the combination package containing the improved Larvex Atomizer, $1.50. Then buy the refill sizes of Larvex only; the pint at $1, or if you have many things to mothproof, buy the ½ gallon at $3 or the gallon at $5. At drug, department, and furniture stores. Buy Larvex today. The Larvex Corporation, 55 Rodney Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Worth Hearing, Elmer's Vote on Programs

Scotch Tenor, Local Composer Among Features.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

A rather unusual, interesting, lighthearted radio evening.

In a Scotch program, WMBB, "Sandy" McTavish, a Scotch tenor, did considerable toward making the 7 to 8 hour interesting.

A surprise special broadcast of mixed interest was the Faulkner school community center program, WENR, 8 to 9:45. The real surprise here was the high class program and the high class playing by the Carl Schurz High school orchestra, although there were piano numbers and readings of interest.

A special woman's day program at the woman's world's fair kept WMAQ's transmitter busy from 8 to 10 with a regular star line of well known high class professional talent.

There were duets by Mrs. Oriana Jennison and her daughter Blanche, both sopranos, I believe, but good harmony singers, I know.

Mme. Sophie Brandt, contralto, who always introduces her numbers with great seriousness and sings them quite as seriously.

Marjory Maxwell, coloratura soprano, whose clear, distinctive voice must have been as pleasing before her theater audience as it was over the air, judging from the applause.

Margaret Farr, pianist, in a group of selections, the quality of the selections and the purity of tone with which they came over made one wish her program had been longer.

Specials continued, for WJAZ's 9 to 10 program was devoted exclusively to the compositions of the Chicago pianist and composer, Louis Victor Saar.

Mr. Saar himself played a large number of his piano compositions. There were many songs and violin solos by other talent. All compositions were characterized by a certain quiet, peaceful happiness, rich in tone, and of much finesse. Each had a graceful melodic line, with dainty, fanciful embellishments, and with simple chords of charm and beauty. Incidentally, Mr. Saar's colorful manner of playing was lovely to listen to.

A half light-hearted, half-serious program by a string ensemble of violins, mandolins, guitars, banjos, and what not, made WBCN's 10 to 11 o'clock hour real worthwhile entertainment.

Sam 'n' Henry are back on W-G-N's 10 o'clock funny page again. The telephone lines hereabouts may now take a rest.

So may We, Us & Co.

INDIANA CLERGY WARS ON DE PAUW MAN'S TEACHINGS

Greencastle, Ind., April 22.—[Special.]—De Pauw university for the first time faces a serious break with the Methodist church, the church of its faith. And the issue is the right of a professor of religion to interpret and teach the Bible from a liberal viewpoint.

The North Indiana conference of the church has called upon the trustees of De Pauw to investigate the teachings of Dr. Walter Bundy, and to oust him from the faculty should their investigation prove what the conference alleges—that Dr. Bundy is a "dangerous teacher of religion."

The trustees will convene in annual meeting on June 7. Roy O. West of Chicago is president of the board.

The action of the ministers has created a greater furor among Indiana Methodists than any other issue in years. Students and professors at De Pauw almost without exception are standing behind Dr. Bundy. President Murlin is reported to be backing the professor, who received his theological training at Boston university at the time of Murlin's presidency there. Petitions have been circulated among students and a faculty committee has expressed confidence in the colleague under fire.

The issue promises to be a battle ground between Indiana Methodists of liberal trend and the conservative clergy in a fight that has been forecast for a decade.

Evangeline Booth Is Better After Her Serious Illness

As her condition is improving satisfactorily, Miss Evangeline Booth, who has been ill with an acute attack of appendicitis at the Pearson hotel, will probably be moved to her home in New York within the next four or five days, her secretary announced yesterday.

RADIO PROGRAMS FOR TODAY

(Friday, April 23.) (Standard Time Throughout.)

TONIGHT at 9:30 o'clock the beautiful strains of "The Phantom Violin" will be heard on W-G-N, THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE station on the Drake hotel. The previous performances of this mysterious master met with tremendous favor among listeners and tonight's recital will be of a caliber similar to the others.

Today's celebrity on W-G-N is Wallace Eddinger, one of the seven stars of "Close Quarters," now playing at the Blackstone theater. Mr. Eddinger will speak at 6:01 o'clock on his ideas concerning the outlook in the theater. This popular artist is well known to Chicagoans.

Two musical programs will be brought by wire from New York tonight and broadcast by W-G-N. The first will go on the air at 8 o'clock and the second at 9 o'clock.

Listeners everywhere welcomed Sam 'n' Henry back last night. Their humor is as refreshing as ever. They will present their nightly dialogue tonight at the usual time, 10 o'clock. During the Illinois Agricultural association period at 12:10 o'clock today J. D. Harper, John G. Brown, and A. D. Lynch will speak. At 12:30 o'clock a talk on "Landscape Gardening" will be given by J. A. Young.

NO MORE CONSTIPATION FOR HIM

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is 100% bran and 100% effective

Mr. Dunbar tried resorts and mineral springs in vain. Only Kellogg's ALL-BRAN relieved him. Read his testimonial:

"I suffered from indigestion and constipation and visited seashore and mineral springs, which only gave temporary relief. None gave permanent relief except Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. I consider your bran one of the greatest inventions of this age."
Yours sincerely,
L. D. DUNBAR, Spartanburg, S. C.

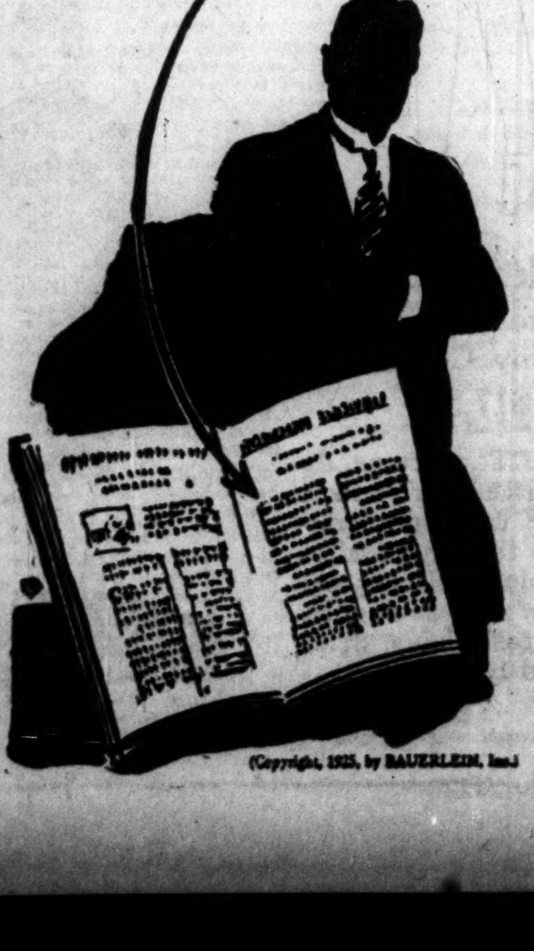
Constipation is the bane of health. Over forty diseases may be traced to it. It fills the system with vile poisons and saps strength. You can't afford to ignore its warning signals. Dizziness, bad breath, spots before the eyes, are just a few of the symptoms.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to relieve constipation or your grocer will refund the money. A delicious cereal, ready to serve. Fine with milk or fruit. Use in cooking, too.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is made by Kellogg in Battle Creek, Michigan, and sold by grocers everywhere. Served at leading hotels and restaurants.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Yes! BANANAS
The Body Builder
Most Valuable To Mankind



In "Health and Longevity Through Rational Diet" Dr. Arnold Lorand, world's famous physician says:

"There is probably no more nourishing fruit, or one whose cultivation would be more valuable for mankind, than the BANANA.

"In the fresh state the banana contains from 16 to 22 per cent of carbohydrates; even more than the potato.

"When they are quite yellow and already have a few black spots on the outside, they can be best digested; they are then softer and also sweeter.

"Bananas may be prepared in various ways. They can be fried and baked, and those not yet quite ripe are in this way rendered more digestible.

"Simply on account of its digestibility and great nutritive value the banana is a very healthy food."

CALL ACCOUNTANT TO TRACE MONEY PAID TO EXPERTS

Lyons' Checks to Coffin Put in Evidence.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

Ralph Gettys, expert accountant, who aided the special grand jury investigating municipal affairs in 1923, will go on the witness stand this morning in Judge Hugo M. Friend's court to tell from his analysis of bank accounts and other records what became of portions of the $1,738,079 which the real estate experts being sued by THE TRIBUNE, as taxpayer, received from the city.

Checks totaling $72,000, representing money which Ernest H. Lyons paid to Percy B. Coffin, were put in evidence last night by Attorney Weymouth Kirkland. The checks were produced by Attorney Albert Fink, representing Lyons. This payment is explained as Coffin's salary for taking care of Lyons' outside office work.

With the testimony of Mr. Gettys and that of real estate men who will tell what would have been a fair price for the appraisal work done by the three defendants, the case for the complainant will be about through. The defense is expected to take at least a month for presenting evidence.

Ryan Retires After Four Days.

John F. Ryan, special assessment clerk for the board of local improvements, left the stand yesterday after four sessions of cross-examination.

In redirect examination by Attorney Howard Ellis, the witness was asked to tell of a conversation with Lyons in the latter's office on April 6 last. He had been sent to Lyons by John J. Sloan, president of the board of local improvements, he said, to get back some documents relating to the South Water street improvement which belonged to the city.

"After I got through with him on the South Water street matter," said the witness, "Lyons said to me, 'You know I did a lot of work on that and you want to stick with me on that.'

"I says, 'I will stick to you as long as I can if I can tell the truth.'

Some Advice from Lyons.

"He then said to me:

"'You don't want to go with these fellows; they will only be there for another year (referring to the Democrats in the city hall); you want to come in with your old crowd'" (presumably referring to the Thompson organization).

In cross-examination Mr. Ryan, who has been with the board of local improvements many years, reiterated that, while Lyons gave him valuation figures along the lines of directly benefited property, the assessment upon the whole district was made by himself and clerks in his office.

Althought he is 72 years old, he stood up well under memory and figure tests prepared by the attorneys. He denied that he had been asked to testify that he did most of the work, or that his job had been threatened.

IMPEACHMENT OF JUDGE ENGLISH IN SENATE HANDS

Five Articles Read by House Spokesman.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—[Special.]—Managers for the house in the impeachment proceedings of Federal Judge George W. English of the Eastern district of Illinois, appeared formally in the senate this afternoon and asked that body to try him on various charges of misconduct. It was the first time since 1912, when Robert W. Archbald, as the justice of the Court of Commerce, was impeached, that similar proceedings had been conducted in the senate, and the tenth time in congressional history that impeachment proceedings have been invoked.

Opens Impeachment Case.

The spokesman for the house was Representative Earl C. Michener [Rep., Mich.] He read the fire articles of impeachment against Judge English, which were discussed in the debate of the case before the huose.

An order was entered at the request of Senator Cummins [Rep., Ia.], chairman of the judiciary committee, fixing tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock as the time for the same to resolve itself into a court of inquiry to determine when it would be ready to proceed.

Case Against Judge.

The articles against Judge English charge among other things that he was guilty of partiality and judicial misbehavior in improperly appointing as sole referee in bankruptcy for the eastern district of Illinois Charles B. Thomas, and that the two set up a bankruptcy ring. Instances of alleged favoritism in which it is charged the judeg participated are cited in the charges. It was claimed that he indulged in unlawful and corrupt conduct in handling bankruptcy funds. The use of profanity in the performance of his duties, improper disbarment of attorneys, and blocking the freedom of the press are also alleged against Judge English.

British City Scraps Its Street Cars; Adopts Busses

4 out of 5

are his statistics

YOUR own dentist will tell you that four people out of five past the age of forty are doomed, through carelessness, to contract pyorrhea, the dread disease of the gums that causes rheumatism, loss of teeth and general ill-health.

If you have pyorrhea see your dentist at once and follow his advice carefully.

Forhan's for the Gums is a scientific dentifrice, the formula of R. J. Forhan, D. D. S. It contains Forhan's Pyorrhea Liquid which has been used by dentists for the last 15 years in the treatment of pyorrhea.

If used in time Forhan's will prevent pyorrhea or, in co-operation with your dentist, will check its progress.

Brush your teeth with Forhan's night and morning. All druggists, 35c and 60c in tubes.

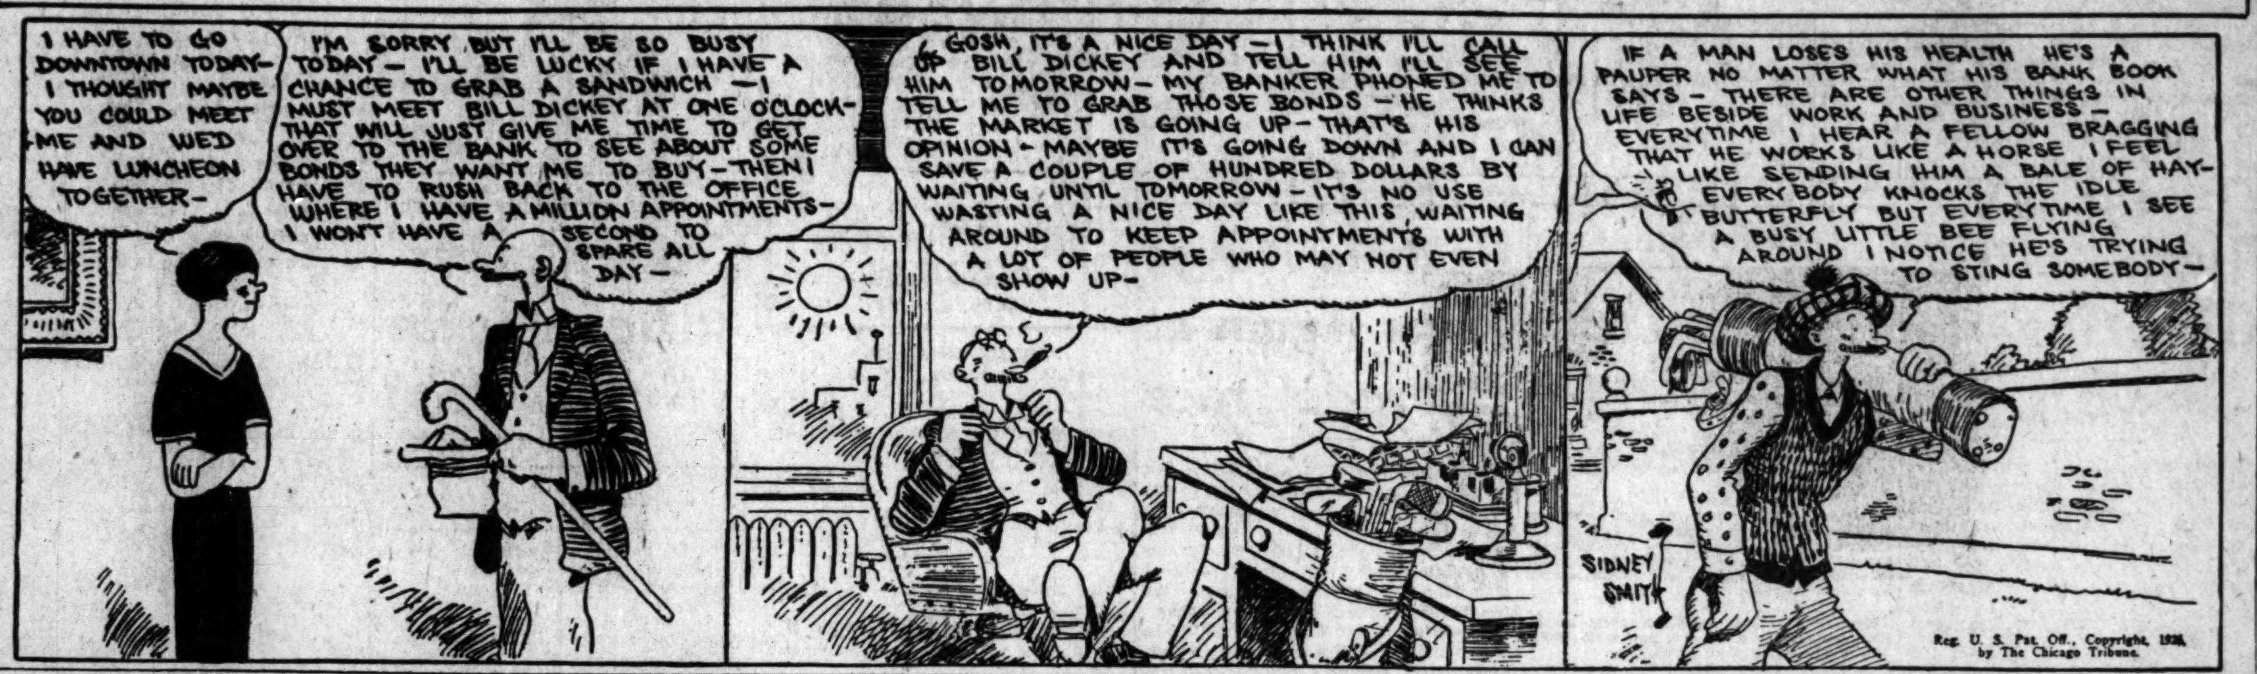
THE GUMPS—THE TIRED BUSINESS MAN



I HAVE TO GO DOWNTOWN TODAY— I THOUGHT MAYBE YOU COULD MEET ME AND WE'D HAVE LUNCHEON TOGETHER—
I'M SORRY BUT I'LL BE SO BUSY TODAY—I'LL BE LUCKY IF I HAVE A CHANCE TO GRAB A SANDWICH—I MUST MEET BILL DICKEY AT ONE O'CLOCK— THAT WILL JUST GIVE ME TIME TO GET OVER TO THE BANK TO SEE ABOUT SOME BONDS THEY WANT ME TO BUY—THEN I HAVE TO RUSH BACK TO THE OFFICE WHERE I HAVE A MILLION APPOINTMENTS— I WON'T HAVE A SECOND TO SPARE ALL DAY—
GOSH, IT'S A NICE DAY—I THINK I'LL CALL UP BILL DICKEY AND TELL HIM I'LL SEE HIM TOMORROW—MY BANKER PHONED ME TO TELL ME TO GRAB THOSE BONDS—HE THINKS THE MARKET IS GOING UP—THAT'S HIS OPINION—MAYBE IT'S GOING DOWN AND I CAN SAVE A COUPLE OF HUNDRED DOLLARS BY WAITING UNTIL TOMORROW—IT'S NO USE WASTING A NICE DAY LIKE THIS, WAITING AROUND TO KEEP APPOINTMENTS WITH A LOT OF PEOPLE WHO MAY NOT EVEN SHOW UP—
IF A MAN LOSES HIS HEALTH HE'S A PAUPER NO MATTER WHAT HIS BANK BOOK SAYS—THERE ARE OTHER THINGS IN LIFE BESIDE WORK AND BUSINESS— EVERYTIME I HEAR A FELLOW BRAGGING THAT HE WORKS LIKE A HORSE I FEEL LIKE SENDING HIM A BALE OF HAY— EVERYBODY KNOCKS THE IDLE BUTTERFLY BUT EVERYTIME I SEE A BUSY LITTLE BEE FLYING AROUND I NOTICE HE'S TRYING TO STING SOMEBODY—

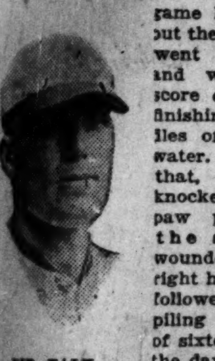
BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

St. Louis, Mo., April 22.—[Special.]—They made something of a farce out of the ball game here today, but the White Sox went through it and won by a score of 11 to 7, finishing in puddles of mud and water. Not only that, but they knocked a southpaw pitcher off the slab and wounded a lot of right handers who followed him in piling up a total of sixteen hits for the day.



BIB FALK.

Perhaps the game shouldn't have been started because of a muddy outfield and threatening weather which turned into a misty drizzle before two innings had been played. It finally was stopped in the last half of the eighth because the drizzle turned into a steady rain, with the Sox leading by one run. After fifteen minutes there was a let up and the game was ordered to go on, though by this time the infield was a mass of slippery mud.

Sox Like the Mud.

The game went on and instead of the Browns doing anything, the Sox went on a rampage in the ninth for a cluster of three runs, while the St. Louis outfielders and infielders skidded on their ears and eyebrows in attempts to stop the base hits. The Sox did their skidding with greater skill and cut down the Browns without a muddy run.

When the game began, Joe Giard, Brownie left hander, was on the rubber opposed by Ted Blankenship. Both were knocked cold in the sixth inning.

The Sox got off to a nifty start by scoring a run in the first on doubles by Harris and Sheely and another in the third on three walks and a single by Blankenship. But in the last of the third the Browns nicked Ted for three on three hits and a walk and then in the fourth acquired a two run lead when Hargrave poled a homer into the right stand.

Score Six in Sixth.

Four double plays had wrecked openings for the Sox to do big business in the early rounds, but in the sixth they broke up the ball game with a six run assault. Collins singled, but was forced by Sheely. Falk then hit a homer clear over the right stand. Kamm singled and Schalk popped out, but Scott was safe when his skipper slipped away from Melillo. Blankenship got an infield hit and then Mostil singled, scoring two mates and putting the Sox two to the good. Charley Robertson relieved Giard and immediately Harris tripled, scoring two more mates.

The Sox had a lead of four runs, but in the last of the same inning the Browns counted three, sending Ted to cover. Hargrave got another homer, Melillo singled, Rice tripled, and Lamotte doubled. Then Thurston rushed to the rescue and quelled the riot with the Sox still leading by a tally.

In that splashing ninth Harris doubled and Collins tripled, getting home when Jacobson's return throw hit Umpire Hildebrand in the h[illegible] and bounced away from everybod[illegible] Sheely singled, and so did Falk, the latter being a skiddy blow over first. Kamm forced Bib and McManus made a bad peg to first trying for a double play and Sheely came on home. That was plenty. The Browns were tame in their half.

TRACK RECORDS HANG BY THREAD AS RELAYS OPEN

Games at Drake and Penn Start Today.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

The Drake and Penn relays, two of the largest intercollegiate outdoor track and field events of the year, attracting star performers and teams from important colleges and universities, will be held today and tomorrow at Des Moines, Ia., and Philadelphia, respectively.

BUD HOUSER.

Athletes of national and international prominence, some of whom hold world's and American records, will compete in the individual events, while relay teams with established records this year will compete in events over distances ranging from a quarter mile to four miles.

Relay Teams Classified.

Relay teams have been classified. There will be the university division, different sections for colleges and the same for high schools and academies. It is not imperative for any team to go out of its class unless it desires to do so. Coaches of some college teams, which have made excellent records, have elected to place their teams in the university division so that more honor can be obtained by winning or placing.

The Drake relays, the oldest set of games of its kind in the middle west, has many features. Among these is the appearance of three University of Southern California athletes, who won the eastern intercollegiate last year, and who have already been made a favorite for the same honors this year. Chief among the Trojan performers is Capt. Bud Houser who won the shot put and discus throw in the 1924 Olympic games.

Kuck vs. Houser.

John Kuck of Emporia State Teachers' college of Kansas will compete in the shot put and javelin throw, and Roland Locke of Nebraska will be a starter in the 100 yard dash. Capt. Guthrie of Ohio State and Chick Werner of Illinois will renew their high hurdling feud and will clash with Ed Weir of Nebraska, the best high hurdler in the Missouri Valley conference.

The tempermental Charley Hoff of Norway, holder of the world's indoor and outdoor records in the pole vault, will give an exhibition of his skill without the help of moving picture cameras. It will be Hoff's second outdoor appearance and he will try to better his outdoor mark of 13 feet 11 13-16 inches.

The Kansas quarter mile relay team, which tied the National intercollegiate record of :42 at the Kansas games last Saturday will try to shatter this mark tomorrow. Nebraska, which hung up a new world's record of 1:26 3-5 for the half mile relay at the Jayhawker games a week ago, will endeavor to place this mark out of the reach of future college teams for years to come.

Penn Relays Attract Stars.

Kenneth L. Wilson, director of athletics at Northwestern, who previously held the same position at Drake, will be referee. Maj. John L. Griffith will be the starter and Ted Canty announcer.

Of equal importance to the Drake games is the Penn relays, which have attracted an excellent list of entries from the middle west. Following a long established custom, Big Ten coaches have divided their teams and will be represented in both relays.

Among the features of the Quaker event should be the one mile relay between Georgetown and Holy Cross, two of the best mile quartets in the country. Boston college has a strong two mile team and Harvard one of the best four mile quartets in the east. The usual number of individual events will be held and the games have attracted an entry of over 5,000 individual performers.

IN THE WAKE OF THE NEWS

POTPOURRI.

HOCKEY will have a place in Chicago's sport calendar. It is a fast, thrilling game which has attracted a wide following elsewhere. It carries the American appeal for action which gives financial success to every such sport in which well matched opponents compete.

Soon a committee from the National Hockey league will visit this city to determine which, if either, of two applicants shall be granted a franchise. Membership in this league is desirable because it would guarantee appearance here of the best performers of this country and Canada.

The Wake, however, does not believe an adverse report by this committee will prevent introduction of the ice sport—certainly not if either of the two projected indoor arenas is erected. If a franchise in the existing body is not obtained, another league is a probability.

Whether Jack Dempsey shall appear in defense of his title and against whom seems to have become a political question in New York state. That is not good for politics and it is not good for sport. They do not mix. It takes the oft quoted "intestinal fortitude" for sports to oppose politics, but the issue might as well be met at one time as another.

When Helen Wills gains four and one-quarter pounds, it becomes a matter of international concern. With most persons, gain in weight is a matter of internal concern—and abstinence.

Compensation.

How compensating Nature tries
To even up our ills.
When trouble strikes the food supply,
Our instant thought is pills.
If blindness be our weighty cross
To agitate us much,
Dame Nature balances the loss
Within our sense of touch.

When deafness robs us of the right
To neighbors' gossip hear,
We do not wage a losing fight—
We use the other ear.
When shortened leg's decreed by Fate,
Perhaps to make it stronger,
I always notice that its mate
Invariably is longer.

We suggest he write casualty business. Every coach would like a risk policy on his stars. In fact, we think Tim could sell some to Coach Thistlethwaite, who is due for severe sorrow if a certain young man of athletic talent does not do some accurate forward passing in the classrooms.

JACKSON PARK OPENS FOR GOLF PLAY TOMORROW

Hundreds Await Chance to Tramp Course.

BY MORROW KRUM.

The Jackson park eighteen hole golf course will open tomorrow morning with the famous "bag line" system. The golfer at the head of the line will be the first off the tee and so on. It will be necessary to arise long before daylight to be in the first foursome of the season.

After tomorrow the registration method will be used. A foursome departs from the first tee every five minutes. One foursome will be made of players who have registered a week in advance. The next quartet will be made up of players who have registered that day. And the foursomes will alternate all day. Tomorrow morning you may register for May 1.

1,100 Golfers a Day.

Jackson park's eighteen hole course is Chicago's most popular course. No other golf course gets the play that Jackson park boasts. On summer days as many as 1,100 players go over the course. Most every day will see more than 750 golfers playing there.

Last summer many of the golfers arrived as early as 3 o'clock in the morning. One man registered for play at 7 o'clock, checked his clubs, walked to the elevated, and rode downtown. He spent the morning at his desk and returned to the park about 3 o'clock, just in time to tee off.

The course is not long or difficult. It measures 5,572 yards and par is 80. Most all of the holes are easy pars for the crack golfer, as can be seen from the par and the yardage. The price of one round at Jackson park is 20 cents.

Marquette Opens May 1.

The new Marquette park public course will open one week from tomorrow, George Donoghue, superintendent of playgrounds of the south park board, announced yesterday. Mr. Donoghue said yesterday that the course will be one of the most picturesque and difficult public park golf courses in America.

The west park golf season will open April 28. Columbus and Garfield parks will both open their nine hole courses on that day. Columbus park measures 2,602 yards and Garfield has 2,009 yards. The Lincoln park course will not open until the middle of May.

PAULEN SAILS HOME; TO TOUR THE U. S. IN JULY

New York, April 22.—(AP)—Adrian Paulen of Holland, middle distance track star, has sailed for home with the promise that he will be back in America for the national championships at Philadelphia in July.

Before leaving yesterday he said that he desired another opportunity to show Americans that he is a much better runner than figures showed in his indoor appearance here this winter.

Miller Out of Baseball Indefinitely After Injuries

Cleveland, O., April 22.—(AP)—Injuries received at Chicago Tuesday, when he was struck by a batted ball, will keep Walter Miller, sensational left-handed pitcher of the Cleveland Indians, out of the game indefinitely. This was anounced today when an X-ray revealed that he suffered a broken foot.

Sencio's Fiancee Denies Reports Boxer Was Married

Los Angeles, Cal., April 22.—[Special.]—Among mourners over the death of Clever Sencio, Filipino boxer, none grieved more here than 16 year old Virginia Cabanas, who said she would have married the boxer in two more years. The Filipino girl, her family, and several racial compatriots, told how Sencio, whose real name was Ausencio Moldez, celebrated his eighteenth birthday anniversary here Dec. 28 at the home of Virginia's father, B. Y. Cabanas.

"He never was married in the Philippines," Miss Cabanas said. "Why will they print such things as that he had a wife and a baby? Every one thought he was 21, because that was the age he had to give when he came to this country. He really was only 17 when he arrived here last September. The life of a professional boxer was too hard on him. He refused to eat Filipino dishes we prepared for him. He would leave here every night at 9 o'clock because he said he had to keep in training."

HARDWICK DENIES RICKARD BACKS HIM IN HOCKEY

Says Chicago Interests Are Only Bidders.

Huntington R. (Tack) Hardwick, bidder for a Chicago franchise in the National Hockey league, took occasion yesterday on his first visit to Chicago since the league's meeting to deny emphatically that he was bidding for Tex Rickard or the Madison Square Garden interests.

Backed by Chicagoans.

"My application was solely on behalf of a strong and representative group of Chicagoans," said Hardwick. "I'm sorry I can't explain our plans now, but if we get the Chicago franchise the Madison Square Garden people will have no interest in it."

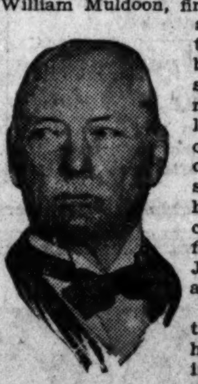
Hardwick probably will meet the committee appointed by the National Hockey league to investigate the standing of the franchise applicants here today. He is reported to have the first call on the ice in the "Rickard" arena in Chicago on a when and if built basis.

Not Rickard's "Pawn."

Hardwick made his statement after P. T. Harmon, rival applicant for the Chicago hockey franchise, had charged in New York yesterday that Rickard was attempting to conduct syndicate hockey by getting a second New York franchise and clubs in other cities by putting up dummy applicants. Harmon hinted Hardwick was one of Rickard's pawns, it was said.

Muldoon for Tunney Bout; Against Wills

New York, April 22.—[Special.]—William Muldoon, first chairman and senior member of the New York boxing commission threatened to resign today unless his fellow commissioners change their stand against a heavyweight championship fight between Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney.



WILLIAM MULDOON

Muldoon said the commission has placed itself in a "ridiculous position" and under no circumstances would he vote approval for a bout between Jack Dempsey and Harry Wills.

He said he had a personal and professional preferance for Tunney as the challenger and he would not become a party to threats Tex Rickard would be driven out of boxing if he matched Dempsey and Tunney at any place.

Brower on Fence.

With Chairman James A. Farley opposed to a Jack Dempsey-Gene Tunney world's heavyweight championship fight and Muldoon openly for it and against Harry Wills, the decision of whether the commission will sanction a Dempsey-Tunney fight will rest with George E. Brower, third member. Commissioner Brower today revealed for the first time that he was of an open mind.

"I am not opposed to either a Dempsey-Wills bout or a match between Dempsey and Tunney," he said. "So long as I see there is a chance for staging a Dempsey-Wills match I certainly will support it.

Wants Title Match.

"However, should it become clear that a Dempsey-Wills fight in this state cannot be arranged, I certainly would consider it time to view the matter in another light. What my vote on a Dempsey-Tunney bout would be in that event I cannot say, but at present I can see no objection to such a match. I certainly feel it would be better to have at least one championship fight than no fight at all."

Dempsey Denies Weisberg.

Fort Worth, Tex., April 22.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight boxing champion, left here today for Hendersonville, N. C., to go into training. Reports from South Bend that he still is bound by a contract with a syndicate of that place to fight Harry Wills in some city other than New York were denied by Dempsey. He said the syndicate had failed to perform its part of the contract.

Dolly Gray, Once a Maroon Star, Dies in Denver Hospital

Denver, Colo., April 22.—(AP)—Laureston W. [Dolly] Gray, one of Alonzo Stagg's athletic stars at the University of Chicago more than a decade ago, died at Fitzsimmons hospital here today. Death resulted from tuberculosis. He was 33 years old.

Gray was an all-Conference backfield choice in 1913 and 1914, and in the latter year was an all-American selection. He captained the Chicago baseball nine that toured the orient in 1914. He came to Denver in 1922 suffering from the disease, which followed his service in the army during the world war as a lieutenant with the 335th infantry at Fort Sheridan, Ill.

The body will be sent to Whitewater, Wis., Friday.

REFEREE STOPS SCHAEFFER BOUT

Boston, Mass., April 22.—[Special.]—Herbie Schaeffer of Chicago proved a fizzle here tonight in his bout with Red Chapman. Referee Jack Sheehan stopped the bout in the fourth round after Chapman had Schaeffer almost out and had opened a big cut over Schaeffer's left eye.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

Maurice (Red) Shannon, late of Louisville, broke into his first national league box score with a large bang yesterday. Called on for a turn at pinch hitting in the ninth when it looked as if the Cubs were in for a beating at the hands of the Reds, he came through with a robust double that sent the tying run clattering over the plate.

MAURICE SHANNON.

Then the two gangs struggled for a couple more innings, each with the hope of getting the deciding tally across, but it couldn't be done so Ump Pfirman called off the show at the end of the eleventh because of low visibility. The score at the time was 5 to 5 and the argument will be resumed when the Hendricks athletes come this way again in June.

By June at least some of the hurlers who participated in this affair may be able to conduct themselves in more impressive fashion.

Shannon's Hit Real Feature.

Shannon's magnificent smack really was about the only thing worth while. He stepped up with one gone in the ninth to swing for Joe Bush, who had hurled two perfect rounds after relieving Tony Kaufmann. Scott was on first at the time, having been put there to run for Hartnett, who had walked. Shannon promptly drove the ball to far left for two bases and the speedy Scott raced all the way to the plate. That left a big chance to get another run, but neither Adams nor Heathcote could propel Shannon homeward.

Things might have been vastly different if the Cubs hadn't concentrated all their bum fielding in one inning. That was the third when three runs scored on a double by Pinelli, a fielder's choice that didn't get anybody, a pass, a fumble by Adams, and a wild throw to the plate by Wilson. Only for this Kaufmann, who wasn't hit very hard despite the fact he was unsteady, might have gone through the full nine rounds and earned an easy verdict.

Reds Use Three Pitchers.

The services of three Red hurlers were required, the first of the trio being Adolfo Luque, the Cuban. Luque gave up a couple of passes and a wild pitch in the second frame and the Cubs gained a run as a result. Then Kaufmann smashed him for a single and Heathcote for a triple in the third. That brought another tally. Another pass followed by Freigau's single and an infield out let another Bruin sneak home in the sixth. The Reds also scored in this frame on a triple by Critz so the north siders were still in arrears by 5 to 3.

In the eighth Freigau crowded a double into the open spaces of left field. Picinich endeavored to pick him off the keystone corner, but the peg was so wild that Freigau raced all the way home. The twobagger evidently convinced the good señor he was not fit to remain, so he departed and Donohue took charge in the ninth to have the tying run go over at his expense. He also had considerable trouble in the next two frames, and with two on and one out in the eleventh, was yanked. Jake May took the helm and blasted the Cubs' hopes by inducing Shannon to ground into a double play.

VIC KEEN

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 22.—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Nationals hoisted their world's championship pennant this afternoon and then proceeded to lose the opening home game to St. Louis, 5 to 3, in ten innings. Chick Hafey scuttled the Pirate brig with a home run, scoring Hornsby ahead of him. Keen held the Pirates in check all the way. Ragged fielding gave the home team three runs in the second inning.

Pie Traynor, Pirate third baseman, was added to the club's crippled list when in the third inning he was spiked by Chick Hafey and the nail of the great toe on the left foot was nearly torn off. Hal Rhyne finished the game, but tonight Traynor insisted he would be in the game tomorrow.

A crowd of 35,000 witnessed the battle. Score:

YELLOW TRUCKS WIN PIN TITLE

Chicago championship honors in the National Metal Trades Bowling league have been awarded to the northwest division team of the Yellow Truck and Coach Manufacturing company. The winners were guests of honor following the first annual intercompany pin carnival, in which fives from plants at Pontiac, Mich.; East Moline, Ill., and Chicago participated. Prizes were furnished by officers of the company. The carnival will become a yearly fixture.

Forester Basket Teams Play Final Games Tonight

Three games are scheduled tonight in the final round of the Catholic Order of Foresters Basketball league. The schedule: De Soto vs. Western Reserve, Columbia vs. St. Cecelia, St. Monica vs. Englewood.

St. Monica holds the lead and in Englewood will meet some stiff opposition.

Cub Notes

THE Reds will appear at the north side lot for antother session this afternoon. Carl Mays probably will try his famed underhand fling on the McCarthy batters and Jones or Piercy is liable to get the home assignment.

The Cubs finished with their batting order inside out. Blake had to bat sixth and Shannon ninth.

Hartnett did his best to start something in the seventh. He opened with a double against Luque. Joe Kelly was ordered up to bat for Kaufmann but produced only a fly to center. Then Adams and Heathcote fell on infield rollers.

Rain in the loop and other parts of the community kept a lot of customers away. Only about 6,000 were present.

Kaufmann's wide heave that landed on Bressler in the first inning forced the veteran Rube to leave the game. The pill hit him on the hand. Christensen took his place.

Blake started to pitch in the tenth and the first man greeted him with a single. The next fellow sacrificed. Blake then personally tossed out Walker and gave a pass to Critz, but Picinich flied to Heathcote to complete the inning.

The fact that Picinich was on the job prevented the Cubs from getting a fine scoring opening in the tenth. Munson led off with a single and Wilson flied to right, after failing in two attempts to bunt. Freigau forced Munson and Bohne threw wild to first in trying for a double play. Freigau kept on going toward second, but Picinich, who had backed up the play, picked up the ball and heaved it to Bohne for an out.

Sox Notes

St. Louis, Mo., April 22.—[Special.]—Rain through much of the night and early morning didn't prevent the ball game because the diamond was covered, but it stopped an important golf match among scribes in the morning.

Boss Collins is thinking of another shift in the batting order as soon as Whispering Bill Barrett's patella is fully healed. Bib Falk may move up to third position, with Boss Eddie hitting second, then Sheely and Whispering Bill following. That is supposed to ruin southpaws and stop double plays or something.

Only about 1,500 fans attended the game today because of the threatening weather. There was much mist in the first part of the game.

It is quite evident Ted Blankenship is not yet in condition, though his arm seems fit and he has plenty of speed. It's hardly possible though for fellows to sock drives to the walls when the ball has a hop on it. So apparently the hop is lacking. Ted Lyons is slated to do the slabbing for the Sox tomorrow and probably will be opposed by Milton Gaston. Mr. Gaston is a right hander so there's a chance.

A number of Sox players attended the cauliflower show tonight to see Renault and Montgomery cuff each other in the face.

Freberg and Martinson Top Theater Mat Card

John Freberg and Paul Martinson will meet in the main event of the wrestling show at the Star and Garter tonight. It will be a finish match, best two of three falls. Whladek Zbyszko and Jack Sherry will clash in one of the preliminaries.

Belle Plaines Open Season on Sunday with Joliet

The Belle Plaines will open their baseball season when they meet the Joliet nine Sunday afternoon at Welles park.

Beatrice Noyes Wins Again at Havre de Grace

Havre de Grace, Md., April 22.—(AP)—P. H. Faulconer's Beatrice Noyes annexed her second set of winning brackets here when she easily bested the field which paraded to the post for the Admiration purse, the feature of this afternoon's program of racing. As the horses crossed the finish, Jockey Chalmer's had the filly two lengths in front of H. P. Whitney's Scat, which nosed R. W. Carter's Dexter out of the place.

From a good start Beatrice Noyes was the first to take command and opened up a good lead and was never menaced.

WEST PARK SKATE TOURNEY DRAWS 272 ENTRANTS

Two hundred and seventy-two boys and girls have entered the annual west park interpark roller skating tournament, which will be held tomorrow in Humboldt park, on Sacramento boulevard just north of Chicago avenue. The first race will start at 2 p. m. In the race for girls under 15 years of age 91 entries have been received, 123 boys under 15 years of age will compete in their class, while the event for boys under 18 has drawn 58.

Marjorie Barrett of Douglas park, holder of the 100 yard record and winner of the backward race last year, will be one of the favorites in the girls' races. Douglas park captured last year's team championship with Pulaski and Franklin parks runners up.

Crane Tech High school's baseball team rallied in the last inning and scored two runs to beat Austin, 4 to 3, yesterday in a west section City league game at Cermak park. It was the west siders' second straight victory, which gives them the sectional lead.

By tallying runs in the first, second, and fourth innings, Austin got off to a comfortable lead, while Weitzman was holding Crane in check. Held scoreless for five innings, the winners staged an uprising in the sixth inning, scoring a pair of runs. Then, again in the seventh frame, they put across two more counters that brought victory. AUTO DEATH RATE CLIMBS 5 A DAY DURING MARCH

But Toll Is Less than a Year Ago.

BY J. L. JENKINS.

Uncle Sam's automobile death rate climbed five a day last month over the toll for February, but the list was reduced 14 from March, 1925, according to official traffic reports issued yesterday by the National Safety council. Thus far, the statement adds, the total number of accident victims in the first three months of 1926 is 583 less than for the same period a year ago.

Accident reports were received by the council from twenty-three cities of under 100,000 population where there were no motor vehicle deaths recorded for March. Thirteen of these cities have clear traffic record for the first three months of the year.

Fewer pedestrian deaths were reported last month, although the lists include a higher percentage of child traffic victims. Among the larger cities where no traffic casualties were recorded are: Fort Wayne, Ind.; Cambridge, Mass.; Duluth, Minn.; Erie, Pa.; Fall River, Mass.; Grand Rapids, Mich.; Lowell, Mass.; Lynn, Mass.; New Bedford, Mass.; Providence, R. I.; Springfield, Mass.; and Worcester, Mass.

The fact that more people met death in their own homes than on public streets last month is emphasized by the council. In March 70 such casualties were recorded, as compared to 42 automobile deaths. Twenty-five per cent of the home victims were killed by scalds and burns.

Pinelli, Red Infielder, Sits on Bench with Borrelli

Ralph (Babe) Pinelli, third baseman for the Cincinnati Reds, who has a baseball player's antipathy for benches, forgot his pet aversion yesterday long enough to share the one in the Chicago avenue court occupied by his friend and compatriot, Judge Francis Borrelli.

After watching the judge in action all morning Pinelli congratulated him on his ability to "hit the ball." As a youth the judge was a pitcher for the University of Michigan.

H. Jones Named Manager of Ontwensia Country Club

Harry Jones was appointed general manager of the Ontwentsia club yesterday. Jones' first employment with the club was 14 years ago as a bellhop, then as caddy master, and later as assistant manager. He succeeds Earl G. Lee, who resigned to accept a similar position with the new Medinah Country club.

TWENTY TEAMS IN COMMERCIAL BALL LEAGUE

Twenty teams joined the Chicago Commercial Baseball league last night at a meeting at 37 South Wabash avenue. Two more teams are needed to complete the circuit. Managers of industrial teams who have not entered a league are urged to communicate with Secretary Al Krick at Randolph 7130. The following teams have entered:

First National bank, Continental and Commercial bank, Illinois Merchants' bank, Standard Trust, H. M. Byllesby company, State Bank of Chicago, Chicago Title and Trust company, Royal Blue store, Krenn & Dato, Illinois Central railroad, Du Page Trust company, Automatic Electric, Florsheim Shoe company, Lehon company, Levy Shoe company, Cuneo Press, S. S. Durand, Commercial Credit and Trust company, Quaker Oats company, Hess Warming and Ventilating company.

The teams decided to open the season May 8.

Fly Casters to Hold First Meet of Season Sunday

U. of Indiana Nine Beats Indiana Dentists, 10 to 1

Bloomington, Ind., April 22.—[Special.]—Indiana defeated the Indiana Dental college team of Indianapolis, 10 to 1, today. After the visitors had taken their bat in the seventh the game was called on account of rain.

When tobaccos are good enough to speak for themselves

—let them say it!

THAT'S the one way to give men what they want in a cigarette—natural tobacco taste. Each type of tobacco should contribute—one its spicy tang, one its rich aroma, one its mellow "body," one its mild sweetness; and if the quality is right and the blend is right, that's all there is to it.

Sounds easy!

But to create a blend that combines fullness with mildness; that removes heaviness while retaining "character"; that makes a cigarette that is smooth and mild yet "satisfying"—to do all this is not easy, far from it.

It is so difficult, in fact, that millions of smokers sincerely believe it has been achieved in only one blend in the world.

This blend—and they swear by it—belongs to Chesterfield. It embodies the finest of Turkish and American tobaccos—and it can't be copied.

BOXER LANDS TWO K. O.'S IN NIGHT TO WIN A. A. U. TITLE

Little Fellows Stage Great Battles.

George Kerwin, a rugged, two fisted battler from the Mark's Queensberry A. C., last night won the featherweight championship of the Central A. A. U. boxing tournament by knocking out Speedy Dean, Irwin gymnasium Negro, in the second round of their bout at Dexter Park pavilion. Kerwin's sharp punching and ring generalship featured the final round of the C. A. A. U. meet, preliminaries of which were held Tuesday and Wednesday.

Kerwin reached the championship round by stopping Bobby O'Brien of the Garfield Park A. A. in the first round of a semi-final bout held earlier in the evening.

There was no team champion determined because of protests made against several boxers. The registration committee of the C. A. A. U. will consider the protests and announce the team winner in a few days.

Dublinski Fly Champ.

Crowding Kerwin for individual honors was Harry Dublinski, 112 pound game cock of the Edmille Health club who won the decision over Earl Mastro, a Spanish lad of 15 years, in the flyweight final. It was a furious bout. Mastro had a shade in the first two rounds, but Dublinski, who earlier in the evening had eliminated Henry Cullen of the Southtown A. A. from the semi-finals, finished strong and evened the count in the third. Blazing away like a bandit at bay, Dublinski outpointed his opponent in the extra round to win the verdict.

Walter Cappell of the Wisconsin A. C., Milwaukee, defeated Bill Maddox of Mullen's gym to win the heavyweight championship. Both boys were slow afoot and missed repeatedly. Frequent clinches marred the bout.

Close Battle by Middles.

George Beaucamp, a colored boxer from the Southtown A. A., beat Steve Pavilicek of the same club in the 160 pound title scrap. Pavilicek started strong and partly closed the Negro's eye with a hard right cross in the first round. The judges disagreed as to the winner, but Referee Johnny Coulon cast the deciding vote for Beaucamp.

Sylvester Mueller of the Wisconsin A. C. Milwaukee, got a big lead on Baldy Youngberg of Mandell's gym, Rockford, in the 135 pound final and the Rockford battler's whirlwind finish wasn't adequate to offset his opponent's earlier advantage. Charles Genero of Coulon's Physical Training club outpointed Cozy Dolan in a fast 118 pound contest. An extra round was necessary to decide the champion.

J. Smith of the Southtown A. A. knocked out Ed Dixon of the Mark's Queensberry A. C. in the first round of their 147 pound mill. Clark Ford of Irwin's gym won by default from Pete Vachion of the 24th Field Artillery when the latter appeared with a broken thumb. Summaries:

147 POUND—J. Smith [Southtown A. A.] knocked out Ed Dixon [Mark's Queensberry A. C.], 2.

118 POUND—Charles Genero [Caulon's Physical Training club] beat Cozy Dolan [South Chicago gym], 4.

135 POUND—Sylvester Mueller [Wisconsin A. C. of Milwaukee] beat Baldy Youngberg [Mandell's gym of Rockford], 3.

160 POUND—George Beaucamp [Southtown A. A.] beat Steve Ravilicek [Southtown A. A.], 3.

175 POUND—Clark Ford [Irwin's gym] beat Pete Vachlon [24th F. A.], by forfeit.

HEAVYWEIGHT—Walter Cappell [Wisconsin A. C. of Milwaukee], beat Bill Maddox [Mullen's gym], 4.

112 POUND—Harry Dublinski [Edmille Health club] beat Earl Mastro [Mullen's gym], 4.

126 POUND — George Kerwin [Mark's Queensberry A. C.] knocked out Speedy Dean [Irwin's gym], 2.

The championship bouts drew a crowd of 4,000.

Taylor Signs for Fight with Ryan May 14

Bud Taylor, the Terre Haute, Ind., bantamweight, yesterday was matched to meet Tommy Ryan of McKeesport, Pa., at Louisville, Ky., May 14, the night before the Kentucky Derby. It may be Taylor's first bout since the unfortunate contest with Clever Sencio at Milwaukee Monday night. Bud and Manager Eddie Long have not yet decided whether they will go through with the contest with Harold Smith one week from tonight. This will be settled definitely today when Taylor will be in Chicago to confer with Manager Long and Promoter Jim Mullen.

Manager Long will leave for New York tomorrow in an effort to close a match with Phil Rosenberg for the world's bantamweight championship. It is understood Long is in a position to guarantee the champion $45,000 for his end and will not take a cent for Taylor's end unless the receipts run over this amount. Long will make an effort to stage the bout in Chicago under the direction of Jim Mullen.

Ray Alvis will take his stable of fighters to the coast today. Eddie Shea, the west side Italian featherweight, has been matched to meet Johnny Farr before the Olympic club of Los Angeles, May 12. Chuck Wiggins, the Indianapolis heavyweight, will trade punches with George Godfrey before the same club on May 28. Sidney Glick, the Indianapolis lightweight, will also be in the party.

Tex Rickard, the eastern promoter who signed Jack Dempsey to meet either Gene Tunney or Harry Wills in the east, Sept. 16, will be in Chicago tomorrow. Tex is due to arrive in the morning from Fort Worth, Tex., where he obtained the signature of Dempsey. Rickard is expected to name the site of his Chicago arena while here.

Promoter Jim Mullen and Senator Edward J. Hughes leave tomorrow for New York to attend the annual banquet of the New York Boxing Writers' association Sunday night. While in the east the Chicagoans expect to gather information which may be helpful to the framers of rules to govern boxing in Illinois.

Trout Stream in Sugar Bush Hits Bob's Sweet Tooth

BY BOB BECKER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Langlade County, Wis., April 22.—[Special.]—It must be the height of something to own a sugar bush containing 700 or 800 maple trees, with a trout stream and pond at the edge of it. Today we visited a corner of this country with that combination and it formed an outdoor picture that doesn't help any one with a spring fever.

The maples, mixed with fragrant cedars, were scattered over a low hill, at the bottom of which a brook trout stream scampered along. The owner of the land, trees, and water said that in years when spring came late he could stand on the hill, tap trees with one hand and with the other fish for trout in the brook below. Under such conditions we would be willing to take on a sugar bush of any size or description.

As soon as you step out of a maple sugar grove where the boys are hauling buckets of sap, stoking the fires of the evaporating plants, and canning the smooth, delicious syrup, the topic of the hour is trout fishing. This county has something like 700 miles of trout streams, as well as scores of trout pools and ponds, according to Mayor T. J. Reinert of Antigo, so it is not surprising the fly rod army up here gets het up as May first draws near. If all the boys with whom we have talked about opening day go fishing the morning of the first of May, they'll have to close up the town and declare a holiday, as "the butcher, the baker, and the candlestick maker" as well as the mayor have signed up for the opening day festivities.

Central A.A.U. Indoor Track Meet Tonight

Teams representing the I. A. C. and C. A. A. are expected to engage in a close struggle for honors in the Central A. A. U. indoor track and field championships at the Broadway armory tonight, starting at 7:45. The shotput will be decided this afternoon at 5 o'clock at C. A. A.

Because of bringing the national indoor championships to Chicago, the central association games had to be postponed until tonight. This meet usually has been held in March, but the entry list is large enough to warrant some keen competition tonight.

The I. A. C. holds the National indoor championship and is also holder of the central indoor title. Johnny Behr, the tri-color club coach, has mustered a powerful team. Coach Darwent of the C. A. A. has some sterling performers who should score in the majority of the events.

Harold Osborn of the I. A. C., who will meet Charley Hoff of Norway in the decathlon this summer to determine the greatest all around athlete in the world, will compete in all the jumps and may take part in the high hurdles. Laddie Meyers, who finished second to Hoff in the pole vault at the Chicago bankers' meet, will compete in his specialty.

Freshman athletes of the University of Chicago and Northwestern university will be among the unattached contestants, and a sprinkling of entries have been received from the smaller clubs in Cook county. The meet will be held under the joint auspices of the 202d coast artillery, I. A. C. and C. A. A.

Track Coaches to Organize at Drake Relays

Iowa City, Ia., April 22.—(AP)—Track coaches of national prominence, attending the Drake relay carnival at Des Moines tomorrow and Saturday will organize an association for the primary purpose of exchanging opinions and ideas and interpreting the rules, Coach George T. Bresnahan of the University of Iowa, one of the backers of the movement, said today.

Coach Bresnahan says the association may promote track and field athletics among youths of grammar and high schools. It will be designed to be a clearing house for problems of track coaches the country over.

Yanks to Give 4 Players in Payment for McQuaid

St. Paul, Minn., April 22.—(AP)—Pitcher Herb McQuaid will remain with the New York Americans, whose management tonight promised to send four players in payment for him to the St. Paul club of the American association. Johnson, New York pitcher, is on his way to St. Paul and an unnamed outfielder and two other players will be sent later.

694 Men's All-Wool Suits
ALL MUST BE SOLD
Formerly Sold at $35.00 $40.00, $45.00

We are wholesale tailors established right here in Chicago since 1895. We own and operate our up-to-date shops in this big 8-story building, serving 15,000 dealers from Maine to California.

We manufacture annually 100,000 men's All Wool Suits, and in the course of the season 2½% of our shipments (about 2,000 to 2,500 suits) are undelivered and left on our hands. These are new spring suits that are uncalled-for by customers, or canceled before shipping, and we must find an outlet for this merchandise. We formerly sold these uncalled-for suits in big lots to jobbers who in turn added their profit before turning them over to the retail merchant and the retailer added his profit before these suits finally reached the wearer. We now offer these suits direct to the public—right from this big wholesale plant—at prices that mean tremendous savings to you. At $16.00 we offer you a choice of several hundred suits that were tailored to sell at $35.00, $40.00, and $45.00. A visit to our plant will prove to you what great savings you can make. You can buy two suits here for less than you usually pay for one. The public is invited to inspect these garments. No obligation on your part when you come into our store. No professional salesmen to bother you. Our employes will give you courteous service. Come early. Get first choice.

SHEEP — Fed western lambs yesterday	14.00@15.75

Another sharp upturn in hog values yesterday carried general average price to $12.60, against $12.35 Wednesday, $12.20 the previous Thursday, and $12.10 a year ago. Shippers were best buyers, taking 9,000 of the 21,000 received. Armour, Swift, and Wilson had in 3,000 from outside markets, being practically out of the local trade. Small packers and speculators purchased freely and few of the 5,000 carried over were in first hands. Small lots averaging 140@150 lbs sold at $14.15@14.25, with $14.10 practical top for carload lots. Some 200 lb butchers sold at $13.65. Closing trade was mostly 25c higher with some late shipping orders unfilled.

Favorably influenced by expanded shipping demand, resulting from further improvements in dressed meat markets, declines in cattle prices were checked, despite the fact that receipts overran advanced estimates by several thousand and were 2,000 greater than the previous Thursday. Receipts this week are running second largest since last January and 10,000 ahead of last week. Demand for cheaper grades of steers was better and range of prices narrowed, with bulk of sales more contracted. Top 793 lb mixed yearling steers and heifers reached $10.50, with nine 1,067 lb cattle at $10.25 the next highest price and 1,500 lb steers at $10.20, top for heavy. A good showing of fair quality steers ranged down to $9.90, with some plain 1,000 lb averages as low as $7.75. Butcher stock sold steady to 25c lower, a few baby beef heifers bringing $10.000, similar to the $10.25 kinds earlier in the week. Bulls advanced 15c. Calves sold steady. Stockers and feeders held firm in good demand.

Shorn Lambs Bring $14.25.

Prime 85 lb fed western shorn lambs to city butchers at $14.25 yesterday, equaled the year's peak, being $2.25 above the low time last week. Woolskins reached $15.75, against a top of $14.00 a week earlier and $13.50 two weeks ago. After a strong to 25c higher opening on shipping account, packers balked and a shade of the early gain was erased, most transactions being 10@15c above the low time Wednesday. Salesmen held on for more money on the strength of dwindling supplies, resulting in practically a dead lock in midsession. Sheep receipts this week promise to total less than 60,000, smallest since last July, barring two holiday periods.

Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 3,000 cattle, 15,000 hogs and 8,000 sheep, against 2,007 cattle, 21,578 hogs and 15,054 sheep, the corresponding Friday a year ago.

COTTON PRICES LOWER

Cotton prices were on the down grade and closed within a few points of the inside with net losses of 16 to 19 points in Chicago and 16 to 23 points in other markets. Spots in New York dropped 15 points and closed at 18.90c. Liverpool was strong and closed 6 to 7 points higher.

Rains in Texas and Oklahoma and at a few points in the eastern belt, while inducing shorts to cover, failed to have any effect as a strengthening factor, as hedge and speculative selling dominated. Temperatures remain below normal over most of the belt while in the southwest they were above the seasonal average.

Certified stocks at Houston-Galveston on April 19 were 30,869 bales; New Orleans on April 20, 22,367 bales, and in New York, April 19, 18,852 bales. Fall River reported larger inquiries for print cloths. Prices follow:

$20,000,000

Government of the Argentine Nation

EXTERNAL SINKING FUND 6% GOLD BONDS
ISSUE OF MAY 1, 1926

Dated May 1, 1926 — Due May 1, 1960

Interest Payable May 1 and November 1.

Redeemable through the operation of a cumulative Sinking Fund of 1% per annum, calculated to be sufficient to retire the Bonds of this Issue at par not later than May 1, 1960.

Coupon Bonds in Denominations of $1,000 and $500. Registerable as to Principal Only.

Principal and interest payable in United States Gold Coin of the present standard of weight and fineness, in New York City at the office either of J. P. Morgan & Co. or the National City Bank of New York, Fiscal Agents for the Bonds of the Issue of May 1, 1926, without deduction for any Argentine taxes, present or future.

The following statement (in which all figures originally stated in Argentine currency have been converted into United States dollars at par of exchange for the Gold peso or paper peso, as the case may be) has been authorised by Doctor Honorio Pueyrredon, Ambassador of the Government of the Argentine Nation at Washington, D. C.:

OBLIGATION. These Bonds are to be direct external obligations of the Argentine government. The Government will covenant that if, while any of these Bonds remain outstanding, it shall create or issue or guarantee in accordance with the Argentine Constitution, any loan or bonds secured by lien on any of its revenues or assets, the bonds of this issue shall be secured equally and ratably with such other loan or bonds or such guaranty.

PURPOSE. The proceeds of the issue will be used primarily to repay floating debt of the Argentine government as provided for by Laws 11222 and 11266, which govern this issue.

SINKING FUND. The Government will convenant to pay to the Fiscal Agents as a Sinking Fund, beginning November 1, 1926, and thereafter semi-annually on May 1 and November 1, in each year, an amount equal to one-half of 1% of the greatest principal amount of bonds of the Issue of May 1, 1926, at any time theretofore outstanding, plus an amount equal to the accrued and unpaid interest on all bonds previously acquired through the operation of the sinking fund. Such Sinking Fund payments (which may be increased by the Executive Power if considered advisable) are to be applied to the purchase of Bonds below par through tenders, or, if not so obtainable, to the redemption of Bonds, called by lot, at par.

GOVERNMENT DEBT AND ASSETS. The total debt of the Argentine Government as of December 31, 1925, amounted to about $950,391,000, as compared with the national wealth, according to the census of 1914 (the latest official figures), of $14,543,000,000. Government-owned properties (including revenue-producing investments of $530,000,000) had a total value in 1914, according to the same census, of $1,125,000,000, or about $174,000,000 more than the total government debt now outstanding.

CURRENCY. A gold reserve of $436,000,000 is held against note circulation equivalent to $561,000,000, resulting in a reserve ratio of over 77%. The Argentine paper peso is now quoted in New York at about 95% of par. Measures have been taken to prepare the way for a complete restoration of the gold standard which existed in the Argentine prior to 1914.

THE ABOVE BONDS ARE OFFERED FOR SUBSCRIPTION, SUBJECT TO THE CONDITIONS STATED BELOW, AT 98% AND ACCRUED INTEREST, TO YIELD OVER 6⅛% TO MATURITY.

Subscription books will be opened at the office of J. P. Morgan & Co. at 10 o'clock a. m. Friday, April 23, 1926, and will be closed in their discretion. The right is reserved to reject any and all applications, and also, in any case, to award a smaller amount than applied for. All subscriptions will be received subject to the issue and delivery to us of the Bonds as planned.

The amounts due on allotments will be payable at the office of J. P. Morgan & Co. in New York funds to their order, and the date of payment (on or about May 4, 1926) will be stated in the notices of allotment. Temporary Bonds or Interim Receipts, exchangeable for definitive bonds when prepared, are to be delivered.

The Argentine Government will make application to list the definitive bonds on the New York Stock Exchange.

J. P. MORGAN & CO. — THE NATIONAL CITY COMPANY

New York, April 22, 1926.

The above offering is confined to corporations, brokers and dealers in securities, and to banks, trust companies, insurance companies and associations organized under the banking or insurance laws of Illinois or of the United States.

STOCKS ADVANCE, TRADING WIDENS AS PUBLIC BUYS

YESTERDAY'S AVERAGES

20 railroads......	88.69	87.58	88.13	+ .49
20 industrials.....	146.05	144.51	145.86	+1.53
40 stocks..	117.37	116.04	116.99	+1.01

New York, April 22.—(AP)—Responding to a series of favorable news developments, stock prices made further recovery in todays' market. Buying orders were spread over a broad list, indicating a gradual return of public participation, with final quotations disclosing a long list of net gains ranging from one to five points. Some profit taking was apparent toward the close by professional traders who had bought stocks for a turn earlier in the week.

The senate's approval of the Italian debt settlement and the announcement that the department of justice had sanctioned the Tidewater-Associated Oil merger were two of the most constructive influences on today's stock market operations. Other favorable factors included the renewal of railroad merger negotiations, reports that the warmer weather had stimulated several lines of spring business, and the publication of additional favorable earnings statements.

Sales Are 1,712,000 Shares.

The volume of trading broadened considerably, the day's total transactions exceeding 1,712,000 shares. Call money opened at 3½ per cent, the lowest renewal rate since September, and held at that figure all day. Lower rates were obtainable, however, in the outside market. Prime commercial paper held steady at 4¼ per cent.

United States Steel common and Gulf States Steel each closed about a point higher, and the others in that group improved fractionally.

Buoyancy again developed in several industrial specialties. Remington Typewriter soared 6 points to 96 on reports of large current earnings, closing a point below the top. Net gains of 3@5 points also were recorded by American Republic, Coca Cola, General Electric, Pullman, United Fruit, and U. S. Cast Iron Pipe.

Merger Issues in Demand.

The so-called merger issues were again the favorite in the railroad group. Nickel Plate common was run up 4½ points to 151, Pittsburgh and West Virginia closed more than 4 points higher at 102⅛ after selling as high as 104¾, and Rock Island, Kansas City Southern, Delaware and Hudson, and Wheeling and Lake Erie preferred all showed net gains of 2 points or more.

The advance in the oil shares was held in check by reports of a sharp increase in Mexican production last week and by the discovery of a new pool in the Salt Creek field. Substantial gains were recorded, however, by Marland, Sinclair, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Atlantic Refining, and General Asphalt.

G. R. Kinney.

E. L., Davenport, Ia.—G. R. Kinney Company, Inc., earned $20.92 a share on its preferred and $11.70 a share on its common stock in 1925, compared with $20.93 on the preferred and $11.19 on the common in 1924.

The common stock is mostly represented by good will.

It is paying dividends at the rate of $4 per share per annum.

The common stock deserves a fairly good rating.

The preferred is rather high grade.

The company was operating 253 stores at end of 1925.

Van Camp Packing.

T. A. B., Mattoon, Ill.—After paying no dividends on its 7 per cent preferred stock since April 1, 1923, the Van Camp Packing company, Inc., has declared a dividend of $7.87½ a share [par $50], payable to stock of record April 27, 1926.

The company does not make public complete financial information, as far as we can learn.

The preferred stock is pretty much of a speculation.

Brief Answers.

D. R. F., Topeka, Kans.—The Central Pacific railway thirty-five year guaranteed 5s of 1960 are a sound investment.

W. P. L., Aurora, Ill.—Province of British Columbia twenty-five year gold 4½s of 1950 are a sound investment.

WALL STREET NOTES

NEW YORK, April 22.—(AP)—The recovery in stock prices was resumed in today's curb market. Buying of the petroleum issues was stimulated by the department of justice's approval of the Tidewater-Associated Oil merger and by reports of stiffening gasoline prices. Humble jumped 5¾ points to 63¼ and Lago "A," International Petroleum, Mountain Producers, Prairie, Vacuum, and Standard Oils of California and Indiana sold a point or so higher.

Revival of activity and strength in Electric Refrigeration, which closed 2 points higher at 61¼, was one of the features. Some strong buying support also was apparent for Canada Dry Ginger Ale, Glen Alden Coal, Continental Baking preferred, Freshman Radio, Goodyear Tire, Hazeltine, Victor Talking Machine, and Wilson preferred. Ford Motors of Canada was run up 18 points to 524 and then dropped back to 505. Most of the other motors improved fractionally.

Chief speculative interest in the public utilities centered in Consolidated Gas of Baltimore, which closed 2½ points higher at 49⅝. A good demand also was noted for American Power and Light, Electric Bond and Share, United Light and Power A, all of which closed a point or so higher. The demand for the mining shares was chiefly in the low priced issues, with Consolidated and Ray Coppers as the active features.

Buying orders poured into the bond market in a steady stream, lifting the average of prices to the highest level in several years and swelling the volume of trading to the largest single day's total since a year ago last January. Aggressive bidding for United States government obligations, several of which touched new top prices, provided a gauge of the investment demand.

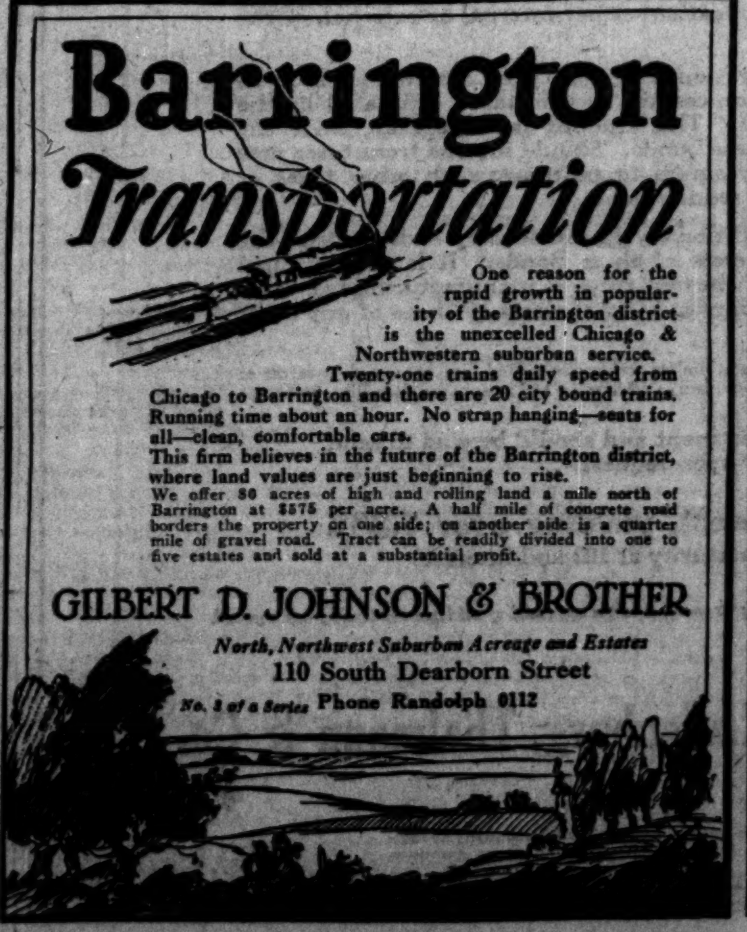
Most popular busiest corner in town, will divide—6 very attractive show windows; also for rent approx. 3,000 sq. ft. factory space, and 12 acres land for sale near town.

Other Requirements:

Wanted—25 Salesmen—Drug, Dental. Several Tool and Die Workers. New Article to Manufacture, any quantity.



Barrington
Transportation

One reason for the rapid growth in popularity of the Barrington district is the unexcelled Chicago & Northwestern suburban service.

Twenty-one trains daily speed from Chicago to Barrington and there are 20 city bound trains. Running time about an hour. No strap hanging—seats for all—clean, comfortable cars.

This firm believes in the future of the Barrington district, where land values are just beginning to rise.

We offer 80 acres of high and rolling land a mile north of Barrington at $575 per acre. A half mile of concrete road borders the property on one side; on another side is a quarter mile of gravel road. Tract can be readily divided into one to five estates and sold at a substantial profit.

Mr. R. B. Maltby, Vice-President of the Company, summarizes his letter to us as follows:

Business: St. Regis Paper Company was organized under the laws of New York State in 1899. The Company is one of the largest producers of paper in the Eastern United States, having an annual output of over 140,000 tons of various grades, consisting of directory, catalog, newsprint, manila wrapping, packer's wax and grease-proof paper.

The properties of St. Regis Paper Company are located in Northern New York State, a region advantageous for the conduct of the business by reason of its abundance of water power and its proximity both to the source of raw materials and to the great markets of Eastern United States. The Company controls large resources of pulp wood, both Canadian and domestic, sufficient, it is estimated, to supply its entire requirements for more than twenty years.

Earnings: The earnings of the St. Regis Paper Company for the twelve months ended December 31, 1925, show a gross income of $9,175,651, and a net income available for interest after depreciation, but before Federal tax, of $1,209,882, or over 4 times the annual interest requirements on these Debentures. For the past six years such income has averaged over 3.6 times these requirements.

Investments: St. Regis Paper Company owns 727,660 shares of the Common Stock of Northeastern Power Corporation, which in turn owns over 99% of the Common Stock of The Power Corporation of New York, the entire capital stock of the Oswego River Power Corporation, and 234,289 Common Shares of the New England Power Association.

The properties controlled by The Power Corporation of New York and the New England Power Association are inter-connected by high tension transmission lines with the properties of the Mohawk Hudson Power Corporation and the Buffalo, Niagara & Eastern Power Corporation, thereby creating a super-power transmission system extending from Buffalo to Boston.

Balance Sheet: Following is a summarized balance sheet compiled from audit by Messrs. Haskins & Sells, certified public accountants, as of December 31, 1925, adjusted to give effect to this financing:

American Power & Light Company

Gold Debenture Bonds, American Six Per Cent. Series

Dated March 1, 1916 Due March 1, 2016

BANKERS TRUST COMPANY, NEW YORK, TRUSTEE

From the letter of Mr. C. E. Groesbeck, President of the Company, we summarise as follows:

Business and Territory American Power & Light Company, incorporated under the laws of Maine in 1909, owns practically all the Common Stocks of companies supplying, directly or indirectly, 536 communities, of which 508 are supplied with electric power and light service, while gas, and/or water and other miscellaneous service is supplied to the remaining communities. The territory served includes many important cities, such as Portland, Oregon; Wichita and Pittsburg, Kansas; Yakima, Walla Walla and Vancouver, Washington; Omaha, Nebraska; Council Bluffs, Iowa; Duluth, Minnesota; Superior, Wisconsin; Forth Worth, Galveston, El Paso, Waco and Wichita Falls, Texas; Phoenix, Arizona; and Miami, Miami Beach, Palm Beach, West Palm Beach, St. Augustine, Daytona, Sanford, Fort Myers and Bradenton, Florida; and has a population estimated at 2,670,000.

Gross earnings of operating subsidiaries for the year ended February 28, 1926, were $51,990,973 and net earnings were, $23,337,474. Of the gross earnings 74% was derived from the electric business, 16% from gas business and 10% from miscellaneous business.

Earnings For the year ended February 28, 1926, combined net earnings were equal to more than 3¾ times annual interest charges on the Gold Debenture Bonds to be outstanding upon completion of the present financing. Actual net earnings of the American Power & Light Company (that is after excluding undistributed earnings of subsidiaries accruing to it) for the year ended February 28, 1926, were $6,838,670, equal to more than 2.4 times these annual interest charges. Upon completion of this financing the only interest bearing indebtedness of American Power & Light Company will be the $45,912,400 Gold Debenture Bonds, due March 1, 2016.

Equity The Gold Debenture Bonds take precedence as to earnings and assets over 238,100 shares of Preferred Stock and 1,648,581 shares of Common Stock having a combined market value in excess of $100,000,000. Dividends have been paid regularly on the Preferred Stock (at the rate of $6 per share per annum since the inception of the Company) and on the Common Stock since 1913.

Supervision Electric Bond and Share Company supervises (under the direction and control of the boards of directors of the respective companies) the operations of American Power & Light Company and its Subsidiary Companies.

All legal matters in connection with the issuance of these Bonds will be passed upon by Messrs. Murray, Aldrich & Roberts of New York

The Bonds are offered when, as and if issued and received by us and subject to approval of proceedings by counsel

City of Porto Alegre

(United States of Brazil)

Forty-Year 7½% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds

External Loan of 1925 Due January 1, 1966

Guaranteed unconditionally as to principal, Sinking Fund, premium and interest by the State of Rio Grande do Sul

Repayable, through Sinking Fund or at maturity, at 102 and interest. Sinking Fund provides for retirement of entire issue at 102 and interest at or before maturity. Not callable, except for Sinking Fund, prior to January 1, 1936. Callable, in part for Sinking Fund on any interest date, and on and after January 1, 1936, as a whole at any time, on 30 days' notice at 102 and interest. Principal and interest payable at the office of Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co., Fiscal Agents, in New York, interest also payable at the offices of Lee, Higginson & Co., in New York, Boston and Chicago.

The following is taken from information furnished to us by the President of the State of Rio Grande do Sul and the Mayor of the City of Porto Alegre:

The City of Porto Alegre, established 1742, is the capital and the largest and most important city in the State of Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil. Its population (City record of 1923) exceeds 246,000, of which 98% is of European descent. Property owned by the City, together with privately owned land and buildings, are officially valued at $61,990,000,* and actual values of latter are considered to be at least twice their official valuation.

For the last 25 years ordinary revenues have in every year shown a surplus over ordinary expenditures including results of municipal public utility operations. Total funded debt at June 30, 1925, together with this issue, amounts to $10,964,096.* There is no record of default on any funded debt obligation, either internal or external, of the City of Porto Alegre.

Bonds issued as direct and general obligation of City. They are further secured by first hypothecation mortgage and charge on certain specific taxes, estimated by the City to aggregate over $664,000* annually. This amount is more than twice the interest and sinking fund requirements on these Bonds. Should income from taxes now mortgaged at any time be insufficient, City agrees to mortgage such other taxes or revenues as may be necessary to fulfill such requirement.

The State of Rio Grande do Sul unconditionally guarantees by endorsement the principal, Sinking Fund, premium and interest of these Bonds. It is the principal cattle and stock raising state of Brazil, one of the first three in manufacturing and value of imports and exports, and its banks are the largest in total assets of those of any State of Brazil.

*All statistics herein relating to foreign money and values, unless otherwise stated, are expressed in terms of United States dollars at par of Sterling exchange, 1£=$4.8665, and at 1 Milreis=14.75 cents for Brazilian exchange.

We Recommend these Bonds for Investment and should be glad to send detailed circular upon request.

Price 96 and accrued interest, yielding over 7.80% on repayment at or before maturity at 102 and interest

Bonds offered for delivery if, when and as issued and received by us, subject to the approval of all legal matters by our counsel.

Lee, Higginson & Co. Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co.

The statements contained in this advertisement are based on information obtained partly by cable and from official and other sources, which we believe to be reliable but do not guarantee.

Dated, March 30, 1926.

THE SANITARY DISTRICT OF CHICAGO
Broadview-Bellwood Intercepting Sewer

To Contractors:

Sealed proposals, endorsed "PROPOSALS FOR BROADVIEW-BELLWOOD INTERCEPTING SEWER," will be received by the Clerk of The Sanitary District of Chicago at the office of said Sanitary District, Room 700, 910 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, until 11 a. m., Standard time, on Thursday, May 6, 1926, and will be publicly opened by the Board of Trustees of said Sanitary District at a meeting to be held on that day or at the first meeting thereafter.

The work for which said tenders are invited consists of building approximately 10,890 feet of concrete sewer of 5 feet internal height and 3 feet 4 inches internal width in Roosevelt Road from the Des Plaines River to Pusheck Road, 2,650 feet of sewer of 2 feet 3 inches internal diameter in Pusheck Road from Roosevelt Road to Harrison Street, and other miscellaneous work collateral thereto. The work is located mainly in the Village of Broadview, County of Cook, State of Illinois.

The work includes furnishing and placing concrete, reinforcing steel, tile pipe, or reinforced concrete pipe and iron castings, excavation, tunneling, backfilling, disposal of excess material and incidental work.

All bids must be made upon blank forms of proposal furnished by the Sanitary District, and shall be made in accordance with and to conform to the terms and conditions set forth in "Requirements for Bidding and Instructions to Bidders" attached thereto.

Specifications, form of proposal and plans may be obtained upon deposit of Twenty-five Dollars [$25.00] at the office of said Sanitary District, which sum so deposited will be refunded if said plans and specifications are returned in good condition within thirty days following the opening of bids.

The Board of Trustees of said Sanitary District reserves the right to reject any or all proposals.

THE SANITARY DISTRICT OF CHICAGO.
By James M. Whalen,
Vice Chairman of Its Committee on Finance.
Attest: Harry E. Wallace, Clerk.
Chicago, April 23, 1926.

To Contractors:

Sealed proposals for the construction of the Approaches for the Bascule Bridge over the Main Drainage Channel of The Sanitary District of Chicago, on the line of South Cicero Avenue extended across said Main Drainage Channel, in the City of Chicago, County of Cook, State of Illinois, will be received by the Clerk at the office of said Sanitary District, Suite 700, 910 So. Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, until 10 A. M., standard time, on Thursday, May 6th, 1926, and will be publicly opened by the Board of Trustees of said Sanitary District at a meeting to be held on that day or at the first meeting thereafter.

All proposals must be made upon blank forms of proposal furnished by the Sanitary District and shall be made in accordance with and to conform to the terms and conditions set forth in "Requirements for Bidding and Instruction to Bidders," attached thereto.

Said proposals shall be enclosed in an envelope furnished by the said Sanitary District, bearing the printed endorsement, "Proposal for Approaches for the South Cicero Avenue Bridge."

Forms of proposal, specifications and plans may be obtained upon deposit of Ten Dollars [$10.00] at the office of said Sanitary District, which sum, so deposited, will be refunded if proposal, plans and specifications are returned in good condition within thirty days following the opening of bids.

The Board of Trustees reserves the right to reject any or all proposals.

LOAN RATE CUT; MARKS PASSING OF CREDIT PERILS

BY O. A. MATHER.

Yesterday was another day of cheerful news in finance and industry, but the two most constructive items did not appear until late in the day.

The New York Federal Reserve bank announced a lowering of its rediscount rate from 4 to 3½ per cent. This brings the rate back to the figure at which it stood for nearly 11 months prior to last January. The present change is the result of a rapid and sweeping downward reaction in open market money rates, following deflation of securities prices and drastic reduction in brokers' loans. Call money loaned yesterday at 3½ per cent and under, marking the lowest renewal rate since last September. Time money was quoted at 4 to 4¼ per cent, the lowest level since last July.

Credit Dangers Past.

The action of the New York bank will be interpreted as an expression of judgment that such dangers as surrounded the country's credit position at the end of 1925 have been removed by the recent course of the securities and money markets. This was further emphasized by the weekly report of the federal reserve system, made public last night.

The consolidated statement for the twelve reserve banks shows a drop in loans of $127,614,000 in the last week, while open market bills declined $44,584,000. It is noteworthy that the New York bank's loans dropped $127,741,000 to the lowest figure since last May, while its open market bills receded $37,351,000 At Chicago loans and bills declined $5,825,000 and $7,301,000 respectively.

Deposits Drop $127,402,000.

For the reserve system as a whole, deposits dropped $127,402,000, with member bank reserve credits and government deposits declining $112,077,000 and $19,452,000, respectively. Note circulation receded $18,812,000. Government securities expanded $11,567,000. Gold and total reserves increased $13,439,000 and $11,665,000, respectively. The ratio of reserves to liabilities jumped to 76 per cent from 73 per cent in the preceding week.

At New York reserves increased $65,748,000, and the reserve ratio rose to 88.3 per cent, the highest point since June, 1924. The ratio a week ago was 76.9 per cent. At Chicago reserves increased $7,226,000, and the reserve ratio rose to 73.7 per cent, compared with 73 per cent in the preceding week.

The other piece of important belated news was the quarterly report of the Bethlehem Steel corporation. Net earnings for the first quarter of 1926 were $11,973,038, equivalent after charges and preferred dividends to $2.66 a share on the common stock. This compared with $10,543,136, or $1.77 a share, in the preceding quarter, and with $10,399,316, or $1.66 a share, in the first quarter of 1925.

S. P. Sets Earnings Record.

Additional excellent railroad earnings reports appeared. The Southern Pacific's gross revenue for March was $24,455,800, a new record for that month and a gain of $498,400 over last year. Net operating income was $3,797,207, the best for the month since 1923 and a gain of $490,476 over last year. Net for the first quarter was $8,382,000, the best since 1923 and a gain of $1,661,500 over last year.

"I think prospects for the Northern Pacific's earnings this year are better than last year," President Donnelly said. "The crop outlook along the western end of our lines is better than a year ago. Gross revenues for March were about $500,000 more than the $7,017,433 a year ago and net operating revenue increased about $362,000 over the $979,283 for March, 1925."

KOPPERS, OTIS CO. TO HAVE CONTROL OF UNITED LIGHT

New York, April 22.—[Special.]—Further changes in the directorate of the United Light and Power company were announced today following the annual meeting here. As a result of the changes it is apparent that the Koppers company and Otis & Co. interests will have full control of the company to the exclusion of interests formerly associated with Frank T. Hulswit.

Two new directors were elected. They were R. B. MacDonald, vice presidnt of th Tri-City Railway and Light company, a United Light subsidiary, and H. C. McClintic of McClintic & Marshall, structural steel firm of Pittsburgh, which has common interests with the Koppers company. They succeed Bertrand A. Howe and Warren A. Snow of Howe, Snow & Bertles, Inc., a company which in the past has participated in United Light financing.

Other new directors elected since Mr. Hulswit's resignation as president are H. B. Rust, J. S. Brookes, and Richard Ingliss, representing the Koppers company and Otis & Co.

LARGER HOMES IN GROWING DEMAND IN CHICAGO AREA

BY HARPER LEECH.

Now that the senate has ratified the Italian debt pact, it seems probable that the United States will receive about $180,000,000 in the present fiscal year in partial payment of the loans made to Europe by American tax payers for the purpose of shortening the war and then to rebuild their damaged governmental and industrial systems.

That is a considerable sum—but the relative inconsequence of our foreign transactions to our domestic activities may be grasped, when we consider that all those payments are easily $20,000,000 less than American families will spend May 1 moving from old to new homes, or swapping apartments. And next fall we will spend as much again.

It is quite evident today that the demand for larger apartments is more keen than for the smaller type of family dwelling. Surveys of the rental situation say that, and suburban real estate offices tell the same story.

There is little fun in being a prophet unless one can occasionally say, "I told you so." The book of Jonah has a very striking picture of the consuming chagrin of the seer, whose stuff doesn't pan out—really a far more interesting scene than the whale story. So with the kind indulgence of the readers of this column we will quote a paragraph which appeared here nearly two years ago: "Perhaps some of our real estate and construction interests are making a gorgeous under estimate of the future of the American family. They are building great steel bound and concreted piles honeycombed by one or two room and bath apartments.

"Have any of them ever figured how they will have any tenants two generations hence for such apartments, if everybody lives that way? They seem to assume, in the words of an eminent chemist: 'The census may soon designate as a familyette the maiden lady with two gold fish.'" It is perfectly apparent today that the demand is for more room in the home, and if possible all around it. The idea that the tenement system, slightly gilded, could be adapted to suburbia is seen to be an exaggeration. One of the great questions now confronting this sovereign people according to the advertising columns is "When do I get to use the bathroom?"

That the economic freedom of women would lead in time to a separation of the maternal and non-maternal types—with the speedier elimination of the non-maternal under a régime of optional rather than virtually compulsory matrimony has been often advanced.

If true, a new process of natural selection has set in which may later on result in average families of greater size. However, that is highly speculative. Certainly we cannot afford to be unduly optimistic about the good looks or alertness of the succeeding generations. A story in this week's Liberty says that of 800 girls who landed in the Follies since 1907 only 25 are known to have had children. They seem to manage things better in Britain where the Gayety chorus is a national institution for the improvement of the landed aristocracy in physique, alertness and probably intelligence.

HEAVY SALES OF JULY DEPRESS PRICE OF WHEAT

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Heavy selling of July wheat credited to local traders carried that delivery og 4c from Wednesday's finish to a low of $1.41⅜, and buying headed by some of the early sellers caused a rally of 1c from the inside figures with the finish at a net loss of 3c at $1.42⅝@1.42¾. September closed 2c lower at $1.35⅝@1.36, while May showed pronounced strength and closed only 1⅛c lower at $1.65⅛@1.65¼, after a range of nearly 3c for the day. Corn lost ½@⅝c with May 73⅝@73⅞c, and July 78⅛@78c, while oats were ½@¾c lower with May 41⅞c, and July 42⅝c. Rye declined ¾@⅞c with May 92¼c, and July 94½.

There was pressure on the wheat market from the start and a lack of aggressive buying. Stop loss orders were uncovered on the way down and sellers of bids on the deferred deliveries were forced to protect themselves. Rumors of showers in parts of the northwest and good rains in the southwest helped along the decline, as did the weakness in Winnipeg. The latter was 2⅞c lower at the last. It was the gossip of the trade that the best buying on the break came from several of the local operators who sold early, and they also took considerable wheat through bids.

May Wheat Shows Strength.

Scattered shorts in the May delivery took advantage of the weakness in the July to cover, and the nearby future showed independent strength almost from the start, going to 22½c over the July at the last, in the face of a decline of 1@2c in the basis on hard winter in the spot market. The forecast was for showers in the Canadian northwest but for generally fair weather this side of the international line, and no rain was reported in the latter section. Crop outlook in the southwest remains favorable.

Erratic action of the futures market and inability to get the cash grain continues to hamper export business with sales at the seaboard finally estimated at 300,000 to 400,000 bu, including 140,000 bu new crop hard winters via the gulf. Demand for the latter is increasing. Liverpool was 1½@2⅜d higher with prospects of exports of only 3,034,000 bu from Argentina against 3,515,000 bu the previous week a factor. Buenos Aires was ½@⅝c lower at the last with May $1.51⅝ and June $1.53⅝.

Changing Orders in Corn.

Bulk of the trade in corn represented changing between the various deliveries with cash interests buying May and selling the July and the September while scattered longs in the May did the reverse. There was fair buying on the declines by commission houses. Weather conditions were less favorable for field work, and country offerings to arrive were light. Corn is being planted as far north as southern Missouri.

Locals sold oats on the weakness in other grains while commission houses bought on resting orders. A house with foreign connnections took July. Weather conditions are unfavorable over part of the belt for seeding operations while other sections need rain. A fair trade was on in rye with the market showing relative strength as compared with wheat. Crop reports from the northwest somewhat unfavorable due to continued dry weather.

Flaxseed at Duluth closed 1@1½c lower with May $1.57⅞ and June $1.59⅜ per bu.

PROVISIONS ADVANCED

Higher prices for hogs were reflected in a stronger and advancing market for products with limited selling pressure, fair investment buying, and short covering. Prices advanced and closed at the top, with bellies up 27½c, short ribs nominally 40c, and lard 17½@22½c higher. Trading in lard was not large, and a fair business was on in bellies. Cash trade in meats was fair, and dry salted bellies were held at ½@¾c advance. Liverpool lard was stronger and 3@6d higher. Export clearances of lard were 1,045,000 lbs and of bacon 125,000 lbs. CASH·GRAIN NEWS

Wheat sales in all positions at the seaboard were estimated at 300,000 to 400,000 bu, including Manitobas, new crop winters and durums. Sales of new crop hard winters were estimated at 140,000 bu, including business at 14c over Chicago September for July 10 to 20 shipment from Galveston and 12½c over for July 20-Aug. 5 loading. There were unconfirmed claims of a larger business. A little rye was sold and some oats.

Chicago handlers sold 8,000 bu wheat; 70,000 bu corn; 155,000 bu oats, and 15,000 bu barley to the domestic trade with 15,000 bu rye to go to store.

Cash wheat here is gradually working to a closer basis as compared with May and premiums were quoted as unchanged to 2c lower for the day with hard winter the weakest. No. 2 red was 6@9c and No. 2 hard 3@4c over the May. At Kansas City premiums were unchanged to 1c lower, and springs at Minneapolis were unchanged to 1c lower as compared with the future.

Market for cash corn was somewhat unsettled with choice grain quoted as much as 1c higher as compared with May, while the poorer were off as much as 1c. No. 3 grades were ⅜c over to 2½c under; No. 4 grades, 3½@6¼c under; No. 5 grades, 7@9½c under and No. 6 grades, 13@14c under May. Outside markets were unchanged to 1c higher with a good demand in the southwest.

Offerings of cash oats were fair, but the basis was slightly easier at ½@1c over May for No. 2 white and ¼@½c over for No. 3 white.

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET NEWS

It was understood at the close that a few big local operators, who were heavy sellers of wheat early and depressed the market, had taken part of it back on the break. Traders were more mixed at the last, with an increase in bearish sentiment. It was said there is sufficient in the news to keep operators active on both sides. Should there be good general rains in the northwest, traders expect a break.

An active trader, who was bearish on wheat at the close on Wednesday, was over on the bull side and a good buyer of May and July wheat on yesterday's break. Tightness of the May had a great deal to do with bringing about the change.

May wheat went to 23c over July yesterday against 20½c late Wednesday and nearly 21c two days ago. There was buying of May and selling of July on a liberal scale.

Wheat traders said that the late rally in the last three days had been followed by a break each time and they were suspicious of the closing rally yesterday holding, especially should there be a change in weather in the northwest.

Elevator interests were active in buying May and selling July corn at 4¼c premium for the July. Most of the corn traders are bearish, but are not pressing the short side until more is known about corn planting. It will be some time before there is anything definite on this point.

U. S. DROPS QUIZ ON MERGING OF OIL COMPANIES

Washington, D. C., April 22.—[Special.]—The department of justice announced today that its investigation relating to the formation of the Tidewater-Associated Oil company, and its acquisition of the greater part of the voting stocks of the Associated Oil company and the Tidewater Oil company, brings out that upon the facts disclosed the government would not be warranted in instituting proceedings under the anti-trust laws based on this particular transaction.

Company Issues Statement.

New York, April 22.—[Special.]—Paul Shoup, vice president of the Tidewater-Associated Oil company, issued this statement today:

"The announcement of the department of justice that the Tidewater-Associated Oil company no longer carries the burden of proceedings against it by the government, is indeed gratifying to all concerned in the organization of this new company.

"The announcement justifies the views of the organizers of the new company that nothing was being done that was contrary to the laws and traditions of the United States or to the interest of the public welfare.

Two More Oil Mergers Are Reported in Making

New York, April 22.—(Special.]—Negotiations are under way between bankers and officers of the Atlantic Refining company and the Marland Oil company which are expected to result in the consolidation of these organizations. According to reports in the financial district, the transaction will be carried out on the basis of two shares of Marland Oil company stock for one share of Atlantic Refining.

It also was reported today that another oil merger, involving the Skelly Oil company, Phillips Petroleum, and the Midcontinent Oil company, is in the making.

BERWYN TO HAVE $600,000 BLOCK ON WEST 22D ST.

BY AL CHASE.

Berwyn is to have a $600,000 three story store, office and flat building at the northwest corner of 22d street and Gunderson avenue, according to Kohout Brothers, who report selling the site for Joseph and Ben Kohout to Isador Ziven for $105,000.

The property fronts 160 feet on West 22d street and 125 feet on Gunderson avenue. The purchase price figures at approximately $656 per front foot on the 22d street side. This same parcel, according to Kohout Brothers, brought the subdivider $20,000 in 1922. Harry A. Silverstein was attorney. Mr. Ziven has not yet announced his architect.

Building and Loan Body Grows.

More than $1,000,000 worth of shares in the Building and Loan association of the Hawthorne Works, Western Electric, have been sold to employés since the 1st of January, when the organization was authorized by the state of Illinois to double its capital.

This enormous sale of shares is indicative of the interest shown by the Western Electric employés in thrift and home building. As the present authorized capitalization limit is $10,000,000, so far as can be determined this makes the organization the laregst industrial building and loan association in the United States.

The six apartment building at 5634 South Park avenue has been sold by Errett Gates and Butler Laughlin to the Walther League Hospice for $67,500, subject to $35,820, according to Aaron Bodenweiser and associates who negotiated the deal.

$115,000 Apartment Deal.

The twenty-four apartments at 4910-16 North Kedzie avenue have been sold by Louis Weinstein to Dr. Samuel Sprecher for a reported $115,000, subject to mortgages aggregating $88,500. The buyer gave in part payment his 1,800 acre Michigan farm. Arthur R. Perlow was broker for the seller; A. J. Tobey of Hoffman & Co. and J. A. Shane for the buyer. Morris & Mills were attorneys.

Karl Newhouse and Albert Weiss have bought the property of Alma S. Hay at 2816 South Parkway and of Murray Wolbach at 2818 and have started erecting a one and a half story motor show room. It is stated the buyers intend erecting three other buildings of this type on South Parkway. P. J. Mitchell of W. H. Bowers & Co. Agency and Loan corporation, was broker.

I.C.C. Head Criticizes Bond Sale to Morgan Company

Washington, D. C., April 22.—An attack on the New York Central railroad for preferring to sell its $11,172,000 issue of equipment trust certificates to J. P. Morgan & Co., was contained in a dissenting opinion given by Chairman Eastman of the interstate commerce commission along with the approval of the commission for the issuance of the financing. Chairman Eastman voiced his objection in a phrase in which he referred to Morgan & Co., as "a single preferred middleman." The issue has been sold to the Morgan company at 97⅝ per cent of par and the proceeds will be used to purchase equipment valued at $16,031,491 for the New York Central, Michigan Central, and the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis railroads.

Unconditionally guaranteed as to prompt payment of Principal, Interest and Sinking Fund by William Randolph Hearst

For detailed information regarding these Notes, attention is directed to a letter of Mr. Roy D. Keehn, President, from which the following is summarized:

Business: The Evening American Publishing Company, an Illinois corporation, publishes the Chicago Evening American, which has the largest paid circulation of any afternoon and evening daily newspaper in Chicago. Although selling at 3c a copy, this paper for the last several years has had the largest circulation, regardless of price, of any Chicago evening newspaper. During the past two years the volume of advertising has increased by 20%, a greater growth than shown by any other evening newspaper in Chicago. Average daily paid circulation taken from independent sources shows an increase from 399,716 copies in the calendar year 1923, to 537,487 copies for the period ended March 21, 1926.

Security: The Notes will be the direct obligation of the Evening American Publishing Company and in addition will be unconditionally guaranteed as to the prompt payment of principal, interest, and sinking fund by William Randolph Hearst.

Earnings: The Company's net profits before deducting interest paid, but after all taxes and depreciation, as certified by independent auditors, have averaged for the three years ended December 31, 1925, $1,350,193. Annual interest on the Company's funded debt to be presently outstanding requires $188,060.

Sinking Fund: The Company will retire annually beginning April 1, 1928, $250,000 principal amount of these Notes, either by purchase at not exceeding the prevailing call price or by redemption by lot at the then prevailing call price. This Sinking Fund will retire $750,000 principal amount of these Notes prior to maturity.

Management: The management of the Evening American Publishing Company will continue in charge of the men who have been responsible for the success of the Chicago Evening American. All of the outstanding capital stock of the Company, except directors' qualifying shares, is owned by William Randolph Hearst who operates a publishing business consisting of a chain of newspapers serving from coast to coast 16 of the important cities of the United States, and a group of nationally known magazines.

General Mortgage Gold 4¾% Bonds

Due November 1, 1987.

Not subject to redemption before maturity.

Coupon bonds in denomination of $1,000 registerable as to principal and exchangeable for fully registered bonds. Interest payable May 1 and November 1.

The issuance and sale of these Bonds are subject to the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

We are advised that these bonds are a legal investment for savings banks in the States of New York, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Jersey, Michigan, Minnesota, Wisconsin and other states.

For further information regarding the Company and this issue of Bonds, reference is made to a letter from Fred W. Sargent, Esq., President of the Chicago and North Western Railway Company, copies of which may be obtained from the undersigned and from which the following is quoted:

"These Bonds will be issued under the General Mortgage of the Company, executed in 1897, authorizing the issuance from time to time of Bonds not to exceed $165,000,000 principal amount, bearing interest at the rate of not to exceed 5% per annum, and providing for the retirement at or before maturity of the prior liens and debentures then outstanding, and for the further improvement of the property. The bonds are not redeemable before maturity.

The present issue of Bonds is being sold to provide funds for the retirement, on August 15, 1926, of $18,632,000 principal amount of Chicago and North Western Extension 4% Gold Bonds.

The General Mortgage Bonds, upon retirement of the bonds due August 15, 1926, above mentioned, will be secured by a first lien on 3,469 miles of road and subject to $20,757,000 prior liens (for which bonds of this issue are reserved) on an additional 1,623 miles of road. This first lien mileage includes the entire double track main line of the Company from Chicago to Council Bluffs, Iowa; its main line to Elroy, Wisconsin, forming with the main line of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Railway, a main line from Chicago to Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth; its main line through southern Minnesota and into South Dakota; the main line from Chicago to Milwaukee, and its main lines from Milwaukee to Ashland on Lake Superior and from Milwaukee through Green Bay to northern Michigan points. Upon retirement of the above mentioned Extension 4% Bonds, the General Mortgage Bonds, including those pledged, together with the prior lien debts for which General Mortgage Bonds are reserved, will be outstanding at the rate of only $30,560 per mile of road subject to the General Mortgage. The General Mortgage Bonds are also secured by a first lien on the Chicago Terminal properties of the Company.

The Chicago and North Western Railway Company has outstanding $22,395,120 of Preferred Stock and $155,509,803 of Common Stock. Dividends have been paid uninterruptedly since 1878, the present dividends being at the rate of 7% per annum on the Preferred Stock and 4% per annum on the Common Stock.

The gross income of the Company for the year ended December 31, 1925, applicable to the payment of rentals and interest on funded debt amounted to $23,424,996 (after Federal income taxes), while the rental payments, interest on funded debt and other deductions for that year amounted to $12,640,418.

Of the authorized amount of General Mortgage Bonds there will be outstanding, after the present issue, $114,357,000 Bonds, of which $31,316,000 are 3½% Bonds, $30,554,000 are 4% Bonds, $18,632,000 are 4¾% Bonds and $33,855,000 are 5% Bonds. In addition, there are pledged as part collateral for the Company's Secured Bonds, due in 1930 and 1936, $20,500,000 of 5% General Mortgage Bonds. Of the balance of the authorized amount, $20,757,000 are reserved to retire prior liens and debentures due in 1929 and 1933, $5,031,000 Bonds are unissued in the treasury of the Company, and $4,355,000 Bonds are reserved to assist in refunding, or for improvements or additions, including equipment."

THE UNDERSIGNED OFFER THE ABOVE BONDS, SUBJECT TO PRIOR SALE, AT 102½% AND ACCRUED INTEREST TO DATE OF DELIVERY, TO YIELD OVER 4⅝% TO MATURITY.

Chicago and North Western Railway Company Extension 4% Gold Bonds, due August 15, 1926, will be accepted at 100% and accrued interest in payment for the above mentioned bonds, provided that notice of the amount of such bonds to be tendered in payment is given not less than five days prior to the date fixed for delivery of and payment for the new bonds.

The above bonds are offered if, when and as issued and received by the undersigned and subject to the approval by any public authorities that may be necessary of the issuance of the bonds and their sale to the undersigned and to the approval by their counsel of all legal proceedings in connection therewith. Bonds in definitive or temporary form or interim certificates will be delivered against payment in New York funds for bonds allotted. It is expected that delivery will be made on June 1, 1926.

Application will be made in due course to list these bonds on the New York Stock Exchange.

The Adopted Wife

By Amelie Rives
[Princess Troubetzkoy.]

SYNOPSIS.

Celia Gibbs, whose mother died when she was an infant, is left an orphan at 14 by the death of her father. Gibbs was an artist, but he was known more for his eccentricities than for his paintings. He was of a cold, brutal disposition and treated his only child cruelly.

Hilary Fraser, a dilettante bachelor of 38, is one of Gibbs' few friends. After the artist's death he is astonished to learn that Gibbs has bequeathed to his care and charity the orphaned Celia. Hilary's sister, Laura Eversham, assumes the responsibility of Celia's education. She places her along with his own daughter in a convent in France. When the girls finish school Laura takes Celia into her house to live. Laura's daughter marries an Englishman and goes abroad. Shortly afterward Laura dies. In desperation over Celia's situation, Hilary proposes that she marry him in order that she might live in his house with propriety. She is satisfied with the arrangement until she overhears some acquaintances gossiping about her "white marriage" and for the first time she learns that her father had left her penniless and that she is living on Hilary's charity. She is deeply disturbed by this knowledge and she grows restless. When Padraic O'Shea, a young musician, pays her marked attention she is flattered by it and encourages him. He suggests that she divorce Hilary and marry him, but this she will not do. She tells Hilary that Padraic wants to marry her and he also suggests that she divorce him. She is hurt at the suggestion and quarrels with Hilary. Later she tells him that she has decided to marry Padraic and she prepares to go away with him.

INSTALLMENT LIII.

CELIA ADOPTS A NEW NAME.

As Celia moved hurriedly to the door of the shop the saleslady said:

"Say, listen, dearie! If you're going shopping and want to do it close by, there's B. Caldwell & Co. just opposite. One of the dandiest department stores in town——"

"I want to buy a leather bag first—at an English shop," demurred Celia, trying nervously to get through the door which Miss Bloome was holding. But, with one hand on the door knob and the other on Celia's sleeve, she barred the way.

"Fitted bag, or suitcase?" she asked eagerly.

"A—a—suitcase, I suppose."

"Then just step over to B. Caldwell's. I bought me one right there—Tan with patent leather trimmings—Some bag, bu-lieve me! You can get one for ten-fifty——"

But Celia remained firm in her determination to go to an English shop. She walked all the way to Marvin & Marvin's, delighted to feel the wind on her face after the long half hour spent in the stuffy dressing room, with its bouquet of other customers and glaring electric lights.

She bought a dark green morocco satchel in a black waterproof case, and a crush belt of black patent leather to go with her "reversible" suit. Overblouses were unknown then and Celia had a slender, boyish waist, which crushed belts didn't shorten. Then she walked back satchel in hand to B. Caldwell's, where she had shopped before, and spent another half hour in selecting various articles, among them a sensible ulster of gray tweed and a long gray motor veil. All these things she had neatly packed in the new satchel. As she paid cash for them she had to wait for the change, and this brought her back to Floss and Chymes' at five minutes past three.

She was shown into another stuffy cubicle, and word was sent to Miss Bloome and Mr. Posser that she had come.

As if by a miracle they both appeared promptly and almost simultaneously, Mr. Posser with the burnt orange suit over his arm and Miss Bloome with the two blouses over hers.

Celia's gray gown was off in a twinkling, one of the new blouses and the new skirt on in another. Mr. Posser and Miss Bloome stood contemplating her.

"You can if you like"—he said cautiously, "but there's something queer, I tell you."

"It's very chic on you, madam," said Mr. Posser. "You look just grand in it, dearie!" cried Miss Bloome.

Mr. Posser glanced at Celia.

"Very elegant indeed, ultra-smart," he pronounced again.

"I've brought the finishing touch, anyhow!" chuckled Miss Bloome, producing three neckties, one black, one purple, one green.

"That mannish shirtwaist calls for a tie."

"You're right, Miss Bloome, so it does," said Mr. Posser, as if glad of an opportunity to approve.

Celia selected the black tie, and Miss Bloome slipped it under the turndown collar and tied it knowingly.

She paused, however, with her hand on the loose end that she was tightening.

"Say, dearie!" she exclaimed, and again Celia felt Mr. Posser's deprecatory glance upon her. "You'll need a genuyne sports hat to go with this two-piece, not but what the one you're wearing is a beaut. I'd just love to own it myself—But it's too dressy for a 'trottoor' suit like this. We've got some awful classy, smart sports hats on the second floor. Will I go bring——?"

"Not now," said Celia hastily, "I haven't time."

"Well," observed Miss Bloome, after a considering look at her. "I guess you have to get your hats made to order anyway, don't you? I never seen such a suit of hair in my born days. Did you ever, Mr. Posser?"

"Madam has certainly a great wealth of hair, if she'll allow me," said Mr. Posser with refined reserve.

"Thanks—but I must go!" said Celia, quivering in her nervous desire to be off. She paid the rest of her deposit, and what she owed for the alteration, blouses, and tie, then darted to the door before Miss Bloome could reach it. "Thank you both so much!"

It was Mr. Posser who checked her exit this time. "Excuse me, madam," said he, "but you haven't told us where to send this," and he held up the discarded gray gown.

Celia flushed, thought like lightning, and murmured the first imaginary address that came into her head—a number in West 44th street.

It was now Miss Bloome's turn to be glanced at by Mr. Posser. His glance met hers already upon him.

"The name, please," he called after Celia, who was already hurrying away. Miss Bloome was too dumbfounded by the address given to utter another word.

"O, of course! How stupid of me!" said Celia, flushing again. "Mrs. Moore—Mrs. P. Moore" she added on second thought, feeling that an initial would give her new name more reality. Then she fled.

Mr. Posser and Miss Bloome continued to gaze at each other for quite half a moment after her departure. At last Miss Bloome gasped out:

"Well, I never!"

And Mr. Posser responded:

"Nothing but shops in that street as I remember."

"Maybe she just went into business for fun?" suggested Miss Bloome.

"Then she'll soon find out there ain't much fun about it," returned Mr. Posser, lapsing into his habitual gloom. He shook his head, gazing at the address which he had written down.

"There's something very queer about this," he pronounced.

"Damn queer" assented Miss Bloome earnestly.

Mr. Posser became stern.

"You really mustn't use swear words, Miss Bloome, while you're an employe of Floss & Chymes."

"Well, it's enough to make an angel swear," protested Miss Bloome, then cried, "Look at here!"

She had been examining Celia's gray cloth gown, with its Pierrot ruche of gray velvet lined with white ostrich tips, and now pointed dramatically to the gold lettering on the white satin ribbon at the neck.

"'Doo-sette!" she breathed.

"Doo-say," corrected Mr. Posser mechanically, advancing his short sighted eyes nearer—then having verified her assertion, "Well, there's nothing to do but send it where she said."

"I think I'll take it there myself," announced Miss Bloome after a second's reflection. If there ain't any Mrs. P. Moore at that address I'll just keep it myself. Can I?"

"You can if you like," said he cautiously. "But there's something queer, I tell you—about it and her too."

"I don't care if she is queer," exclaimed Miss Bloome stoutly. "She's a peach too! I'll take my chances."

"Take 'em then," said Mr. Posser grimly, "but when you've taken 'em, keep 'em. If anything unpleasant happens to you, and you dolled up in that Doo-say gown, don't blame it on me."

"I sure won't, and thank you, Mr. Posser. Say! Mr. Posser, you're a good gent!"

"I try to be," said Mr. Posser quietly.

And they parted, having already wasted too much of the time belonging, [illegible] 5 o'clock that afternoon, to Messrs. Floss and Chymes.

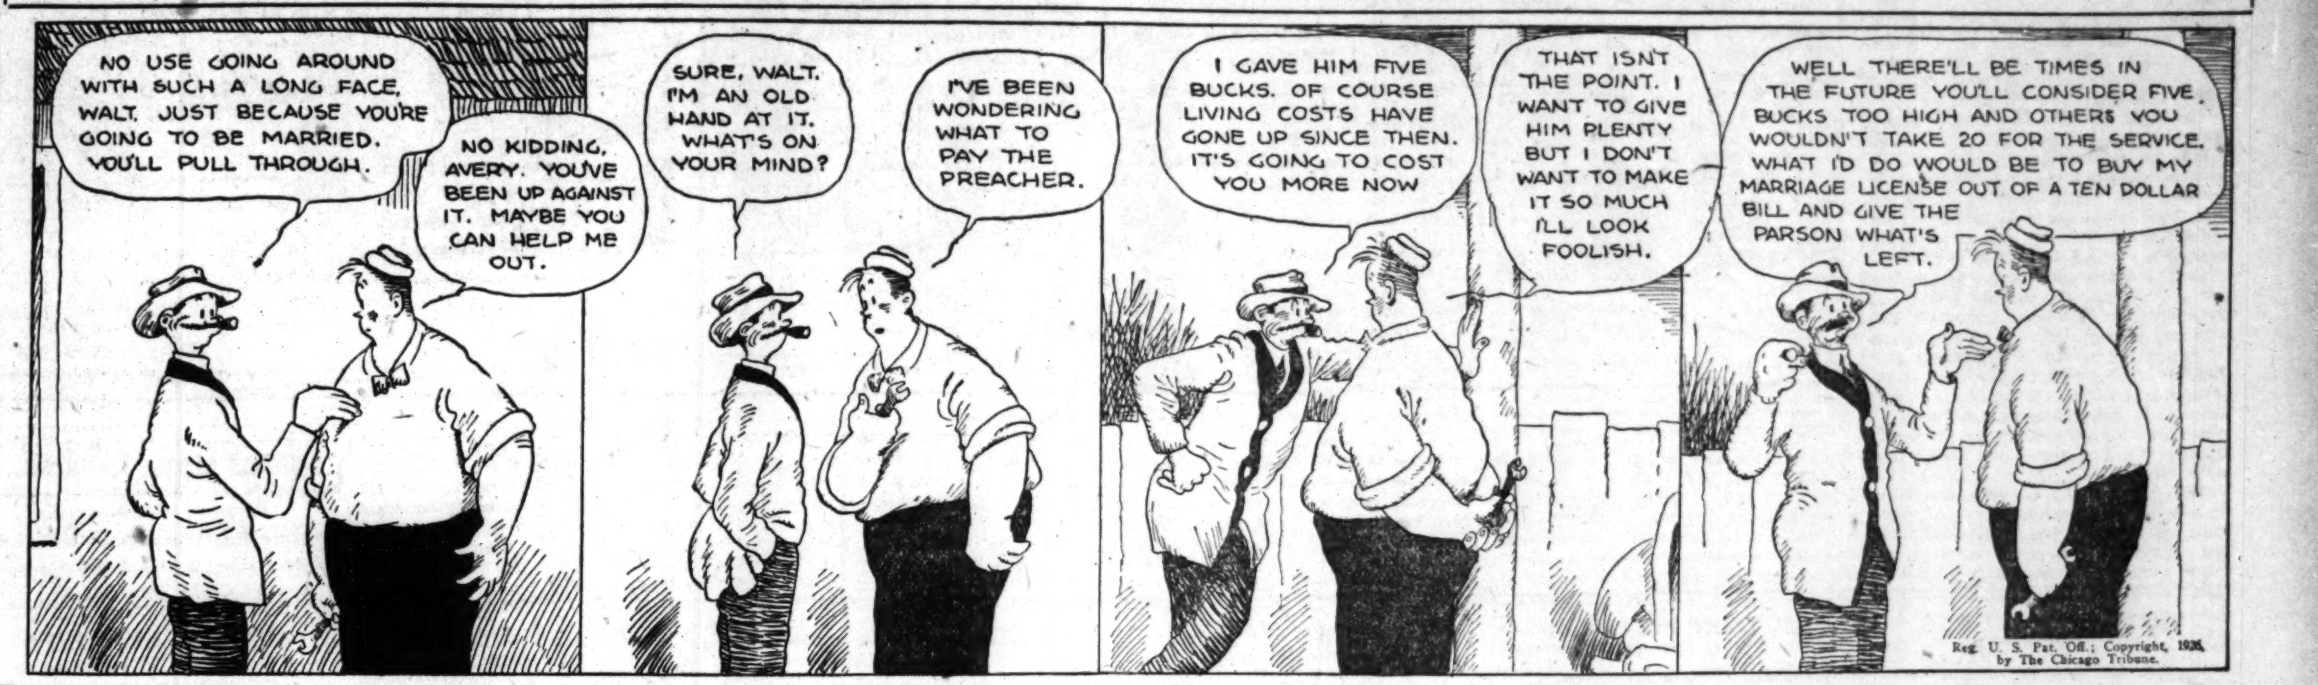
GASOLINE ALLEY—IT DIDN'T STAND THE TEST



NO USE GOING AROUND WITH SUCH A LONG FACE, WALT. JUST BECAUSE YOU'RE GOING TO BE MARRIED. YOU'LL PULL THROUGH.
NO KIDDING, AVERY. YOU'VE BEEN UP AGAINST IT. MAYBE YOU CAN HELP ME OUT.
SURE, WALT. I'M AN OLD HAND AT IT. WHAT'S ON YOUR MIND?
I'VE BEEN WONDERING WHAT TO PAY THE PREACHER.
I GAVE HIM FIVE BUCKS. OF COURSE LIVING COSTS HAVE GONE UP SINCE THEN. IT'S GOING TO COST YOU MORE NOW THAT ISN'T THE POINT. I WANT TO GIVE HIM PLENTY BUT I DON'T WANT TO MAKE IT SO MUCH I'LL LOOK FOOLISH.
WELL THERE'LL BE TIMES IN THE FUTURE YOU'LL CONSIDER FIVE BUCKS TOO HIGH AND OTHERS YOU WOULDN'T TAKE 20 FOR THE SERVICE. WHAT I'D DO WOULD BE TO BUY MY MARRIAGE LICENSE OUT OF A TEN DOLLAR BILL AND GIVE THE PARSON WHAT'S LEFT.

Mrs. Brosseau Takes Office as D. A. R. Head

Chicago Woman Becomes Secretary General.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—[Special.]—The Daughters of the American Revolution have elected their new president, Mrs. Alfred Brosseau of Detroit and Connecticut, and the other national officers without a ripple to mar the serenity of the atmosphere of the Washington auditorium.

The army is strong in this congress, among the new officers being Mrs. Brewster, wife of Gen. Matthew Brewster of Louisiana, elected chaplain general; Mrs. Eli C. Helmick, registrar general, and Mrs. Lord, wife of the director of the budget, correspondent secretary general. Mrs. Fries, wife of Gen. Amos R. Fries of chemical warfare fame, was made chairman of publicity.

The Ellis Island report read by the chairman of that committee, the retiring treasurer general and incoming president general, Mrs. Brosseau, showed that the chairman had received during this year from the members of the National society, 1,001 "boxes" for the emigrants and $4,473 for their fund. In the three years of Mrs. Brosseau's chairmanship she has received 2,500 boxes and $13,481. Illinois' part in this year's contribution of boxes was 76. Indiana sent 38, Iowa 51, Minnesota 22, and Michigan 39.

Michigan still has one real daughter, who is a daughter of an active revolutionary soldier, in Mrs. Helen M. Barrett of Battle Creek.

Mrs. Mark D. Batchelder of Peoria, who is here for the D. A. R. congress, had a company at luncheon today at the Willard, where she is staying.

The Illinois delegation in the Continental congress had a dinner tonight for Mrs. Samuel W. Earle, elected secretary general on Mrs. Brosseau's ticket.

Women Hear Lawyer Tell Orphan Home Advantages

At a meeting to devise means of raising funds for the children's home at 6323 Yale avenue, John J. Sonsteby, Chicago attorney, yesterday enumerated the advantages of an orphans' home before the National Protestant Woman's association at a luncheon in the Palmer house. Mr. Sonsteby said that a child in such an institution stood a much better chance of being adopted and given a good home.

Morris Gest Enters Movies at Salary of $250,000 a Year

New York, April 22.—[Special.]—Morris Gest entered the movies today when he signed a contract with Joseph M. Schenck, chairman of the board of United Artists corporation. Mr. Gest agreed to produce a picture a year for six years under the title of Morris Gest Specialties.

It was said the theatrical producer would receive $250,000 a year under the terms of the contract and that he would have full sway in producing the series of films to be made at Hollywood.

The first picture will be "The Darling of the Gods." Coincident with the signing of the Schenck contract, permission to film the play came from David Belasco, father-in-law of Mr. Gest. Mr. Belasco for years has turned a deaf ear to pleas that the Japanese play be picturized.

Mr. Gest will not slacken his productions for the stage. Insistence that he have time to stage spectacles for the legitimate was one of the points at issue in the eleven months of negotiations that led to today's signature.

"I have long felt," Mr. Schenck said, "that Mr. Gest's genius for presentation of such spectacles as 'The Miracle,' 'Aphrodite,' and 'Chu Chin Chow' could best find expression in motion pictures, because of the larger scope the camera affords. That is why I invited him to join the United Artists corporation, comprising Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin, Douglas Fairbanks, Rudolph Valentino, Buster Keaton, and Samuel Goldwyn's players, Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky."

Dr. Calvert Accepts Covenant Church Call

The Rev. Leonard Calvert has accepted the call of the Presbyterian Church of the Covenant, Belden avenue and Halsted street, and will begin his service there next Sunday. He succeeds the Rev. W. S. Plumer Bryan, who died a year ago, after a thirty year pastorate. The agitation for a merger of the Church of the Covenant, the Fullerton Avenue, and the Lake View churches, which aroused much interest among Presbyterians, is considered ended by the coming of the Rev. Mr. Calvert and the recent acceptance of the pastorate of the Fullerton Avenue church by the Rev. C. Lowrie. Mr. Calvert was born in Ireland, educated in Glasgow, Edinburgh, and Oxford universities.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 for each question accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send name and address with your question to "The Inquiring Reporter," Chicago Tribune. For today's question Harold Griffin, 2309 West Monroe street, was awarded $5.

The Question.

Do you think there is too much love making in the movies.

Where Asked.

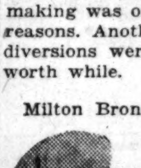
Lake street at Wabash avenue.

The Answers.

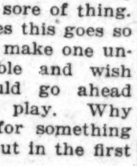
Mrs. George W. Towle, 2111 Nordica avenue, housewife.—I didn't know there could be too much love making in the world. So long as it is the right kind it is all right, whether in the movies or elsewhere. They may overdo it in the theater, but they had better have too much rather than too little of it.

W. H. Drumm, 1233 West 102d place, estimator.—Not for the present day audience. The younger people especially want lots of spice in their entertainment, and if theaters give this to them in a clean cut way they are not so likely to look for it elsewhere.

Miss Donna Adams, 4200 Sheridan road, home girl.—I seldom go to the movies any more. Some years ago I went so often that I became surfeited with them. Their stressed imitation love making was one of the reasons. Another, other diversions were more interesting and worth while.



Milton Bronstein, 2201 North Kimball avenue, advertising.—There is too much long drawn out kissing and that sore of thing. Sometimes this goes so far as to make one uncomfortable and wish they would go ahead with the play. Why stop the whole works for something that had better be left out in the first place?



Miss Malora Stanberry, Parkway hotel, dietitian.—There is too much of that in literature, in the theater and in the movies. It gets susceptible children of high school age to thinking and talking about it. It would be better if these entertaining agencies were to help get the world interested in healthful sports.

Striking Recital at Organ Given by Rollo F. Maitland

BY EDWARD MOORE.

Rollo F. Maitland of Philadelphia, an important soloist in the organ and orchestra concert at Kimball hall Tuesday night, gave a recital for organ alone at the Fourth Presbyterian church last night. He is skilled and resourceful in the concert music of the mighty instrument, with an excellent idea of its tone color and how to make it rhythmic, well acquainted with the classic traditions, and not at all averse to playing a tune at the proper time.

His final number was a somewhat startling improvisation on two contrasting themes given him at the moment. I have the best of reasons for knowing that this piece was not prepared beforehand, for I furnished one of the themes. Leo Sowerby wrote the other. Out of these two Mr. Maitland constructed a complex fantasia that came near to being a symphonic movement, finally working into a four-voice fugato and ending with the full thunder of the organ. I do not know how Mr. Sowerby feels about it, but personally I had no idea that my simple twig of a theme could burst into such elaborate florescence and become so decorative.

That highly enjoyable manifestation of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, the series of popular concerts, ended its thirteenth season at Orchestra hall. The program contained Mendelssohn's "Scotch" Symphony, Mr. Stock's orchestral arrangements of MacDowell's "To a Wild Rose" and "To a Water Lily," Sibelius' "Valse Triste," and an excerpt from each of the four items of Wagner's "Der Ring des Nibelungen." In other words, popular programs are now on all fours with the subscription series.

Kathleen March Strain, contralto, and Marie Kettering, pianist, appeared jointly in the Young American Artists series at Fine Arts Recital hall last night. These events are generally interesting, even when one begins to suspect that too much emphasis has been put on the word young, and not enough on artists. In the present case it is the belief of this department that not it but the young artists' instructors should lay out a course for the further development of Mrs. Strain's voice and the interpretation by Miss Kettering of the Chopin Sonata in B flat minor.

Notre Dame Grid Stars to Sing Here Tonight

Chicago hero worshipers will have an opportunity to make a deep salaam to Notre Dame stars of the gridiron tonight when they appear at Orchestra hall as members of the Notre Dame Glee club in a concert to benefit the San Callisto Social center at 2189 De Kalb street. Christy Flanagan, left half back, will demonstrate his vocal ability in the second tenor section of the glee club. Eugene Edwards, the newly elected captain of next season's team, will appear in the first tenor section. Right Half Back Joe Prelli will be a soloist. The glee club, which has a membership of sixty, is under the direction of Dr. J. Lewis Browne.

Tilden High's Notable Students Are Honored

One hundred and fifty students of the Tilden High school, all of whom were prominent in school activities during the year, were rewarded with a testimonial dinner at the school last night. Edward C. Rosseter, former principal, also was a guest. The dinner is an annual affair and is to promote interest in student activities and a desire to attain high scholarship. Arthur D. Buckland, advertising manager of the Wieboldt stores and a graduate of the school, was the principal speaker.

THEATER

Miss June Walker is the successor to Miss Mildred MacLeod as Lorelei Lee in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes," and will be ready in the part for the Chicago opening, May 3. . . . Miss Walker is known best in this city for such acting as she was required to do, back in 1922, in "Six-Cylinder Love," the play used for the dedication of the Harris Theater. Later, she acted in that house for a week or two in "The Nervous Wreck," in place of Miss Vivian Tobin. She is come into high regard in New-York, where the critics say she was wonderful or something in "The Glass Slipper."

Miss Nan Halperin will be next week's headliner in the Palace. . . . Jim Toney also is to be in next week's bill. I don't know if his name mean anything to you; and I'm still laughing at the things I saw him do in the Palace (or it may have been the Majestic or the State-Lake) nearly four years ago. This is the first time since I've noticed his name in a Chicago bill.

And Mr. Erlanger, in a formal statement, confirms what was told here many weeks ago about the Palace—that he will rename the house the Erlanger Theater when he and his associates take it under their direction, after the Orpheum Circuit moves into its new place in Randolph Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Sothern announce that they are giving the equipment for Shakspere's plays in their répertoire to the new Memorial Theater of Stratford-on-Avon; and that's a nice thing for them to do. The old theater, with contents, was destroyed by fire not long since. . . . It isn't likely that the Sotherns will have further use for the paraphernalia. There is no indication that Miss Marlowe will again merge from retirement; while Mr. Sothern, if he decide to do any proforma farewelling, will probably find that he can do it just as well in something not by Shakspere.

And, speaking of Shakspere, I'm certain that this paragraph isn't needed to remind you that today is the anniversary of his birth. No, indeed!—and I do mean maybe. They've been celebrating this week at Stratford, with "Coriolanus" as the high point. London has "The Merry Wives of Windsor" and an Italian Hamlet, the Signor Ruggeri: the critics there say he's pretty bad, although he was heralded as "the greatest Hamlet since Salvini." I wonder how "great" Salvini was as Hamlet. I've never seen the part acted half-way well by a Continental player save in the case of Salvini's son Alexander, who had been going along nicely as a star of the American theater when he died. . . . There's been no Shakspere this season in Chicago; but they're making ready "A Midsummer Night's Dream" in the Goodman Memorial for next month. New-York has had a little—Miss Barrymore, with Mr. Hampden, in "Hamlet" and "The Merchant of Venice"; and it is to have a little more when the Players give part of "King Henry IV" as their annual gesture to indicate that they are, as a club, alive.

The North-Shore Theater Guild went last night, up in Wilmette, into its final play of the season—the dramatization of "The Enchanted April" staged last June in Milwaukee, in the Davidson Theater, with Miss Elizabeth Risdon and Miss Elinor Patterson in the cast, and afterward acted for some weeks in New-York. The schedule takes the actors tonight and tomorrow to Winnetka; Monday, Highland Park; Tuesday, Lake Forest; Wednesday and Thursday, Evanston.

When the Moscow opera-actors shall have given their version of "Lysistrata," tonight and twice tomorrow, in the Great Northern, they will go to Detroit for a week, and then back to New-York for a final American fortnight, giving there in the second engagement nothing save "Carmencita and the Soldier."

Girl Reporter Tells of Job to Women at Fair

Uses Woman's Viewpoint, Man's Penpoint, She Says.

BY RUTH RUSSELL.

In spite of the Woman's World's fair and the feminist movement in general, there are still two things a woman cannot do: she can't do a man's job of reporting on a big city newspaper, and she can't write exclusively for a feminine audience, if she wants a literary reputation, according to Genevieve Forbes Herrick.

Revealing to an audience of several hundred visitors last evening at the Exposition palace some of her experiences as a reporter for THE TRIBUNE, Mrs. Herrick declared that the woman journalist must see things with a woman's viewpoint but write about them with a man's penpoint.

"The day of the sob sister is gone. Busy metropolitan newspapers cannot give space to a girl writer twittering about a boy eating bananas on a bridge at twilight," Mrs. Herrick observed.

Versatile the newspaper woman must be, she said, because one minute she may be lending her powder puff to a self-made widow, and the next minute be interviewing the general of a foreign army.

Two classes of people puzzle the reporter, she said, those who have no news value and want much publicity, and those with a good story to tell who refuse to tell it.

But, whatever a woman lacks in her ability to compete with men in the newspaper field, she gains in the field of public speaking. At the noon luncheon in honor of famous women, before an audience of more than 700 who crowded into the banquet hall, women proved that they could both make after-dinner speeches and make them brief!

Mrs. Joseph T. Bowen, presiding, called upon the following representative women of many professions and interests for remarks pertinent to the time, the place, and the gathering:

Jane Addams, social worker; Fannie Bloomfield Zeisler, pianist; Effie Shannon, actress; Mary Hastings Bradley, big game hunter; Mary Anderson, chief of the woman's bureau, department of labor; Mrs. E. J. R. Izaacs, editor; Dr. Gladys Dick, scientist; Maude Wood Parkes, president of the national Woman's party; Gertrude Bonnin, president of the National Council [illegible] American Indians.

Also present at the speakers' table were Sarka B. Hrbkova, head of the Czecho-Slovak bureau of the foreign language information service, New York; Lucy Gates, grand opera singer; Cyrena Van Gordon, Helen Bennett, managing director of the fair; Mrs. Joseph G. Coleman, Judge Mary Bartelme, Pauline Palmer, artist; Lucy Hartrath, Mrs. Bertha Iles, Ethel Barrymore, Carrie Jacobs Bond, Harriet Monroe, May Buckley, Mary Walker, and Bertha E. Jacques.

Hot strawberry "kitchenette" pies, diameter five inches, were given away at the pie booth to hundreds of brides who presented their marriage certificates. Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick, Mrs. Morris Johnston, and Mrs. Kenneth Sawyer Goodman formed part of the pie line behind the giggling brides.

At THE TRIBUNE booth today from 2 to 3:30, Gaar Williams, cartoonist, whose pictured reproduction of the old fashioned "settin'" room have made him popular with women, will be at his easel near Eleanor Jewett, art editor, and Lorene Bredeweg, illustrator. Mrs. Martin Stevers, in charge of the exhibit, will have Miss Elsie Ferguson as her guest at 3 o'clock. The evening's guests will include Maude Martin Ellis, artist; Jane Eddington, cooking editor, and Caroline Krum, society editor.

Mae Tinée, movie editor; Harold Gray, creator of "Little Orphan Annie," and Genevieve Forbes Herrick met visitors to THE TRIBUNE booth last evening.

Mothers-in-Law Seem to Gravitate to Their Sons' Homes

BY DORIS BLAKE.

"This letter is being written in the interest of all brides and brides-to-be and concerns the old and never ending question of mothers-in-law. I realize, Doris, you are a diplomatic person and won't relish antagonizing thousands and thousands of mother-in-law readers, but please do give said mothers-in-law something to read, ponder, study, and pray over, if need be.

"Apropos of all this: I have a girl friend who has a perfectly lovely and rather meek disposition, who is to be married soon to an only son of a mother, who also has a married daughter. The little romance was going along beautifully with bow and arrows an' everything when out of a rosy hued atmosphere the prospective mother-in-law announced she simply could not live with her daughter, but must live with her own darling son and his wife. Of course, she didn't broadcast this into my friend's earphones, nor those of any of her family, but only to her son, whom she continually subjects to lamentations to the effect that it would kill her to live alone, etc., etc., and more etc.

"The dutiful son is trying tactfully to draw the suggestion from his fiancée that his mother live with them, but the suggestion is not forthcoming, because even my lovely friend believes that a bride and groom should have at least a year to themselves. Perhaps I should have mentioned at the beginning that the question of fiancés does not enter into this particular case, as the mother-in-law could live comfortably whether living alone or otherwise.

"Why, O why, can't mothers-in-law realize and remember their own young romance, and just this once efface themselves and let the young things have their fling at happiness unhampered?"

I can do no more than add my voice to the plea to leave the young couple alone, not for a year, but for their lives. Here is a case where the young bride-to-be should be strongly urged to close the door against her mother-in-law as a permanent guest. She is the type that would bring trouble just as surely as death brings woe. Inconsiderate, selfish, forgetful of the needs of others, she'd be a constant menace to the happiness of the young pair. The time for the young bride to speak is before the mother-in-law moves in, not after.

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

Properly Chaperoned.

"Dear Miss Blake: A friend had the grippe. His married brother phoned, asking me to see him. My girl friend said I shouldn't go. He lives with his married brother and sister-in-law. Do you think I should go? BELLE."

Yes, Belle, it is quite all right for you to go. You will be properly chaperoned if his brother and sister-in-law are there to receive you.

Horseradish Sandwiches.

First the idea of freezing the horseradish root before trying to grate or grind it came to me from remembering that in the country we used to chop the frozen root out of the ground for various spring uses. If you take a fresh root and freeze it and grind it you will get none of the eye hurt you get otherwise, a hurt that makes us hesitate to use the horseradish as much as we might.

There are a good many ways of making it acceptable in spring sandwiches. For one sort of sandwich with white bread use one-fourth of the grated root to three times as much grated American cheese. This on buttered bread makes a sandwich that might be used for an appetizer—open, or double, with the bread cut in the thinnest slices.

To vary this combination add some mayonnaise dressing and put a lettuce leaf or some shredded lettuce into the sandwich.

Or use the horseradish with fish or meat. It is excellent with plain boiled codfish and mayonnaise, but in this case use only about one-sixth as much horseradish as of the fish.

A horseradish mousse, which is nothing but the grated horseradish combined with whipped cream and frozen—perhaps in a jelly glass, is a superior combination to serve with boiled or baked fish.

No end of horseradish sauces can be made and in serving the rather plebian roast beef sandwich a gravy that is seasoned with horseradish gives the whole piquancy, although this use of horserdish is not so refined as some others.

Both for use with beefsteak and as a sandwich filling is the horseradish butter, which is simply grated horseradish braided with butter and when used with steak this is well chilled and sometimes given a fancy shape.

THE TRIBUNE COOK BOOK, by Jane Eddington, with menus for thirty meals and with chapters making a brief guide to correct eating, is on sale for 10 cents by mail or at the Public Service Office, 11 South Dearborn street.

Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank Finds Time to Write Despite Many Duties

BY NANCY R——.

Have you ever noticed that it's always the busiest woman who has time to do something extra? Take, for example, Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank. Her [illegible] are always in demand; besides her husband, her two houses, and her three children, she's always busied with politics and parties, clubs and charities—I don't know a more efficient and popular leader and hostess here. And still she finds time to pursue the literary career for which she is so ably fitted! Her novel, "The Smiths," was a best seller for months after it came out, and this winter she's written and sold five good short stories—one of them, read not long ago at the Friday club, proved the hit of the season. I asked her just before she went abroad when she expected to do another novel, and she admitted that although she wanted to, short stories were more fun and less arduous. One of the most active women in Chicago, she still manages to squeeze out hours to go on with her writing, a job in itself that would stump an ordinary human being.

A delightful visitor to Chicago this week has been Mrs. Hanbury Budden of Montreal, who has been visiting her brother and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Small of 32 East Division street. The Smalls spend part of each summer enjoying hospitality over the border, and this week they've been filling their guest's calendar pad with Chicago functions.

From abroad comes word that Mrs. Bryan Lathrop finds her Florentine villa so pleasant she's going to stay there through May. Mrs. Reginald de Koven, who opened her charming house not far from Mrs. Lathrop's in March, will also remain in Italy until the late spring.

Day's News in Society

The cabaret supper dance to be given in the ballroom of the Hotel Sherman this evening by the Volunteer Aids of the Chicago Lighthouse for the Blind promises to be one of the spring season's gayest parties. Several stage folk, including Miss Irene Bordoni, Miss Vivienne Segal, Bernard Granville, and some members of the casts of the musical shows in town, have consented to attend and entertain. Mrs. Herbert Kennedy is in charge of the entertainment. Mrs. Harold Strotz has been managing the sale of boxes. Members of the Aids who have been active in making the arrangements include Mrs. Nathan G. Osborne, Miss Dorothy Schmidt, Miss Hester White, Mrs. Roland R. Boswell, and Mrs. Taylor Strawn.

More than 100 reservations have been made for the Art club's Spanish supper this evening, and more are expected. There is to be a Spanish menu, the members are to wear Spanish headgear, and Mme. Maria Montero is to give a program of Spanish dances.

Elbert H. Gary and Mrs. Gary, who have come on from New York City for the wedding tomorrow of their granddaughter, Miss Elizabeth Campbell, to Edward Sutherland Clark, are to give a luncheon for 60 guests at the Drake this noon. The party will include the bride and the bridegroom, their attendants, and several friends of the families involved. One of the important out of town guests for the wedding and its attendant festivities is Mr. Gary's brother, the Rev. Olin J. Gary of Moscow Hills, Mo.

The Musical guild is to hold its sixth birthday party at the guild house at 7:45 o'clock this evening. There is to be dancing, a musical program, and some surprise stunts are promised. The guild announces a bridge party this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The countess of Suffolk and Mrs. Frank Hamline Scott of the Ambassador hotel are at Virginia Hot Springs until next Sunday.

Mrs. McClelland Barclay of 40 East Schiller street is to depart on Sunday for a five months' stay in the east. She plans to go first to New York City for the marriage on Monday of Miss Marion Marston, a former Chicago girl, to Robert Myers. She is to spend a few weeks in Washington, D. C., when she will be joined by Mr. Barclay, to go to Bass Rocks, their new summer place near Gloucester. They expect to be in the new place by May 15 and will stay until October.

Mrs. John Roberts of the Sisson hotel has departed for her country place at Framingham, Mass., where she is to give a house party for her niece, Miss Brown Freeman.

Taking It Literally.

One summer I was cook on a lake freighter and had occasion to ship a new porter at Buffalo, who turned out to be the prince of dumbbells.

The captain being late for supper one night, I remarked in a joking way: "Somebody ought to go up forward and ask the 'old man' if he thinks this is his birthday."

Imagine my embarrassment a few minutes later when the captain stepped into the galley and said, "Say, steward, what's the idea of sending the porter to inquire whether or not I thought this was my birthday?"

The new porter, anxious to please, had taken my remark seriously. G. S.

Fight for Home Urged by Head of Y.W.C.A.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 22.—[Special.]—"Woman must keep her home together by employing her wisdom, love, and spiritual influence against the speed of modern living. She must follow her children outside the home, if necessary, to keep up with their interests and guide their activities."

Such was the message given to 3,000 delegates to the ninth annual convention of the Y. W. C. A. here today by Mrs. Robert E. Speer, New York, president of the national board.

Dr. Charles W. Gilkey, pastor of the First Baptist church, Chicago, denounced modern drama and fiction as "sex drenched, disillusioned, and with a bitter assumption that between man and woman is simply a passion of the flesh and of the hour."

The international luncheon was given this noon to more than 550 delegates. Mrs. James S. Cushman, vice president of the world committee, presided. Short talks were given by delegates from many countries.

A reception for all convention delegates was given at the Elks club tonight.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., April 22.—[Special.]—Mrs. Dawes, wife of the Vice President, slipped away from her home yesterday, in spite of the fact that she was "at home" informally, to pay a conspicuous compliment to the wives of two senators, Pepper and Reed, of Pennsylvania. During a lull in her own callers, she motored away to the annex of the Metropolitan club to the tea which these hostesses were giving for the Pennsylvania delegation to the continental congress, D. A. R.

Mrs. Taft, wife of the chief justice, was the guest at luncheon today of Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant, who had a distinguished company to meet her.

Senator and Mrs. James Couzens of Michigan gave a dinner this evening for the French Ambassador and Mme. Berenger.

Mrs. Willoughby Chesley gave a dinner tonight at the Arts club in compliment to Mrs. Samuel W. Earle of Chicago, elected recording secretary general.

Mrs. William Trevor of Chicago, is arriving tomorrow from New York, where she has been visiting, and will be the guest of Mrs. Clarence W. Bush until early next week.

FARM & GARDEN By FRANK RIDGWAY

Owners of new homes have a big job ahead of them when it comes to picking out the right kinds of shrubs to plant on the grounds. There is no time to be wasted if the shrubs are to get a good start while there is plenty of moisture in the soil.

Below is a brief sketch of five good shrubs to plant in this section. Growers recommended bridal wreath, Japanese barberry, bush honeysuckle, pink flowering almond, and mock orange for this section. In commenting on their good qualities A. J. Young, an Aurora, Ill., nurseryman, said bridal wreath's real name is spirea prunifolium. It is an old hardy standby with small white flowers coming out in May and June and is often planted against the foundation or in arched curves along borders.

Japanese barberry lives through the winter here, producing small red berries in cold weather and is planted next to the house or in front of tall borders. It does not carry the wheat rust pest like common barberry.

Bush honeysuckle is an aristocratic favorite, and bella abida is the variety now being praised skyhigh, growing 6 to 8 feet tall, upright, dense, clean leaves, and sends out a fragrant flower in May and June. It is loaded with bright red berries by September. The berries attract birds.

Mr. Young says not to buy the pink flowering almond unless it is budded on native American plum seedlings, or on its own roots. It has small red roses all along its stems even before leaves appear.

Mock orange is an old fashioned kind. The new mock orange is a profuse bloomer and is used where a tall plant is needed to screen the house.

BOSSING

In your travels, have you found
Goops, who order you around?
Never "Please," or "If you will,"
Just "Do this! . . . Do that!" until
You are quite provoked and cross.
He's the Goop who likes to "Boss."

Sorority Spring Party.

Phi Delta Rho fraternity announces its fifth annual spring party at the Edgewater Beach hotel this evening.

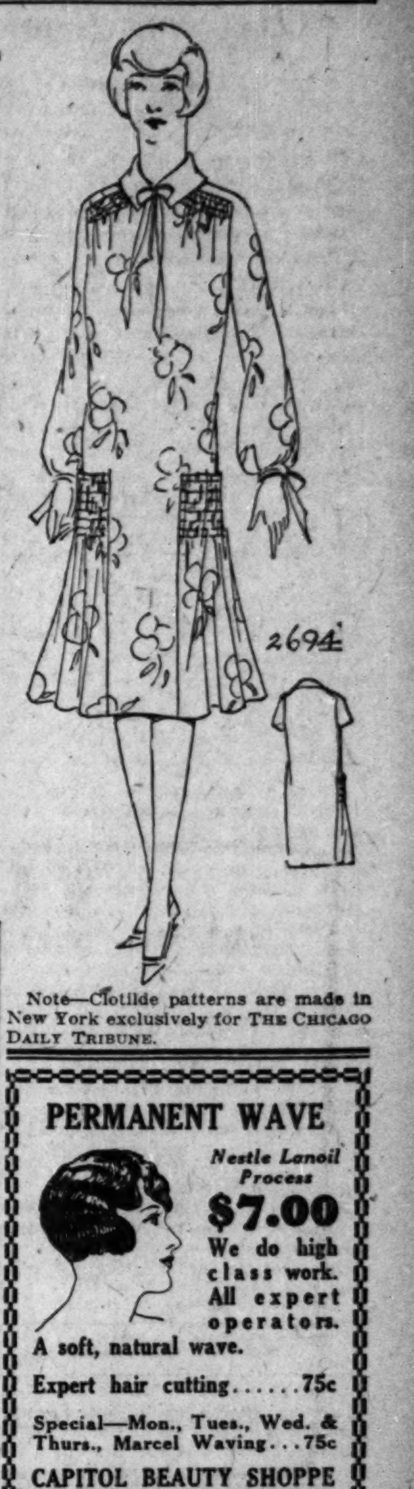
PATTERNS BY CLOTILDE

[Registered U. S. Patent Office.]

WOMAN'S OR MISS' DRESS.

This pretty dress is slashed down from the neck in the center front, bound and finished for closing. The front is in panel style, with shirred insets at the sides stitched to form pockets at the tops. The sleeves may be long or short, and they extend to the neck, forming saddle shoulders.

The pattern, 2694, comes in sizes 16 and 18 years, and 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 3½ yards of 40 inch material with ⅝ yard of 32 inch contrasting.



Note—Clotilde patterns are made in New York exclusively for THE CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE.

Keeping Your Schoolgirl Complexion
By IRENE CASTLE
Copyrighted 1926 by P. O. Beauty Features

Think Twice
Before "trying" an unproved soap on your face
Use only a true complexion soap; then this way

ONE of the first "don'ts" in skin care, if you wish to safeguard your complexion, is "don't" experiment with untried soaps.

Beauty experts urge daily cleansing of the skin and pores with soap and water. That's judged of prime importance. But you must use the right soap. That is, a true complexion soap.

That is why Palmolive is so widely urged. It is a unique soap; a soap made of rare cosmetic oils for ONE purpose only, to safeguard the complexion. Before it came women were told "use no soap on your faces." Soaps then were judged too harsh. Remember that point when tempted to "experiment."

Use daily in this way—it is Nature's formula to "Keep That Schoolgirl Complexion."

The daily rule that thousands follow now

Wash your face gently with Palmolive Soap, massaging it softly into the skin. Rinse thoroughly, first with warm water, then with cold. If your skin is inclined to be dry, apply a touch of good cold cream—that is all.

Do this regularly, and particularly in the evening. Use powder and rouge if you wish. But never leave them on over night. They clog the pores, often enlarge them. Blackheads and disfigurements often follow. They must be washed away. Just do this and your skin will become soft and lovely—wrinkles will be less a problem as the years advance.

Get real Palmolive

Palmolive costs but 10c the cake because of great volume and manufacturing efficiency . . . so little that millions let it do for their bodies what it does for the face. Obtain a cake today. See what a difference one week's use will make in your complexion. The Palmolive Company (Del. Corp.), Chicago, Illinois.

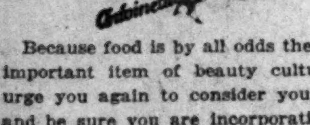
Your Larder's Your Best Ally in the Quest for Beauty



by Antoinette Donnelly

Because food is by all odds the most important item of beauty culture, I urge you again to consider your diet and be sure you are incorporating in it those essential items that preserve teeth, hair, figure and complexion.

It is a well known fact that round shoulders, flat chests and poor teeth, seen frequently in school children, are due in large measure to faulty diet. Likewise, it is known that the adult suffers most of his ills—beauty and otherwise—from poor food choice.

The tendency of a healthy diet is primarily to make the intestines function properly and normally.

A quart of milk a day, either as a beverage or in foods, is urged because milk is rich in vitamins, and, too, because it encourages the growth in the intestines of bacteria which cause the putrefaction of protein foods. When the proper amount of milk is used, the amount of noxious products formed in the intestines is negligible. You must not only have the right foods, but you must get rid of the waste promptly.

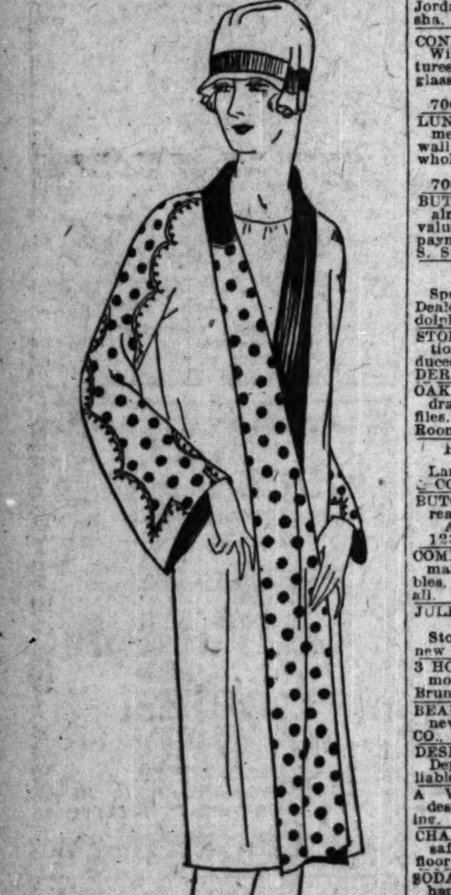
Twice a day salads of lettuce, tomatoes, cabbage or any fresh fruit, and vegetable salad that is leafy or fibrous should be eaten. Oil dressings are preferable to boiled because the oil is laxative. No dinner should be served without at least one generous quantity of a coarse, leafy vegetable to provide the body with invaluable substances which it cannot get out of cereals, meats and potatoes, and because it leaves a bulky residue which aids the intestines. Leafy vegetables, such as spinach, lettuce, cabbage, chard, cauliflower, Brussels sprouts, beet tops, water cress and onions, contain vitamins. Raw cabbage, raw tomatoes and raw carrots you are particularly urged to eat frequently. Oranges and orange juice have intensely valuable properties.

If your complexion is "off color," or you have any beauty ill, I would suggest you take the diet cure just to prove that the larder is the best little ally you have.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

J. Y. T.: COLD CREAM OR VASeline may be applied to your nails frequently to make them less brittle. The white spots on the nails are often due to small injuries, such as carelessness in manicuring. The only cure is to remove the cause. Manicuring instructions may be had for a stamped, addressed envelope.

Gay Revers Make Black Coat Joyous



by Corinne Lowe

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—One is sure that if the modern designer of coats would go to Freud, the great Viennese psycho-analyst, he would get the same advice handed out to the amusing heroine of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." He would be told to cultivate some inhibitions. Just at present he—and she also—is surely failing in this commodity. The designer does anything that he pleases. Never a "suppressed desire" is to be located in his psychology.

We probably never had before in the history of wraps such an untrammeled expression of personality. Wrap anything around your figure and the whole world will cry, "How chic!" Yet it is strange that so many of these uninhibited wishes center about the simple straight line coat. That this is the leading coat silhouette of the spring nobody can doubt after making a tour of the fashionable shops.

Yet what things they do to this simple straight line! Behold, for example, Jenny's spring model of black taffeta shown above. Behold how the designer makes one rever of white and black dotted taffeta and the other of plain mustard green taffeta. See also the scalloped inset of the former which she sets on the top of the sleeve. White embroidery to define these scallops is the last expression of perfect freedom.

However, one of the successes of the season is Jenny's three-quarter topcoat, which is plain as plain can be, and which we shall show you with appropriate remarks later on.

WANTED—MALE HELP.
Miscellaneous.

$35-$50 WEEKLY.

EARN AN EXTRA PAY CHECK EVERY WEEK.

Would you devote every moment of your spare time if you were promised $50 per week as an extra income? Through the expansion of our 37 offices, additional positions have been created. Work may be done in spare time. Full time pays you twice as much. Business men and mechanics of all trades are acceptable. If you do not care to work in the loop, work may be done at your own home. Investigate immediately. This ad will appear until Friday evening only. Every one given fullest consideration.

EXPERIENCE NOT NECESSARY.

No red tape. Remember, an extra pay check every week. Call at 8 o'clock Friday evening, April 23, 4th floor, 360 N. Michigan-av. [London Guarantee and Accidental Bldg.]

NOTE: DON'T FORGET FRIDAY EVENING ONLY. IDLERS AND STAR-GAZERS STAY AWAY.

WE EARNESTLY BELIEVE that if we get the right man to give us his spare time each evening that our proposition will pay him greater financial returns than his present position. The man we are looking for does not need any particular experience, but must be honest and be sincere in his desire to work hard and be on the job every evening. Address O S 181, Tribune.

DO YOU

waste all your evenings "after work" hours that other men make use of to get ahead faster and then wonder why you stay in a rut? Why not make money in your spare time and get experience that will enable you to get ahead?

Regardless of your experience, we have openings in our firm that require the attention of some ambitious, neat appearing men. The men we select will find that they can make more money with us than they thought possible in spare time. If you are interested, write. Address O S 161, Tribune.

AN EXTRAORDINARY OPPORTUNITY.

The man we want is employed and successful in his line, but desires to better his position in life. We prefer a married man over 25. He must have a pleasing personality, possess a good vocabulary, plus unlimited courage and faith in himself. Income possibilities are exceptionally large if you are ambitious and willing to learn, and will be satisfied with $75 per week to start. "Sell yourself" in your reply. Address S K 553, Tribune.

MAN — EXPERIENCED IN packing bottles, glassware, etc.; state previous connections, age, and salary wanted; position permanent; must start at once. Address P K 600, Tribune.

MEN! MEN! MEN!
$50-$75 WEEKLY.

Henry Ford's latest project makes it possible for me to offer you a pleasant, lucrative position; make $50-$75 weekly. Call Friday evening, 8 o'clock, Room 1313, 105 W. Monroe-st. Be prompt.

Spare Time Means Money.

If I can afford to pay you the highest money per hour for just three of your evenings a week, can't you afford to give up your "movie" or radio for that time? All I ask is that you let me tell my story. I know it will interest you. Address S K 567, Tribune.

THE ORIENTAL THEATER

will open soon. We will hire an ushering staff of refined young men between the ages of 17 and 22 who have the necessary education, appearance and desire to make good in the Balaban & Katz organization. Call at McVicker's Theater, 4 p. m. today.

IF YOU ONLY KNEW

how much your spare time is worth to me, you would wish you had more of it to sell. But if it's only a few hours two or three times a week, I'll buy it and pay you well. If you are over 25, write for my offer. Address S K 551, Tribune.

RAILROAD MAN who has had experience in yard work, switching, or braking, one who is not now employed, who can use his experience in other work. Apply to DISTRICT MANAGER, Room 1207 Mallers Bldg., 5 S. Wabash-av.

HEAD HOUSEMAN,

thoroughly experienced. Apply by letter only; give complete information as to age, experience, etc.
EDGEWATER BEACH HOTEL,
5300 Sheridan-rd.

TWO NEAT MEN

Over 25, to assist me three evenings a week, about two hours each evening. This proposition will pay well and offers the opportunity for a permanent connection to the right man. Address O N 381, Tribune.

MECHANICAL

worker, one who can use his experience in other work; good position with permanent possibilities. Ask for FIRST ASSISTANT, Room 1207 Mallers Bldg., 5 S. Wabash-av.

MEN—2, WELL DRESSED.

Salary and commission. Call after 11 a. m. Mr. Hurtig, Room 429, 160 No. La Salle-st.

MAN—YOUNG, REPRESENTATIVE IN RElgious education work; active Christian, well educated, free to travel; permanent work offering advancement on merit. MR. ANDERSON, 205 W. Monroe-st., 10th Flr. Call p. m.

MEN 45 TO 55,

who are having trouble getting employment because of age. If you are physically fit and want permanent work we can use you. About $30 per week to start if you qualify. MR. HAWKINS, 36 S. State-st., R. 714 North American Bldg.

IDLE BRAIN?

Turn your spare time into cash. Make money with your 3 or 4 hours loafing time; no selling; inside work. MR. PERRY, 1505, 6 N. Michigan-av.

COLLEGE MEN.

FULL TIME OR EVENING WORK.
Betw. 25 or 30 years of age, neat appearing, and good manners. Apply MR. ROBINSON, Rm. 702, 6 N. Michigan-av.

CLEAN CUT YOUNG MEN

can average $35 per week driving for us. Apply University Cab Co., 1829 Benson-av., Evanston.

ORDER FILLERS—STRONG, ACTIVE MEN WITH GROCERY EXPERIENCE FOR FILLING ORDERS AT NIGHT; FULL TIME WORK; PERMANENT POSITIONS. APPLY JOHN SEXTON & CO., 352 W. ILLINOIS-ST.

WHERE VALUES ARE CONSTANTLY ENHANCING,
There is no better investment in a co-operative apartment home than the beautiful, substantially constructed
1120 Lake Shore Drive

The merits of this project are attested by forty-two owners, among whom are architects, engineers, real estate agents, financiers, brokers, and executives. Men whose business it is to know real estate values, financial, legal, and construction details.

THE PROJECT IS CONSERVATIVELY AND ECONOMICALLY FINANCED WITH A 43% MORTGAGE AND A 57% EQUITY. THE APARTMENTS ARE IDEALLY PLANNED AND RANGE FROM FIVE TO SEVEN ROOMS. THEY ARE MODERATELY PRICED WITH EQUITIES FROM $12,800 UP. THERE IS A LIBERAL PARTIAL PAYMENT PLAN. THE MONTHLY ASSESSMENTS ARE $117 UP.

You cannot afford to be unacquainted with the values in this project. May we send you our literature? Call at the Bldg. and our agent will be pleased to show you the apartments.

GET A PENCIL AND PAPER.
A tenant at 2812 Cambridge-av., east of Broadway, at Diversey, is paying $120 per mo. for an apt. which costs the landlord only $42.03 per mo. for entire upkeep and operating of that apt. The net profit from that rent is $77.97 per mo.; in seven years that tenant will pay a profit of $6,548.48. The apt. can be bought now for $6,500. The owner will have all of his money back in 7 yrs., and he will still own a piece of property which has greatly increased in value.
Why buy property for the landlord? Landlords build the bldgs. and the tenants pay for them—fine business—for the landlord. We sell co-operative apts. on easy terms.

STUDEBAKER

Thrifty people are buying now – from Studebaker's assortment of 300 cars—at no increase in prices – and under Studebaker's celebrated Used Car Pledge, which completely eliminates all guesswork in used car buying.

Oakland Sedan.

1926, 4 door, 5 passenger, carefully driven only 1,400 miles. If this sedan was placed by the side of a brand new car it would be impossible to distinguish it from new. The finish, balloon tires, upholstery and engine are like new. Equipped with two bumpers, large motometer, windshield spotlight, extra tire, 4 wheel brakes, rear vision mirror, snubbers, etc. Attractively priced at $985.

Dodge Sedan.

1925 type A sedan. 5 balloon tires; original finish and upholstery like new; engine in finest of condition; has disc wheels, 2 bumpers, motometer; specially priced at $785.

Nash Sedan.

1925 two door sedan with its original finish which rivals that of a brand new car. There is not a mar or scratch on the body or fenders. Its original balloon tires look new; the upholstery is clean and looks unused. New extra tire, two bumpers, large motometer, 4 wheel brakes, step plates, rear vision mirror and automatic windshield wiper; rack on rear for trunk; an opportunity to purchase a practically new Nash for only $885.

Buick Coach.

5 passenger, refinished beautiful dark blue and presents a very attractive appearance. The upholstery looks brand new; engine is in very good condition; equipped with front bumper, motometer, snubbers, trunk windshield spotlight, etc. Specially priced at $645.

Dodge Coupe.

1925 business man's coupe with its original finish and slightly used balloon tires; engine just broken in properly and runs splendidly; 2 bumpers, extra tire, motometer, etc.; specially priced at $685.

Willys-Knight Touring.

Relacquered beautiful green; engine which has just been broken in properly runs splendidly. The tires are good. This late 1924 has been reduced to $485 and is one of the best buys in Chicago. Has every extra.

Essex Coach.

1924, with original finish which is in good condition; engine runs perfectly; disc wheels, upholstery like new; fully equipped; specially priced at $385.

Willys-Knight Sedan.

Original tires; beautiful green finish; engine just broken in properly. Here is a 4 door 5 passenger sedan, which merits your immediate inspection. At $845, it will not be on sale very long. The body finish, engine, upholstery, etc., will pass the most critical inspection. Equipped with an extra tire, two bumpers, snubbers, large trunk, etc.

Flint Coupe.

4 passenger, used about fifteen months, but shows very little signs of wear. Its sky blue finish is beautiful. Its engine has been corrected and runs splendidly. The upholstery and inside appointments look new; this car has had regular monthly inspections and is a dandy in every respect. Equipped with 5 disc wheels, extra tire, front bumper, large motometer, special headlights, etc.; specially priced at $685.

Reo Sedan.

1924, 5 passenger, 4 door with its original gray finish which looks attractive. There is not a scratch or dent on the body or fenders. The engine is just broken in properly, as the car has been driven very little. The upholstery and inside appointments will appeal to a person with the most exacting taste. Equipped with 5 disc wheels, extra tire, motometer, snubbers, large trunk, bumpers, rear vision mirror, automatic windshield wiper, special steering wheel with lock, etc.; attractively priced at $785.

Hudson Sedan.

5 passenger; original blue finish; looks attractive; 5 extra good tires; engine overhauled; upholstery absolutely like new; very small mileage; fully equipped; specially priced at $645.

Hup Touring.

Sport model, with side wings, like new. Original finish; motor corrected; special nickel headlamps; upholstery, top and curtains like new; fully equipped; specially priced at $485.

CADILLAC

Your Investment Secured by Our Warranty on Reconditioned V-63's

The 90 day warranty which backs every reconditioned V-63 sold by Cadillac Motor Car Co. safeguards your investment. It gives you the same protection that the buyers of a new Cadillac receive.

Cadillac Motor Car Co. could not afford to stand back of these V-63's unless it was sure that they would give complete satisfaction. It makes certain that they will be satisfactory in the reconditioned process, which is completely carried out in the Cadillac service shops.

Every reconditioned V-63 is entirely refinished with Duco. The engine and chassis are carefully examined and all necessary mechanical work done, even to replacing parts when needed. The car is cleaned inside and out. It is equipped with new tires and extra accessories.
